OFFICIAL NOTICES

This catalogue is effective for traditional undergraduate freshmen entering the College beginning in the Fall 2012 semester and all traditional undergraduate students entering the College beginning in the Fall 2012 semester and until a new catalogue is published. The 2012 – 2013 catalogue may also be found online at www.edgewood.edu.

The content of this document is provided for the information of the student. It is accurate at the time of publication, but is subject to change as deemed appropriate to fulfill Edgewood College’s role or Mission or to accommodate circumstances beyond the College’s control. Any such changes may be implemented without prior notice, without obligation, and, unless specified, are effective when made.

All students are reminded to read carefully the sections of the catalogue pertaining to them. Lack of awareness of policies or requirements will not serve as a justifiable excuse at a later date. Edgewood College's liability to any student for any reason and upon any cause of action related to the statements made in this catalogue is published. The 2012 – 2013 catalogue may also be available in the Dean of Students Office.

The Student Right to Know and Campus Security Act was signed into law November 8, 1990. This federal legislation requires colleges and universities whose students receive federal financial aid to disclose and report graduation/persistence rates for full-time undergraduate students. Edgewood College is in compliance with Title I, Sections 103 and 104 of the Student Right to Know Act (P.L. 101-545 as amended by P.L. 102-26); compliance with Title I, Sections 103 and 104 of the Student Right to Know Act (P.L. 101-545 as amended by P.L. 102-26); students should be aware of these practices and confer with their advisors regarding their particular situations.

Edgewood College's crime statistics report and campus safety policies are available at www.edgewood.edu. A paper copy is available in the Dean of Students Office.

The State of Wisconsin passed the Wisconsin Caregiver Background Check Law in 1998. This law requires a criminal background check on all people who are involved in the care of certain vulnerable groups, i.e., children, the elderly and other compromised populations. The intent of the law is to protect clients from being harmed. Therefore, Edgewood College requires background checks of employees, volunteers and students in clinical field experience placements. Students should be aware of these practices and confer with their advisors regarding their particular situations.

Edgewood College's crime statistics report and campus safety policies are available at www.edgewood.edu. A paper copy is available in the Dean of Students Office.

ABOUT

EDGECOED COLLEGE
Mission
Edgewood College, rooted in the Dominican tradition, engages students within a community of learners committed to building a just and compassionate world. The College educates students for meaningful personal and professional lives of ethical leadership, service, and a lifelong search for truth.

Identity
Sponsored by the Sinsinawa Dominicans, Edgewood College is a community of learners that affirms both its Catholic heritage and its respect for other religious traditions. The liberal arts are the foundation of all our curricular offerings in the humanities, arts, sciences, and professional programs. Committed to excellence in teaching and learning, we seek to develop intellect, spirit, imagination, and heart. We welcome women and men who reflect the rich diversity of the world’s cultures and perspectives. We foster open, caring, thoughtful engagement with one another and an enduring commitment to service, all in an educational community that seeks truth, compassion, justice and partnership.

Vision
To be a college of choice where students are transformed within a highly engaged, integrated learning community committed to personal fulfillment and the common good.

Sinsinawa Sponsorship
The Sinsinawa Dominican Congregation of Catholic Sisters, founded in 1847, has throughout its history engaged in an on-going commitment to sponsored ministries in an effort to further its mission. In each of their sponsored institutions, the Sinsinawa Dominicans, in partnership with administrators, faculty, staff, board members and friends, seek to influence the ongoing development of each unique ministry. Sinsinawa Dominican Sisters serve on the faculty and staff at Edgewood College.

Nondiscrimination on the Basis of Disability
It shall be the policy of Edgewood College to ensure that no qualified person shall, solely by reason of disability, be excluded from participation in, or be denied benefits of, any program or activity operated by Edgewood College.

It is the responsibility of the student seeking services to provide all necessary information and documentation of special requirements for assistance well in advance of actual need for those services. It is recommended that all information be submitted 30 days prior to the beginning of a semester. Requests for some services such as alternative textbook formats and sensory impairment accommodations may require more notice. Services for students with disabilities are coordinated through Student Accessibility and Disability Service.
Diversity Statement
Edgewood College welcomes its learning community women and men of diverse backgrounds, religious affiliations, ethnic and racial identifications, and sexual orientations.

Equal Opportunity Employment Statement
It is the basic policy of Edgewood College, in accordance with its long-term commitment to the principles of social justice, to administer its employment practices— including those pertaining to recruitment, hiring, transfers, promotions, tuition remission, compensation, benefits and terminations— in a non-discriminatory manner, without regard to race, religion, color, age, sex, sexual orientation, national origin, handicap/disability, or any other basis prohibited by applicable federal, state or local fair employment laws or regulations.

Affirmative Action Statement
Edgewood College respects the dignity and gifts of each person.
We strive to create environments in which the value of diversity is understood, practiced, and embraced by our faculty, staff, and students. Diversity encompasses race, color, ethnicity, national origin, religion, gender, age, sexual orientation, disability, and veteran status. In order to foster diversity, we commit ourselves not only to Equal Employment Opportunity, but also to Affirmative Action through special efforts to search for qualified faculty, staff, and students from diverse backgrounds. We believe that taking affirmative action will advance our goals of social and economic justice for all people. It will empower those of diverse heritages and backgrounds to share their unique contributions and, thus, further the mission of Edgewood College.

Nondiscriminatory Policy
Edgewood College admits students of any race, color, national and ethnic origin to all the rights, privileges, programs and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the College. It does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national and ethnic origin in administration of its educational policies, admissions policies, scholarship and loan programs, and athletic and other College-administered programs. The College welcomes women and men who reflect the rich diversity of the world’s cultures and perspectives.

ADMISSIONS POLICIES AND PROCEDURES
Edgewood College seeks to enroll students who are prepared to have a successful college experience. Grades from high school or previous colleges, test scores, course content, and life experiences may be considered in making an admission decision. The Admissions Committee may grant admission to students whose past performance does not meet direct admissions standards if there is sufficient evidence of academic potential. Priority admission deadlines are established each semester. Check www.edgewood.edu, or contact the Office of Admissions for deadlines. Note that admission to the College neither guarantees nor implies course availability.

For questions about admission, contact the Office of Admissions at:

Academic documents required for admission consideration can be found online at www.edgewood.edu.

Transcripts must be sent in a sealed envelope from the issuing institution to:

Edgewood College
Office of Admissions
1000 Edgewood College Dr.
Madison, WI 53711-1997

Consideration for Admission for First-Time Students
Candidates for admission to Edgewood College are expected to present a minimum 2.5 (on a 4.0 scale) cumulative high school grade point average, rank in the upper half of their graduating high school class, and a minimum composite score of 18 ACT or 850 SAT. GED students are expected to achieve a minimum composite score of 2740. Admission to Edgewood College does not imply or guarantee admission into certain schools or programs. Additional entrance requirements may be required for programs including but not limited to nursing and education. Contact the Office of Admissions for details.

Consideration for Admission for Transfer Students
Candidates are expected to present a minimum cumulative college grade point average of 2.0 (on a 4.0 scale) in a minimum of 12 academic-level credits from a regionally accredited institution. Admissions for students who do not meet the 2.0 credit minimum will be reviewed based on the admission requirements for freshmen. Admission to Edgewood College does not imply or guarantee admission into certain schools or programs. Additional entrance requirements may be required for programs including but not limited to nursing and education. Contact the Office of Admissions for details.

Failure to report previously attended institutions in the admission process may result in action, including dismissal, from the College. Students dismissed from a previous college must wait one full year prior to applying to Edgewood. After that time, the student must submit additional materials (personal statement, letters of recommendation) for review by the Admissions Committee.

Consideration for Admission for Post-Baccalaureate Students
Students who have earned a Bachelor’s degree and wish to be admitted to work toward certification or to earn a second major or second baccalaureate degree will be considered post-baccalaureate students. Post-baccalaureate students are expected to present an official transcript confirming completion of a Bachelor’s degree from a regionally accredited college or university. Failure to report previously attended institutions in the admission process may result in action, including dismissal, from the College.

Consideration for Admission for International Students
Edgewood College is authorized to issue the required Certificate of Eligibility for Admission (I-20 Form) necessary to obtain a student visa. In addition to the required academic documents to be considered for admission, international students seeking an I-20 Form from Edgewood College are required to present the following:
1. Proof of English proficiency (for applicants whose primary language is not English). Applicants must prove English proficiency by submitting one of the following documents:
   • TOEFL score of 71 or higher on the internet-based test (IBT) or 525 or higher on the paper-based test (PBT) (For more information visit www.toefl.org)
   • IELTS overall band score of 6.0 or higher (For more information visit www.ielts.org)
   • Letter of recommendation from an approved ESL instructor (such as WESLI or MELS).
   • A transcript demonstrating successful completion of 1 year of college-level work in English.

2. Proof of financial support for the duration of study at Edgewood College. Students who are seeking an I-1 or J-1 student visa must show sufficient funds on deposit for at least one year of study. Financial documents must be original letters or statements from a financial institution with original ink signatures and stamps, be written in English or accompanied by official English translation, indicate unit of currency, include both the sponsor’s name and student’s name exactly as it appears on student’s application, and be dated within six months of application date. Financial documents must:
   • Be original letters or statements from a financial institution with original ink signatures and stamps
   • Be written in English or accompanied by official English translation and indicate unit of currency
   • Include both the sponsor’s name and student’s name exactly as it appears on student’s application
   • Be dated within six months of application date

3. If college-level work has been completed, applicants are required to present any transcripts, certificates, or diplomas pertaining to this work. To receive transfer credit from international institutions, students must submit a detailed "course-by-course" evaluation of credits from an approved international credential evaluator. Applications will not be considered after May 1 for the start of the Fall semester or November 1 for the Spring. All priority admission deadlines also apply to international students. Applicants are encouraged to apply as soon as possible, as it may take weeks or months after the issuance of the I-20 form to receive a visa.

General admissions deadlines apply to students who do not need I-20 forms (i.e., they are here on another visa, are permanent residents, etc.) and re-entry students.
Consideration for Admission for Students Not Seeking a Degree

Students may be admitted to Edgewood College to take courses without pursuing a degree. All non-degree students are subject to the priority admission deadlines set by the Office of Admissions. Overall institutional enrollment may impact eligibility for non-degree seeking students. Instructor approval to take a specific course does not constitute permission to enroll in courses at the College and will not influence a student's admission.

Consideration for Admission for Re-Entry Students

All students interested in returning to Edgewood College must complete the online re-entry form available at www.edgewood.edu.

Re-entering students are expected to present official transcripts from all institutions attended since taking courses at Edgewood College. Failure to report previously attended institutions in the admission process may result in action, including dismissal, from the College.

Students previously dismissed from Edgewood College who wish to return must follow the eligibility requirements specified in their official dismissal letter from the College.

Initial matriculation carries a five-year statute of limitations. If a student re-enters after an absence of five or more years, he or she will be responsible for completing all requirements in the catalogue in effect at the time of re-entry.

Auditing Courses

Courses offered for credit are available for audit at the discretion of the instructor. Instructor approval is required for auditing and the instructor will also determine the student's level of participation in the course.

Overall institutional enrollment may impact eligibility for auditors. Instructor approval to take a specific course does not constitute permission to enroll in courses at the College and will not influence a student's admission as an auditor.

Transfer of Credit Policy

1. An official evaluation of credits is made after the student is admitted to the college.
2. Courses in which a student receives a "D" grade or lower do not transfer.
3. Any transfer student who has not fulfilled Edgewood's English composition and mathematics requirements must take placement tests upon entry.
4. A maximum of 60 semester hours can be transferred from all junior colleges or two-year campuses attended.
5. Students who receive an Associate of Arts and Science Degree in Liberal Studies from one of the University of Wisconsin Colleges or who have received an Associate of Arts or Science Degree from Madison Area Technical College will be considered to have fulfilled all of Edgewood College's General Education requirements except World Language, Religious Studies, COR 2 & COR 3. This policy does not apply to students who were enrolled at Edgewood College prior to attending these institutions or who start taking courses at Edgewood College prior to finishing their Associate Degree. All requirements except COR 3 may be met by provisional coursework. COR 3 (while typically met in the major) must be taken at Edgewood College.
6. Courses that are repeated are counted only once in total credits earned. If a student repeats a course at Edgewood College which was previously accepted for credit at the time of transfer, the transferred credits will be removed from the student's record.
7. To earn a degree, a minimum of 32 semester hours must be earned at Edgewood College, including required work in the major. Each department determines the number of credits that must be earned at the College by those who apply for advanced study in that department.
8. Some departments have admission requirements beyond those needed for general admission. See requirements for individual schools and departments.
9. All records of transcripts received by the College become the property of the College and will not be released to the student, nor will copies be made.
10. Failure to submit complete and official copies of all previous academic credentials constitutes academic misrepresentation and will cause an offer of admission to be revoked.

Edgewood College does not discriminate against applicants on the basis of race, color, age, sex, religion, handicap, sexual orientation, or national or ethnic origin.

Student Eligibility

In order to receive financial aid, students must:

1. Be accepted for admission to a "degree" or "certification" program.
2. Register for a minimum of six (6) credits if an undergraduate or post baccalaureate, four (4) if a graduate student, three (3) credits if a doctoral student.
3. Maintain satisfactory academic progress as described later in this section.
4. Be a U.S. citizen or permanent resident of the U.S. and/or its territories (eligible non-citizens will be asked to provide proof of residency).
5. Must not have been recently convicted under federal or state law of sale or possession of drugs.

Applying for Financial Aid

To apply for financial aid at Edgewood College, students must complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) online at www.fafsa.gov. Applying early is the key to maximizing the number of aid programs for which students will be considered. The College's priority filing date is March 1.

Visit www.pin.ed.gov to apply for student and parent PINs to electronically sign the FAFSA.

The College’s Title IV school code is 003848.

Prior year Federal taxes and W2 forms for both student and parent (if applicable) are needed.

Leave of Absence Policy

A student with financial aid may take a leave of absence from Edgewood College for not more than a total of 380 days in any 12-month period. Students must initiate this process through the Student Health Services or Personal Counseling Offices. Leaves of absence will not be treated as a withdrawal by Edgewood Central and no return of Title IV funds will be calculated. If the student does not return within the expiration of the leave, the College will calculate the amount of Title IV grant and loan assistance that is to be returned according to the Higher Education Act, 34 CFR 668.22 [(j)(1)(i)].

STUDENT SERVICES

Athletics
The Athletic Department sponsors intercollegiate sports for women and men. Women’s sports include basketball, golf, cross country, soccer, softball, tennis, indoor/outdoor track, dance, and volleyball. Men’s sports include baseball, golf, cross country, soccer, tennis and indoor/outdoor track. Edgewood College is a member of the National College Athletic Association (NCAA) and Northern Athletics Conference (NAC). For information about the athletic program and getting involved in an intercollegiate sport, or for game schedules and locations, go to the Athletics website at www.EdgewoodCollegeEagles.com.

College Ministries
Who am I? How can I make a difference? Is there something more?
College Ministries supports students in their exploration of these questions of identity and meaning. Rooted in the Dominican tradition, professional staff and student leaders offer programming for personal, spiritual and ethical development: education and action for justice; alternative break trips; community service and civic engagement; chapel worship services; student-led prayer, discussion groups; retreats; community building; and individual appointments. Saint Joseph Chapel in Regina Hall is available for quiet reflection and public prayer. Eucharist is celebrated regularly during the academic year.

Center for Diversity & Inclusion
The Center for Diversity and Inclusion, located in Predolin Hall, is a resource designed to inspire curiosity and involvement in multiculturalism with the intention of preparing students to serve as builders of a just and compassionate world.

The Center for Diversity and Inclusion facilitates opportunities for faculty, staff and students to meet and interact with others from various cultures, as well as to provide support and encouragement to those individuals on a journey toward cultural competence.

The Director of the Center provides support services for students of color (those persons historically under-represented and underserved in American higher education) that better equip them to act on their own behalf with integrity and self-confidence.

Dean of Students Office
The goals of the student development staff are to engage all students in meaningful experiences in and out of the classroom; to challenge and support students in their growth toward personal fulfillment, spiritual depth and cultural competence; and to prepare students to serve as builders of a just and compassionate world.

In addition to ensuring that campus services and programs are responsive to student needs, the Vice President for Student Development/Dean of Students serves as a liaison for student concerns and non-academic grievances, and helps connect students with appropriate resources. Students are encouraged to take advantage of campus resources and services to assist them to be successful students.

Students who are not sure where on campus to go to get information or to solve a problem are encouraged to call or stop in to the Dean of Students Office.

Edgewood Central
Edgewood Central is the office for students to conduct all business regarding student accounts, registration, and financial aid.

Health Services
Health Services is staffed by a certified nurse practitioner and provides basic health assessments, care for acute illness and injuries, immunizations, health counseling, educational programming, and referrals as necessary, as well as encourages a program of health promotion and disease prevention. Prescription medication may be prescribed if it is clinically indicated. Students are welcome to use Health Services as an informational resource in completing classroom assignments. Students may call or stop in to schedule an appointment. Same-day appointments are usually available.

Health Services requires every student to have a health history form on file at the beginning of the semester. Students receive this form in their admissions packet. Students are required to have documentation of two doses of a live measles vaccine given after the first birthday or evidence of measles immunity and Tetanus Toxoid booster. Due to Wisconsin state law regarding meningitis vaccine and Hepatitis B, all students receive information on the vaccinations and are encouraged to discuss the information with their medical provider.

Oscar Rennebohm Library
As the College’s main research and information services provider, the Oscar Rennebohm Library is committed to managing information resources and to educating students, faculty and staff to use these resources effectively.

Resources
The Library's collection includes over 120,000 books, journals, newspapers, microforms, videos, sound recordings, computer software, and K-12 curriculum materials.

The Library webpage serves as a gateway to library resources such as the online catalogue (EdgeCat), access to over 12,000 full-text journals, citation style guides, electronic book collections, and other online article databases. Resources are accessible on or off campus to students, faculty, and staff.

Through an arrangement with the University of Wisconsin - Madison Library System, Edgewood College students, faculty, and staff have borrowing privileges at all UW-Madison libraries. Students may also apply for a Madison Public Library card with proof of residence.

Materials may also be borrowed from libraries throughout the state and country via interlibrary loan. The College is part of a statewide delivery service.

Staff
Librarians work closely with students to help them develop skills to effectively access, evaluate, and synthesize information. Library staff also collects, organizes, and preserves relevant materials, and develops services to benefit the Edgewood College community. In addition, librarians are available for one-on-one consultation and to assist in locating materials.

Services and Facilities
Library facilities include over twenty-five computer workstations offering access to a variety of online information resources, including word processing, e-mail, printers, wireless capabilities throughout the library, copiers, video players and other equipment. Three large study group rooms are available for student use.

The College Archives, containing the College’s historical publications, documents, and memorabilia, are housed in the Library.

Detailed information on the Library’s hours, policies and other topics is published each year in the Student Handbook and is also available at the Library’s website.

Office of Student Activities (OSA)
The role of the Office of Student Activities (OSA) is to create opportunities for learning by encouraging student involvement in campus life. The OSA assists students and student organizations to present campus-wide activities, events and celebrations that build a strong campus community and promote interaction among students, faculty and staff. The OSAs goals are to provide educational, social and recreational opportunities that are inclusive, and to promote personal development and leadership skills in students.
The OSA's staff of experienced student leaders assist other students to find involvement opportunities on campus through student organizations. The OSA has a complete listing of current student organizations and contacts, and hosts the Student Activities Fair each Fall to promote their activities. Leadership programming is also offered through the school year. The OSA also fosters the development of new student organizations. Students who would like to start a new organization should contact the Director of Student Activities to find out how to apply for official recognition.

Student Government Association (SGA)

Officers and representatives of the Student Government Association are elected by students to serve as the voice of the student population, to bring forward student concerns, to provide funding for clubs and organizations, and to strengthen student leadership skills.

Student Organizations

Activities and events planned by various clubs and organizations supplement academic life with meaningful experiences and outright enjoyment. Out-of-classroom programs provide opportunities for fun social interaction, vocational growth, leadership experience, community service, and personal development.

Campus Activities Board (CAB)

Campus Activities Board enhances the educational and social experiences of the college community by providing quality entertainment and other educational programs.

Student Activities in the Fine Arts

The Music Department offers a number of performing groups that are open to all students regardless of major. Ensembles include: Campus-Community Orchestra, Band, Jazz Ensemble, Chamber Orchestra, Chamber Singers, Women's Choir and Campus-Community Choir. For information on getting involved in music activities or for current concert schedules, contact the Music Department.

The Theatre Arts Department produces four major productions and a number of student-directed productions each year. Auditions are open to the campus community and students are welcome to join the production and backstage crews.

The English Department sponsors two campus publications, On the Edge, the campus newspaper, and The Edgewood Review, the campus literary magazine, published annually. Student editors produce both publications. Positions on the newspaper and the magazine are open to all students. Contact the English Department for information.

Residence Life

The goal of Residence Life is to enrich the college experience and strengthen the sense of community for all students. Research shows that the first two years of college are a critical time for students to develop academic and social networks. Students who live on campus are more likely to be involved and graduate in four years. Therefore, Edgewood College is committed to providing a supportive and positive residential environment conducive to student engagement and learning for all students.

At Edgewood College, we have six residence halls; four traditional halls and two apartment buildings. All students under the age of 21 are required to live on campus for their first two academic years unless they choose to live with a family member and/or legal guardian within commuting distance. Exceptions to this policy include: students who have children, live in domestic partnerships, veterans, or students who are studying part-time.

The Residence Life staff is comprised of six professional staff members and 21 student staff members (Resident Assistants). Residents Assistants (RA) are veteran students who provide leadership in the residence halls. Two of the professional staff live on campus as well as the RAs to promote safety, support, and community for residents.

Security

The Security staff is responsible for the safety and security of residents, staff and visitors, campus buildings and grounds. Security officers patrol the campus, monitor parking, provide escorts when requested and act as liaisons with local police and fire agencies. To summon an officer or report an emergency, campus members may dial extension 4444 or call the Campus Assistance Center at extension 4444. Security officers are on duty 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. To report a security or safety concern that is not an emergency, campus members may contact the Director of Security. The Security Office is located in the Weber Hall lobby.

Student Resource Center

The mission of the Student Resource Center, located in DeRicci Hall, is to provide students with resources that promote student development and success of the whole person.

Career Services

The Career Services office assists students in exploring and deciding upon majors and careers through individual career counseling, workshops, class presentations, credit career exploration, and an Internet-based self-directed guidance program called Type Focus, which helps students match their interests to majors and careers. Assistance is given in locating internships, part-time jobs, summer jobs and full-time positions at graduation for both undergraduate and graduate students. Career Services also provides resources for students, as well as to alumni, who are applying to graduate and professional schools.

Personal Counseling Services

Personal Counseling Services offer free, confidential counseling and psychological services. Services are aimed at enhancing the emotional well-being of students and supporting students in reaching their personal and academic goals. Meeting with a personal counselor can help students experience relief and healing, gain decision-making and problem-solving skills, and improve interpersonal relationships. Services include short-term personal counseling, periodic support groups, consultation, and educational workshops. Referrals to community mental health care providers are available when appropriate or requested.

Learning Support Services

Learning Support Services staff members provide academic support services to assist students to perform effectively and efficiently in the classroom and to promote independent and cooperative learning.

Services include:

- Peer tutoring in most introductory undergraduate classes
- Drop-in writing assistance at the Writing Center located in the Library
- Drop-in math assistance at the Math/Science Lab in Sonderegger Hall
- Study skills and learning strategies assistance, such as test-taking, time management and note-taking skills, by appointment through the Student Resource Center.
- Student Success workshops scheduled throughout the year on topics such as test-taking skills, time management, public speaking, overcoming writer's block, and test-taking anxiety.

Veterans Services

The Veterans Services Department at Edgewood College was established to assist military personnel, veterans, and their family who are interested in attending or are taking courses at the College. We are able to assist in completing applications, registering for benefits with the VA, and communicating with the business office and the registrar. We are also able to assist military personnel, veterans, and their family with a variety of resources that they may be interested in knowing more about.

If you need assistance, please feel free to contact the Veterans Services Department at Edgewood College via email Veterans@edgewood.edu or by phone 608.663.4266.

Center for Global Education

The Center for Global Education was established in 2004 to direct and promote the various international initiatives of the College. As part of its core mission and liberal arts foundation, Edgewood College aspires to promote knowledge and experience of global dynamics in the contemporary world, the ability to analyze and to value other cultures, and the skills to become effective global citizens. To achieve this, the College engages its faculty, students, and staff in the ongoing process of integrating a global perspective into all facets of campus life, linking curricular and co-curricular initiatives and creating a more globally-oriented learning community. The College's goal is a globalized Edgewood College campus. This includes a curriculum with international and global content, broad student participation in study abroad, a significant presence of international students on campus, co-curricular activities around global themes, and strong faculty and staff engagement in global programs. The Center's efforts are devoted to educating globally competent students who have the cross-cultural skills to know and esteem others' perspectives, a deep understanding of global interdependence, and acceptance of difference. The Center concerns itself with six areas:

- Curriculum
- Study abroad
- Faculty development
- International students
- Co-curricular activities
- Initiatives to specific world regions

The Center's co-directors assist faculty to incorporate a global perspective in the curriculum, plan co-curricular activities that will reinforce what students learn in the classroom, and offer opportunities for students and faculty to participate directly in a global experience through study abroad and faculty/student exchange.
Edgewood College has established as an academic priority the integration of a global perspective into its curriculum. By taking courses with global/international content, students prepare themselves to be global citizens who carry out the Mission of “building a just and compassionate world.” Key features of the College’s global/international curriculum are: a foreign language requirement; a global perspectives requirement; majors and minors in French and Spanish; an International Relations Major; Global Studies Minor; Latin American Studies Minor; Cor 2 international seminars; and many courses with significant global/international content.

STUDY ABROAD

Edgewood College strongly encourages its students to study abroad. Experiencing another culture firsthand is a unique opportunity for students to learn about the world and their place in it. Students are given a wide choice of programs that will enhance their liberal arts education with a global perspective. The Center for Global Education staff is available to advise and assist students at all stages of the study abroad experience, from identifying and choosing a suitable program to negotiating the application process; from providing an orientation program for students about to depart the United States to helping returned students use their international experience to bring a global dimension to campus. The Center staff coordinates all Edgewood College programs abroad and also facilitates student participation in study abroad programs offered by other entities, including:

- Short-term (one to three weeks) options available primarily through the COR Program. These are typically semester courses taught by Edgewood faculty and include an international travel component during winterim or summer.
- A summer Spanish-language and culture program in Arequipa, Peru
- A summer internship in Germany for Business Majors
- A student teaching program in Cuernavaca, Mexico
- An exchange semester or year abroad at a university in one of 50 countries through the International Student Exchange Program (ISEP). See www.isep.org.
- An exchange program with Masaryk University in the Czech Republic.
- An exchange semester or year abroad in Northern Ireland through the Irish-American Scholar Program.
- An approved program with an affiliated or nonaffiliated institution or study abroad provider.

Policies

Preparation

Planning ahead for a successful study abroad experience is essential—ideally one year in advance. Students should attend a study abroad information session, meet with a peer advisor, work with a study abroad advisor, and participate in the Center for Global Education’s pre-departure orientation programs.

GPA

Students must have a 3.0 cumulative GPA to apply for an Edgewood sponsored program. Some non-Edgewood sponsored programs may have lower GPA requirements.

Status

To participate in a semester or year length program, you must have at least second semester sophomore status during your study abroad term. Freshmen are encouraged to participate in short-term programs and to start the planning process for a semester or year length study abroad program.

Credit & Financial Aid

All students must work with the staff of the Center, her/his academic advisor, a financial aid advisor, and the Registrar’s Office to assure that all procedures for course selection and pre-approval, transfer of academic credit, applicability of financial aid, and program payment are followed. The cost of an exchange placement with ISEP and the Edgewood College – Masaryk University Exchange Program are based on Edgewood tuition, room and board, and Edgewood, state, and federal financial aid is applicable. Students enrolled in a program of study abroad approved for transfer of credit by Edgewood College may be eligible for financial assistance under Title IV, HEA programs (§485(a)(1)(N)).

PHILOSOPHY OF THE CURRICULUM

The Context
The problems and issues that a student will face after leaving college are not simply those connected with a specific interest, career, or professional calling. Instead, they arise out of a variety of interests and contexts in an increasingly complex and interconnected world.

To live a full, purposeful human life, therefore, during his or her college career, each student must be helped to cultivate knowledge, skills, habits, and commitments that transcend any particular major or discipline. She or he must be provided with a general education, which will empower him or her to draw from and integrate multiple perspectives and ways of knowing in the service of addressing, appreciating, and acting upon real-life practical, ethical, political, and spiritual challenges.

The Heritage
Such an education has traditionally been the goal of the liberal arts, which classically emphasized character development, versatility, breadth, independence, perspective, effective expression, and critical thinking as essential for achieving lives of personal liberation and public service.

Such an education has also traditionally been the goal of liberal arts institutions in the Dominican tradition, where the need for study and reflection is joined with a requirement of action for the common good.

The Mission
At Edgewood College, both of these traditions find concrete expression in the College Mission, which is to engage students within a community of learners committed to building a just and compassionate world and to educate them for meaningful personal and professional lives of ethical leadership, service, and a lifelong search for truth.

Because it reflects both the traditions of the College and the needs of the student in today’s world, this Mission is the foundation of all of the College’s curricular offerings and of its overall understanding of the shape of general education.

The Method
In other institutions of higher learning, the general education that a student receives is often organized in the following way: each student chooses from a range of designated courses in a number of separate, unchanging topic areas; these topics are associated with certain disciplines, which are in turn associated with particular departments. When a student is finished with his or her general education program, she or he will have had one or more classes in each separate discipline area.

In contrast, what Edgewood College requires of its students is success in meeting a set of linked goals that can be embodied in a variety of educational structures. Some of these goals involve the acquisition of skills; others the acquisition of knowledge. Still others have to do with educational processes, including integration of knowledge, developmentalism, and experiential and community-based learning.

In meeting these goals, students at Edgewood College have the opportunity to engage directly in the sort of integration, critical thinking, self-reflection, and problem-solving that they will need to have rewarding lives of public service, personal fulfillment, and professional achievement. In addition, they have the ability to do so within a structure that allows for a high degree of freedom and innovation with respect to classrooms, disciplines, and departments.

As a result, the Edgewood College student is better able to contextualize his or her learning, both in the sense of providing more varied contexts for learning and in the sense of allowing the student to apply and be assessed in her or his learning in a wider variety of contexts. In the tradition of classical liberal arts education, general education at Edgewood College is, therefore, holistic, interdisciplinary, and practically motivating and empowering.

Goals
To live a full and purposeful life, each Edgewood College student must learn to cultivate knowledge, skills, habits of mind, and commitments that transcend a particular major or discipline. Students must be provided with a general education that will empower them to draw from and integrate multiple perspectives and ways of knowing in the service of addressing, appreciating, and acting upon real-life practical, ethical, political, and spiritual challenges.

At Edgewood College, General Education is grounded in the College Mission, to engage students within a community of learners committed to building a just and compassionate world and to educate them for meaningful personal and professional lives of ethical leadership, service, and a lifelong search for truth.

Each set of goals in the Edgewood College general education program is connected with a specific element of student learning essential to the realization of the Edgewood College Mission. These are:

Cornerstones
Students must be able to communicate, think critically, think mathematically, and assess and evaluate information at least well enough to apply these basic skills in the context of their education at Edgewood College. Prepare them for lives of meaningful professional leadership and growth, and demonstrate intellectual and practical skills for active citizenship and everyday life.

Ways of Knowing
To have the tools and the background to make judgments about and act in the world and to be lifelong learners, students must be exposed to diverse ways of knowing and experiences of how knowledge is acquired; they must engage with numerous bodies of knowledge and the research methodologies with which those bodies of knowledge are connected. Such encounters introduce students to the multiple lenses through which the world is defined, understood, analyzed, and experienced. Moreover, they reinforce crucial critical thinking and inquiry skills.

Perspectives on the World
In order to build a more just and compassionate world, students must be able to understand the complexities of that world and to engage with it, approaching issues and problems from multiple perspectives, learning about the world through its languages and cultures, and being aware of how their decisions and actions affect the environment in which they live. They must learn to apply inquiry/problem-solving skills in a context that allows theory to inform practice.

The Edgewood COR
Finally, students must be given the opportunity for identity development and critical self-reflection, for experiencing the world and discerning their place in it. They must be given a context for applying, integrating, and synthesizing their learning, a context that requires students to learn, practice, and apply foundational skills, offer venues for applying knowledge and skills, and explicitly link the theories that we use to understand the world and the actions that we and others choose to take.

  - One Experience in Analysis of Human Behavior and Social Structure (J).
  - Two Experiences in Exploration of the Natural World (S).

Ways of Knowing

- Ways of Knowing Experiences provide exposure to a range of academic disciplines and methods of inquiry. Students are required to complete 10 Ways of Knowing Experiences:
  - Three Experiences in Experience and Study of the Arts and Literature (A, B and C) with at least one experience in historical and contemporary artistic works (A), one with a studio component (B), and one in literature (C).
  - Three Experiences in Reflection On Human Culture, Values and Ideas (R, P and H) with at least one experience in religious studies (R), one in history (H), and one in philosophy (P).
  - Four Experiences in Analysis of Human Behavior and Social Structure (J) and Exploration of the Natural World (S = Lab/Field, V = Non-Lab/Non-Field), including:
    - One Experience in Analysis of Human Behavior and Social Structure (J).
    - Two Experiences in Exploration of the Natural World (S).

General Education Requirements

Cornerstones

- Eight Cornerstone Experiences improve and reinforce the fundamental skills and abilities central to a liberal education. There are two types of Experiences within the Cornerstone categories: Initial and Enriched Cornerstones. Students are required to complete:
  - Five Initial Experiences, one each from Critical Thinking, Mathematics, Information and Technology Literacy, Oral Communication, and Written Communication.
  - Three Enriched Experiences, one each from Critical Thinking, Oral Communication, and Written Communication.

