

EDGEWOOD COLLEGE

Supplemental Application for Conditional Admission to Edgewood College

Applicant _____

Date _____

Please note: In addition to your high school transcripts, ACT scores, and recommendation forms, this application will be reviewed by the Edgewood College Admissions Committee and used to make a decision about conditional admission to Edgewood College. If you are admitted, you will participate in a year-long academic support program (College Transition Program) designed to help students succeed.

On a separate sheet of paper, type your responses to the questions below. Please do not exceed 200 words per response.

1. To what extent do your high school grades reflect your academic abilities? Please write specifically about both your strong and weak subject areas.
2. What life circumstances may have helped or hindered your academic success thus far?
3. Describe how and when you made the decision to attend college and why Edgewood College will be the best place for you to earn your undergraduate degree.
4. What choices will you make to be successful in college?
5. Please list any activities you participated in during high school and indicate which activities you plan to participate in at Edgewood College. Please note if you have received any special honors or awards for your work with these activities. You may also list family responsibilities, work obligations, or volunteer experiences.
6. Is there anything else the Admissions Committee should know about you in order to make a decision about your admission to Edgewood College?

Responses can be submitted by email to admissions@edgewood.edu, by fax to (608) 663-2214, or by mail to:
