

Affidavit of Financial Support

EDGEWOOD COLLEGE - International Undergraduate Admissions

The Department of Homeland Security requires F-1 students to show adequate and available funding for the first year of study and sufficient funding for subsequent years. Traditional Undergraduate students requesting an I-20 (F-1 Visa) for the 2023 -2024 school year should be able to demonstrate the ability to pay at least $54,040 USD per year. Please note that this amount is an estimate and is subject to change at any time.

Although Edgewood College offers on-campus employment opportunities, it is necessary that each student evaluates the cost of attending Edgewood College and is prepared to finance it totally. Tuition and fees for each term must be paid in full prior to beginning classes.

Annual Expenses for 2023-2024

Undergraduate Tuition and Fees	$34,850
Housing and Meals	$12,590
Other (books, insurance, misc.)	$6,600
Total (if no dependents- $8,000 for each dependent)	$54,040

Please complete one (or both) of the following:

Family/Sponsor Certification

By signing this affidavit, I, _____, certify to provide the amount of funds listed above for _____, who is my _____, for full-time study at Edgewood College. This commitment will continue for the duration of the student's course of study. I have provided a current bank letter(s)/statement(s) to attest to my ability to support the student.

Signature of Financial Sponsor: _____

Student Certification

By signing this affidavit, I, _____, certify to provide the amount of funds listed above from my own financial resources for full-time study at Edgewood College. This commitment will continue for the duration of my course of study. I have provided a current bank letter(s)/statement(s) to attest to my ability to support myself.

Student Signature: _____

An official letter or statement from a financial institution must accompany this document.

The document:

- Must be original letters or statements from a financial institution with original ink signatures and stamps.
- Must be written in English or accompanied by official English translation and indicate unit of currency.
- Must include the sponsor's name or student's name exactly as it appears on student's application.
- Must be dated within six months of application date.

Documents submitted to Edgewood College will belong to the institution and be unavailable for release or photocopies. Students should request additional original documents to present to the U.S. Consulate or Embassy when requesting a student visa, and to present to immigration officials when entering the United States.