Ways of Knowing

- Full-time, first-year students must complete a minimum of one Initial Cornerstone Experience in their first semester. Full-time students must complete all Initial Cornerstone Experiences in their first four semesters at the College.

Perspectives on the World

- Perspective Experiences prepare students to live and work in a global and diverse world. Students are required to complete 8 Perspective Experiences:
  - One Experience in Global Perspectives (G)
  - One Experience in Environmental Perspectives (E)
  - One Experience in Multicultural Perspectives (D)
  - One Experience in Gender Perspectives (Q)
  - Two Experiences in World Language (L)

COR

- The COR Program of General Education is administered in the School of Integrative Studies. In the Dominican tradition, the forging and nurturing of relationships is the heart of study, reflection, and action for the common good. In this spirit, the Edgewood COR provides an integrative, three-level framework for students to better understand themselves, become aware of the needs and opportunities of the world, and consider their role in contributing to the building of a more just and compassionate world.

General Education requirements may not be fulfilled through Independent-Study courses.
INTENDED LEARNING OUTCOMES FOR COR STUDY

Across all three levels of the COR curriculum, students investigate three fundamental questions with increasing depth as they move from COR 1 through COR 3. The intended learning outcomes for each level of COR, as they relate to the three COR questions, are:

COR 1
Who am I and who could I become?
Identify, explore, and critically reflect upon personal identities, values, beliefs, spiritualities, and worldviews.

What are the needs and opportunities of the world?
Utilize inquiry-based approaches to critically investigate relevant human issues questions.

What is my role in building a just and compassionate world?
Explain contemporary issues and problems from multiple perspectives.

COR 2
Who am I and who could I become?
Clarify a sense of self in relation to the world.

What are the needs and opportunities of the world?
Analyze ethical issues embedded in meaningful community-based learning experiences.

What is my role in building a just and compassionate world?
Integrate knowledge and skills from multiple sources and meaningful experiences.

COR 3
Who am I and who could I become?
Articulate a personal philosophy or mission statement which reflects individual gifts, values, and commitments in light of the needs of a chosen profession and society.

What are the needs and opportunities of the world?
Demonstrate the skills necessary for engaged, responsible citizenship.

What is my role in building a just and compassionate world?
Develop integrative, creative theories, and solutions to contemporary human issues and problems.

Students' experiences in the program are characterized by the following components that emerge from the Dominican Studium of study, reflect, act.

COMPONENTS OF THE COR PROGRAM OF GENERAL EDUCATION

COR 1
The COR 1 requirement is fulfilled by successfully completing a COR 1 seminar during the first semester in which a student attends Edgewood College. The majority of COR 1 seminars are offered during the fall semester with a small number of offerings in the spring semester. A COR 1 seminar can have any departmental prefix, but needs to carry the number “1” tag in order to satisfy the COR 1 requirement.

In lieu of a COR 1 seminar, transfer sophomores and above must successfully complete a Transfer Bridge to COR session during their first semester at Edgewood College. Transfer freshmen (and new students who achieve sophomore standing due to 28+ AP credits or have taken college level work while in high school) must take COR unless COR program allows transfer bridge alternative.

Study
Interdisciplinary Inquiry
Students explore social and human issues from the perspectives of different liberal arts disciplines or ways of knowing in order to develop a more complete and complex understanding.

Skill Development
Students develop the skills necessary to participate in the building of a more just and compassionate world including skills related to civic discourse, cultural awareness, leadership development, and civic engagement.

Reflect
Values and Ethical Exploration
Students identify and reflect on their personal values, beliefs, spiritualities and world views and consider their connection to and social responsibility in the world.

Personal Philosophy/Mission Statement
Students develop initial, expanded, and refined writings to articulate how their individual gifts, values, and commitments relate to the needs and opportunities of the world, and their personal and professional participation in it.

Act
Community Engagement
Students have exploratory, intensive, and major-related experiences in local, global, and/or professional communities that are closely linked to study and reflection as a way to personally connect with meaningful, real-life social issues.

Fulfilling the Requirement
Note that for all three levels of COR the current Timetable provides the names of seminars, courses, and experiences available in a given semester. The COR Program office and website (cor.edgewood.edu) provides a current list of COR offerings, at each level, every semester.

COR 2 is not transferrable.

In very limited cases COR 2 may be transferable. Any student who believes he/she has fulfilled this requirement may request review by a designated member of the COR program.

COR 3
The COR 3 requirement is typically fulfilled during the sophomore or junior year by successfully completing one of the COR 2 pathways. COR 2 pathways include: (1) a community-based learning course (2) short- or long-term study abroad (3) an approved civic leadership experience (4) select internship and field experiences and (5) select types of undergraduate research. Please note that pathways 2-5 apply only to experiences that are preapproved as meeting COR goals and learning outcomes. All COR 2 pathways are accompanied by a credit-bearing academic component. Some COR 2 offerings reside in the COR Program and some reside in academic departments across campus. A COR 2 experience can have any departmental prefix, but needs to carry the number “2” tag in order to satisfy the COR 2 requirement.

In very limited cases COR 2 may be transferable. Any student who believes he/she has fulfilled this requirement may request review by a designated member of the COR program.

COR 3
The COR 3 requirement is typically fulfilled during the senior year by enrolling in and successfully completing a COR 3 seminar. Courses with the COR 3 tag often fulfill a requirement or elective in the major. COR 3 seminars reside in academic departments across campus. A course needs to carry the number “3” tag in order to satisfy the COR 3 requirement. Please consult with your academic advisor to learn the options for fulfilling COR 3 for your particular major, and the specific rotation for COR 3 seminars as some are not offered every semester.

COR 3 is not transferrable.
A degree is the result of the completion of Edgewood College’s General Education curriculum as well as the requirements of at least one major. Additionally, the student must complete at least 120 credits, have a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.000, and complete a minimum of 32 credits at Edgewood College.

INDIVIDUALIZED MAJORS AND MINORS

The individualized major and minor offer students an opportunity to develop their own program of study combining courses from across the curriculum. The Undergraduate Curriculum Committee (UCC) is authorized to approve individualized majors and minors and determines the number of credits that must be earned at Edgewood College. Students interested in developing an individualized major or minor should contact the Dean of the School of Integrative Studies for the specific guidelines.

The minimum total number of credits for an individualized major must be 300 level or above. An individualized minor must include at least 24 credits, of which 12 credits must be 300 level or above.

GRADED AND COMMENCEMENT

Edgewood College officially awards degrees three times each year, on January 10, May 25 and August 25. Commencement ceremonies are held in May and December. These are the dates on which a student formally graduates.

Students may participate in the May ceremony if they expect to have all requirements completed by May 25 or by August 25. August graduates participating in the May ceremony will be designated as August candidates in the commencement program. Students may participate in the December ceremony only if they expect to have all requirements completed by January 10. Students who complete their degree requirements and do not participate in a commencement ceremony at that time may participate in the following semester’s ceremony.

Graduation and commencement information is available online or students can contact the Registrar’s Office if they have any questions regarding eligibility.

Requirements for Graduation

Edgewood College’s curriculum aims to prepare students for lifelong learning and personal development, fulfilling careers and growth in responsibility for the wider community.

Candidates for the Bachelor’s degree at Edgewood College must complete one of the degree programs listed above, have completed at least 120 total credits, have a cumulative 2.0 GPA, complete a minimum of 32 credits at Edgewood College, file an Application for Degree form in the Registrar’s Office at the beginning of the final semester, and meet all financial obligations to Edgewood College. A student may not graduate with a grade of “Incomplete” on his/her academic record. Degree requirements must be completed within 5 years of a student’s last date of attendance at Edgewood. After 5 years, students will be required to fulfill any additional requirements that have been established by the college.

Students who, at the time degrees are awarded, have not completed all requirements, including GPA minimum, an Application for Degree form, credit minimum and official transcripts of outstanding transfer coursework, will be removed from the graduation list. Students must then submit a new Application for Degree form for their intended date of graduation.

Waiving of Requirements

The requirements for the degree are guidelines that point out standard means toward a liberal education. The Associate Academic Dean has authority to waive any general degree requirement for an individual student when he/she and the student concur in a belief that such a waiver achieves the objectives of a liberal education at Edgewood College, as well as the requirement in question. Waivers for General Education requirements are extremely rare and requests must be made in writing. Chairpersons or Deans of major and minor schools and departments may waive any part of the requirements for a major or minor. Waivers or substitutions must be documented on a Special Arrangement form.

Graduation Honors

Edgewood College’s curriculum aims to prepare students for lifelong learning and personal development, fulfilling careers and growth in responsibility for the wider community.

Graduation honors are awarded to students who have demonstrated superior scholarship in all their college coursework.

To be eligible for graduation honors, a student must have earned a minimum of 60 credits (Bachelor’s degree) from Edgewood College at the time of graduation. The GPA calculation for Graduation Honors includes all transfer credits, as well as all credits earned at Edgewood College. Graduation honors are not the same as membership in the Honors Program.

Three classes of Latin honors are awarded:

• Summa cum laude: cumulative GPA of 3.9
• Magna cum laude: cumulative GPA of 3.7
• Cum laude: cumulative GPA of 3.5
Academic Advising
Advising is an integral part of academic life at Edgewood College. From the time students are admitted to Edgewood, they work with academic advisors to clarify their life/career goals and to develop their educational plans for the realization of these goals. Most academic advisors are faculty members, usually associated with a student’s chosen major. In order to register for classes, students must meet with their academic advisor and are encouraged to confer with their advisor regularly to ensure they are progressing smoothly through their academic program. Advising is coordinated by the Office of the Academic Dean. Students may contact that office with questions they may have regarding advising. Although advisors assist students, students are fully responsible for knowing and fulfilling the specific requirements in their major and for graduation, and for the academic policies in this catalogue.

Academic Honesty Policy
As members of a scholarly community dedicated to healthy intellectual development, students and faculty at Edgewood College are expected to share the responsibility for maintaining high standards of honesty and integrity in their academic work. Each student should reflect this sense of responsibility toward the community by submitting work that is a product of his or her own effort in a particular course, unless the instructor has directed otherwise. In order to clarify and emphasize its standards for academic honesty, the College has adopted this policy.

The following are examples of violations of standards for academic honesty and are subject to academic sanctions: cheating on exams, submitting collaborative work as one’s own, falsifying records, achievements, field or laboratory data, or other course work, stealing examinations or course materials, submitting work previously submitted in another course, unless specifically approved by the present instructor, falsifying documents or signing an instructor’s or administrator’s name to any document or form; plagiarism, or aiding another student in any of the above actions.

Plagiarism, which is defined as the deliberate use of another’s ideas or words as if they were one’s own, can take many forms, from the egregious to the mild. Instances most commonly seen in written work by students in order from most to least serious are:

• Borrowing, buying or stealing a paper from elsewhere;
  lending or selling a paper for another’s use as his or her own;
  using printed material written by someone else as one’s own.

• Getting so much help on a paper from someone else, including a college tutor, that the student writer can no longer legitimately claim authorship.

• Intentionally using source material improperly, e.g., neither citing nor using quotation marks on borrowed material; supplying an in-text citation but failing to enclose quoted material within quotation marks; leaving paraphrased material too close to the original version; failing to append a works-cited page when sources have been used.

• Unintentional misuse of borrowed sources through ignorance or carelessness.

Sanctions recommended for dishonesty are an “F” on the assignment and/or an “F” in the course. More serious violations may be referred to the Academic Dean’s Office for appropriate action.

Academic Support Program
Freshmen admitted conditionally to the College are required to participate in a program that offers study skills assistance, special courses and mentoring by College staff during their first year. The College Achievement Program is coordinated by the Academic Dean’s Office, Admissions, and Learning Support Services.

Administrative Withdrawal
Edgewood College reserves the right to withdraw any student from classes at any time during the semester or term for reasons such as (but not limited to):

• Disruptive behavior in the classroom that interferes with the learning of other students
• Lack of course prerequisite(s)
• Lack of instructor, advisor, or departmental approval for a course
• Academic dishonesty

Once registered, the student retains responsibility and financial liability for all enrolled courses. Tuition refunds will not be granted when students are withdrawn by the institution for cause.

Attendance
Individual instructors set attendance policies for their classes. Responsibility for attending class is placed upon the student in the context of learning and academic achievement. Students are responsible for work missed. Students who must be absent are encouraged to discuss their absence with their instructors, preferably before the absence occurs.

Only when an emergency arises that will result in prolonged absence will the Academic Dean’s Office notify the student’s instructors, if the student explains the reason for the absence and requests that instructors be informed. Non-attendance does not constitute official withdrawal. See CHANGE OF SCHEDULE and WITHDRAWAL FROM COLLEGE information in this section for withdrawal policies.

A student who is not attending a class for which he or she is registered, and who has not officially dropped the class by the tenth week of the semester, will receive a grade of “F” for the class.

FERPA
The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974, also known as the Buckley Amendment, provides that students have the right to see their records (accessibility) and to determine who will see their records (confidentiality). Detailed information on the provisions of the Act and its applications are included in the Student Handbook.

Pre-College Skill Development Course
Students whose placement scores indicate a deficiency that could jeopardize future success are required to take appropriate skills courses. Students must take their English course during their first semester, assuming the course is open, and are required to take their pre-college math course during their first year at Edgewood College. Credit toward graduation is not given for these courses; however, credits do count toward full-time status in the semester in which they are taken.

REGISTRATION POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Registration
Registration consists of course selection for a specific semester or term. The timetable of courses is published on Edgewood Express (https://express.edgewood.edu/ICS) twice a year, in April and November. The Registration Guide, which outlines detailed information for registering, is available on the Registrar’s Office homepage (http://my.edgewood.edu/sites/services/gpc/default.aspx). Students register for courses on Edgewood Express. Current students are expected to register in the announced registration periods called Priority Registration.

Students are given priority in registration according to their classification and total number of credits earned.

Change of Schedule: Adding or Dropping
Any change in schedule (course add, course drop, or credit change) should be discussed with the student’s academic advisor. A student may add courses through the first week of the semester. Deadlines for Session, Winterim and Summer courses are indicated in The Registration Guide and on Edgewood Express. The student is responsible for officially dropping or adding courses by the appropriate deadlines, as indicated in the current Registration Guide.

Course drops are not permitted after the fifth week of a session course or after the tenth week of a semester course. Students who are dropping all their courses or their only course should refer to Edgewood Central. Students are responsible for submitting forms to Edgewood Central by the appropriate deadlines, as indicated in the current Registration Guide.

Fee Schedule
A student who is full time for two semesters in an academic year is permitted to take the two semesters and Winterim of that year. The number of credits is based on enrollment at the 100% refund date. Adjustments will be made after the 100% refund date for Spring Semester.

Failure to Register
Students may not attend courses for which they are not registered. The last day to add or register for a course is the end of the first week of classes in a semester. Session, Summer and Winterim add deadlines appear in The Registration Guide. A student who attends a class for which he or she is not registered and has not paid will not be allowed to add the course after the first week of classes or at a later date.

Withdrawal from College
A student who wishes to withdraw from the college during the semester (i.e., drop all courses), should refer to Edgewood Central. Failure to meet the drop deadline can result in grades of “F” and/or financial consequences. Non-attendance does not constitute withdrawal; failure to withdraw officially will result in liability for all tuition and fees and grades of “F” for each course enrollment. See the refund policy under FINANCIAL AID.
Course Numbering System

Below 100  Pre-college courses do not fulfill degree requirements
100-299  Introductory courses
300-399  Intermediate courses
400-499  Advanced courses
500-599  Graduate pre-requisite courses
600-800  Graduate courses

Auditing a Course

Full-time students may attend a non-credit course or audit a credit course with no additional tuition charge. Persons other than full-time students who attend or audit a course will be charged the current per-hour audit fee, except graduates of Edgewood College and senior citizens over 60, who will be charged a discounted audit fee.

Permission to audit requires consent of the instructor. Audit status permits the person to attend the class but does not authorize participation in class discussion or evaluation by the instructor. Explicit consent of the instructor is required for active participation in the class. Audit students are admitted on a space-available basis.

This policy applies only to courses other than laboratory and clinical courses and not to special programs, workshops, institutes, etc. The College reserves the right to withdraw permission to attend or to audit, and to refund the audit fee, if the circumstances in a particular course should make such withdrawal and refund advisable.

Transfer Credits

Edgewood College accepts academic credit from recognized regionally accredited post-secondary institutions.

Courses with grades of "D" or lower do not transfer (this includes grades of D+). Courses taken as Pass/Fail or "for credit only" do not transfer without official documentation from the institution verifying that the grade is equivalent to a "C" or better. A maximum of 60 credits may be transferred from all combined coursework earned at two-year institutions, including two-year UW college campuses and UW Extension coursework.

The Registrar's Office determines acceptability of courses for transfer and fulfillment of General Education requirements in accordance with policies of the Undergraduate Curriculum Committee and the Faculty Association. Academic departments determine whether transferred courses fulfill requirements in the major or minor.

Current Edgewood College students must receive prior approval to enroll at another institution for the purposes of transferring courses back to Edgewood College by submitting a Request for Transfer form to the Office of the Registrar.

A minimum of 32 semester credits must be earned at Edgewood College to fulfill the general residency requirement, including work in the major. Each academic department determines the number of Edgewood College credits that must be earned in the major or minor.

International students or students who have studied abroad must submit a report from a foreign credential evaluation service in order for courses taken abroad to transfer. Contact the Office of the Registrar for information.

Courses that are repeated are counted only once in total credits earned. If a student repeats a course at Edgewood College that was previously transferred from another institution, the transferred credits will be removed from the student's record.

Transferred courses are not included in the Edgewood College grade point average calculation; however, they are included in the calculation for graduation honors.

Transcripts

A transcript of credits is an official document issued by the Registrar's Office. Current students can order transcripts through a secure ordering site, which can be accessed on the Edgewood Express (https://express.edgewood.edu/ICS/Students/). If you need to pay by cash or check, transcripts can be requested at Edgewood Central. Transcripts will be processed only if there are no transcript holds, i.e., outstanding financial obligations to the College, on the student account. The fee is $6.00 per transcript.

Edgewood College does not issue transcripts or copies of records on file from other institutions. All transcripts received by Edgewood College become the property of the College and cannot be released to the student. Students may review their transcripts from other institutions in the Registrar's Office during regular business hours.

Registrar's Office Forms

Forms mentioned in the above sections may be obtained at the Office of Edgewood Central, or online at: http://my.edgewood.edu/sites/services/rgs/default.aspx
ACADEMIC STANDING

Good Academic Standing
To be in good academic standing, a student must have a cumulative GPA of at least 2.00 with no grades of "Incomplete." The GPA is based on all courses attempted on a graded basis except Pass/Fail courses and pre-college courses. A student's academic standing is noted on the term grade report and on his or her official record. It is not calculated for Winterim.

Warning: Incomplete
This standing is given whenever a student has received one or more grades of "Incomplete." This is a temporary status and will change to the appropriate academic standing when the "Incomplete" is removed and the GPA is re-calculated.

Warning
This (unofficial) standing is given whenever a student's term GPA is less than 2.00. Learning Support Services staff will reach out to students on warning with an offer of academic assistance.

Probation
A student will be placed on probation if the cumulative GPA is less than 2.00. Students on probation are required to meet with Learning Support Services staff for an assessment and information about academic support services. While on probation, a student who takes an "Incomplete" in any course may not register for the following semester. Students have only one term on probation in which to raise their cumulative GPA to at least 2.0 and return to good academic standing. A student who does not raise his or her GPA in that one term is dismissed (see below).

Dismissal
A student will be dismissed from the College if the cumulative GPA is less than 2.00 for two successive terms, including Summer Session (but excluding Winterim), with a minimum of 12 cumulative credits attempted overall.

Students dismissed from the College may re-apply after attending another institution and demonstrating academic success in at least 12 credits of college-transferable courses. The application is reviewed by the Admissions Committee.

Satisfactory Academic Progress
A full-time student is making satisfactory academic progress if he or she earns a minimum of 12 Edgewood College credits each semester in Fall and Spring, and is in good academic standing (a cumulative GPA of 2.0 or higher) for each term he/she enrolls, including Fall, Spring, and Summer Pre-college courses, while they do not count in credit earned, count toward the computation of full-time status for satisfactory progress in the semester they are taken.

COLLABORATIVE PROGRAM

Collaborative Program with UW-Madison
In order to supplement the instructional resources of Edgewood College and provide expanded opportunities to students, the University of Wisconsin-Madison and Edgewood College have an agreement by which Edgewood College students may take courses at UW-Madison and have these courses and grades appear on their official Edgewood record and included in the Edgewood College GPA. Students' College tuition payment covers the cost of the approved courses. The Collaborative Program is offered during the Fall and Spring semesters only; Winterim and Summer Session are not included. The Collaborative Program is open to full-time degree-seeking students who have completed at least one semester at Edgewood College, are in good academic standing, and have satisfied all financial obligations to the College. Students may take one course at UW-Madison each semester, not to exceed five credits and not offered at Edgewood College in the same semester. A course may not be repeated. Courses must be approved prior to enrollment and be applicable to the student's Edgewood College degree. The Collaborative Program application form may be obtained from Edgewood Central; deadlines for applying are July 1 for the Fall semester and December 1 for the Spring semester. Approval to participate in the program does not guarantee enrollment, which is subject to available space in the course, according to UW’s policies. As part of the application process, students also apply to the UW Guest and Special Student program and follow UW registration procedures. Fees are deferred to Edgewood College when students register at UW.

In order to withdraw from a course, in addition to officially dropping the course at UW, the student must officially drop the course at Edgewood Central at Edgewood College in accordance with published procedures and deadlines.

Credit for Prior Learning
The College offers several ways of obtaining credit for prior college-level learning, as described below. All credit for prior learning for General Education requirements must be completed before the semester in which the student graduates. This includes proficiency exams, nationally standardized exams and portfolios.

Credits earned through Credit for Prior Learning (CPL) or proficiency exams are not considered residence credits and may not be used in fulfillment of the 32-credit residency requirement. Contact the Credit for Prior Learning Office for more information.

Advanced Placement and International Baccalaureate Examinations
A high school senior who has completed one or more Advanced Placement (AP) or International Baccalaureate (IB) courses in high school and has taken the corresponding exams is encouraged to forward the results of the tests to the Academic Dean’s Office. Edgewood College grants college credit to students who have successfully completed AP and higher levels of IB exams.

Nationally Standardized Examinations
• The College-Level Examination Program (CLEP) of the College Board
• Excelsior Examinations
• Defense Activity for Non-Traditional Education Support (DANTES)

The College policy for awarding credit on the basis of these examinations varies and is based on national recommendations. For specific information, contact the Coordinator of the Credit for Prior Learning Program.

Edgewood College Examination Program
• Proficiency examinations for General Education requirements: college writing, critical thinking
• Departmental and other instructional unit examinations for specific courses

For information on Edgewood College examinations, contact the Academic Dean’s Office. Proficiency exams may not be taken in a student’s final semester.

Credit for Prior Learning Portfolio Program
Edgewood College also offers a Credit for Prior Learning Portfolio Program to supplement the other alternative routes to credit.

Adults who have been out of school for several years have often achieved college-level learning through experiences in business, industry, volunteer work, or self-directed study. The Credit for Prior Learning Program provides a means of awarding credit for such learning if it matches actual courses the College offers. With special CPL workshop assistance (taken on a Pass/Fail basis), candidates prepare a portfolio that describes, documents, and discusses the candidates’ prior learning as related to the course for which the student wished to earn credit. The portfolio is used as part of the assessment process in awarding credit.

Any student enrolled at Edgewood College may apply. Awards of credit become part of the student’s permanent record after the student has completed at least one semester of full-time study or 16 semester hours of part-time study at Edgewood College.

Armed Services and Organization-Sponsored Learning
Courses taken in the Armed Services and other non-collegiate organizations may be recognized for credit at Edgewood College when they are related to College programs and are listed in the American Council on Education’s national guides. All of these are general elective credits toward the degree.

Credits for Non-Native Speakers of English
Non-native speakers of English may earn proficiency credit in their first language for courses offered at the 400-level in literature and culture. Ordinarily, the Foreign Language Department will request a portfolio for evaluation. Students who wish to earn credit in languages not taught at the College may do so depending on the availability of a qualified individual to assess proficiency. Contact the Office of the Academic Dean to initiate the process. Students may not earn retroactive credit for high school courses in their native language or for the study of English.

Retroactive Credit for Foreign Language Learning
Edgewood College’s Department of Foreign Language offers the opportunity for students to receive credit toward the degree for high school courses in foreign languages (see FOREIGN LANGUAGE DEPARTMENT).

GRADUATE COURSES
Undergraduate students at the College may enroll in graduate courses under the following conditions:
1. The student has a cumulative GPA of 2.75 on a 4.0 scale.
2. The student holds junior or senior status as an undergraduate.
3. The student has completed all prerequisites for the graduate course.
4. The student has completed Eng 110 and COMM 101, or their equivalents.
5. The student has the consent of the instructor in the graduate course (for MFT courses, the consent of the director of the Marriage and Family Therapy program).
6. There is space available in the course after all graduate registrants for the course have been accommodated.
7. The student’s credit load does not exceed 16 credits during the semester of enrollment in the graduate course.

INDEPENDENT STUDY
Independent Study is intended for highly motivated, dedicated students who are willing to prepare a proposal for the course which then may be approved by their directing professor. Students may take an Independent Study course on a selected topic for which they develop their own curriculum. Such courses are based on individualized and independent learning, and are developed with a directing professor to include specific learning goals and regularly scheduled meetings with the professor.

Instructors recognize that the student proposing an Independent Study seeks to further their learning in an area that is not provided in the current course offerings. Students are limited to one Independent Study course per semester. Independent Study may be taken for up to four credits per course. General Education requirements may not be fulfilled through Independent Study. Independent Study courses may not be audited. Students must complete an Independent Study contract with their directing professor and register for the appropriate Independent Study course within an academic department or school. Departments or Schools may have policies that supersede this policy, so it is recommended that students consult with their directing professor in advance of proposing an Independent Study course.

If a graduate course is taken for undergraduate credit, the student may not later use this course to meet the credit, residency, or GPA requirement for the Master’s Degree at Edgewood College.

For post-baccalaureate students, conditions #1 and #3 above apply. Conditions #2, #4, #5, #6, and #7 above do not apply. These graduate credits may be applied to a graduate degree at Edgewood College. Approval of the respective department is required.
The Honors Program is designed to meet the needs of able, motivated students by providing opportunities for intellectual and social development in and out of the classroom. It seeks to provide intellectual challenge and stimulation, pushing students beyond their assumed limits. The program promotes excellence in the classroom through a participatory and interactive environment, an emphasis on challenging material, creative pedagogical approaches, and an expectation that students are motivated to learn. It is expected that students will take an active role in their intellectual development in Honors courses and outside the classroom.

Requirements of the Honors Program

Students are required to take Honors courses, participate in extra-curricular activities and develop their own Honors Scholarship project (in their junior or senior year). Most Honors courses are offered through the School of Arts and Sciences, and are intended to help you fulfill your General Education course work. Students who complete the Honors program will have:

- Complete twenty credits designated Honors and earn satisfactory grades. (English 110H is strongly encouraged, but not required, as part of the twenty credits.)
- Complete an Honors Scholarship Contract in the major.
- Maintain at least a 3.3 cumulative grade point average.

Benefits of Honors

A student completing the requirements of the Honors Program is designated a “Graduate of the Honors Program” on his or her diploma and transcript. Other benefits include:

- Small courses to facilitate participation and interaction.
- Courses with a focused topic or innovative approach to the material or a specialized reading list.
- Creating bonds with other Honors students.
- Achieving a feeling of pride and accomplishment in rising to academic challenges.
- Expanding one's intellectual horizons.
- Enhancing one's potential for future admission to graduate schools or gaining employment.

Admission to Honors

Students interested in the Honors Program should contact the Honors Program Director or the Associate Academic Dean. Incoming first-year students are placed into the program based on these requirements:

1. A minimum high school GPA of 3.5.
2. A minimum ACT composite score of 25.
3. Rank in the top 15% of high school graduating class.

Continuing and transfer students may apply to the program with:

1. An application that includes letters of recommendation from instructors who can assess the student’s academic potential.
2. A GPA of at least 3.3.
Home of the liberal arts, the School of Arts and Sciences contains fifteen departments offering a wide range of majors and minors in the arts, humanities, natural sciences and social sciences. We encourage students to investigate these programs in the pages that follow and on our websites (start at artsandsciences.edgewood.edu), to see the kind of academic homes our departments can provide.

Students will have the opportunity to explore these fields while taking many of their General Education courses. Each of these courses is an opportunity to pursue the learning outcomes that define our cornerstones, ways of knowing, COR and perspectives, which together comprise the essence of an Edgewood College education. Each also provides the chance to explore new ways of thinking, and to discover interests students may not have known they have.

The liberal arts contribute to the intellectual life of Edgewood College by the creation of art, the development of knowledge, and the cultivation of wisdom. The Arts and Sciences invite all of our students to seize the opportunity to learn and thrive in our programs. Become a part of our intellectual community, and make your contribution to the life of the mind.

Mission

Our disciplines and programs are designed to assist students in developing their skills, exploring ways of knowing, understanding the world, and discovering their potential for rewarding lives of public service, personal fulfillment, and professional development.

Art Major

The art major engages students in a comprehensive visual art experience. The studio art curriculum involves studio practice, immersion in a broad selection of art history classes and an opportunity to display art work in the annual Student Art Exhibit.

Fifty-three to fifty-four credits, to include:

Required courses:
- ART 151 I Digital Art and Design for Art Majors
- ART 200 B Drawing I
- ART 202 Two-Dimensional Design
- ART 205 Painting I
- ART 214 Drawing II
- ART 216 Three-Dimensional Design
- ART 218 Ceramics I
- ART 316 Sculpture
- ART 318 Ceramics II
- ART 464 K3 Art Seminar

Select two:
- ART 101 1A Art Matters
- ART 126 AG Art Survey: Art of the Western World
- ART 254 AGX Modern Art
- ART 264 ADU Multicultural Art in the USA

- ART 354 AX Contemporary Art
- ART 362 Aqx Native American Art
- ART 364 Selected Topics in Art History
- GS 370/371 AG2 London: Theatre and Art History

Residency requirement: A student majoring in art must complete a minimum of 12 credits in art courses at Edgewood College.

All majors must fulfill the Senior Presentation and Critique requirement in order to obtain Art Department approval for graduation.

Art and Design Teaching Major

The teaching major is part of a program leading to a Wisconsin initial educator license to teach at the early childhood through adolescence level (Birth–Age 21).

The major requires 89-107 credits including completion of the Education professional requirements and the licensing sequence for Early Childhood-Adolescence: Regular Education (see EDUCATION), plus:

Required courses:
- ART 126 AG Art Survey: Art of the Western World
- ART 151 I Digital Art and Design for Art Majors
- ART 200 B Drawing I
- ART 202 Two-Dimensional Design
- ART 205 Painting I

- ART 305 Painting II
- ART 308 Etching
- ART 312 Figure Drawing
- ART 360 Digital Fine Art
- ART 405 Exploring Painting Media
- ART 410 Figure and Landscape Painting
An Art and Design Teaching major must be taken through transition steps is recommended as early as possible.

Art Therapy Major
The Art Therapy major includes courses in studio art, Art Therapy, and Psychology. It also prepares students for entry into a Master's degree program which leads to certification and licensure as an art therapist/psychotherapist. The Bachelor's degree may lead to art, recreation, and program specialist positions in community settings. Sixty-one to sixty-two credits, to include:

Required courses:
- ART 151 Digital Art & Design for Art Majors
- ART 152 Digital Art & Design for Non Majors
- ART 200 Drawing I
- ART 202 Two-Dimensional Design

Must have 16 credits in Psychology (See required Psychology classes above). Select one course from the following list to complete 16 credits of Psychology:
- PSY 210 Child Psychology
- PSY 220 Adolescent Psychology
- PSY 300 Psychology of Personality
- PSY 301 Case Management
- PSY 350 Drug Use and Abuse
- PSY 360 Assessment and Treatment of Substance Abuse
- PSY 380 Intro to Psychotherapies
- PSY 445 V Biological Psychology
- PSY 487 Intro to Family Therapy

A student must have a minimum of 18 credits in ART STUDIO. A student majoring in art therapy must complete at least 12 credits in art and art therapy at Edgewood College.

Art Therapy majors must pass a background check before declaring the major. Art Therapy majors must have a 2.75 cumulative GPA and fulfill the Senior Portfolio and Critique requirements in order to obtain Art Department approval for graduation.

Graphic Design Major
The Graphic Design Program provides students with a strong foundation in art and design and gives individual attention to students' development. Students learn a mix of art, design and technical computer skills.

Fifty-nine to sixty-one credits, to include:

Required courses:
- ART 182 B Watercolor
- ART 183 B Printmaking

Mission
The Mission of the Edgewood College Biological Sciences Department is to prepare all our students to be well-informed citizens and leaders in a world that is increasingly shaped by science and technology. Based on Sinsinawa Dominican values, we aim to instill in all our students an understanding of, and a lifelong enthusiasm for, the process of scientific discovery and a commitment to the responsible application of science. We are committed to innovation and excellence in our programs, and to preparing our majors to be successful in science-related careers that are vital for meeting future local, national, and global needs.

Guidelines for selecting electives in the Biology major

Biological majors interested in pursuing post-graduate degrees should carefully consider the Biology electives, Chemistry/Geoscience/Physics, and Mathematics courses that they choose as part of their Biology Major requirements. Each post-graduate program and school has its own requirements, and we suggest that you speak with your advisor as soon as you begin to plan ahead. For beginning students, we suggest the following courses as generally helpful in gaining access to further study and training in the following areas.

Ecology/Conservation Biology

Students interested in ecology and/or conservation biology should consider taking the following courses as part of their program of study:

Other Elective Courses:
- BIO 252: Intro to Bio Research II

Graduate School

Students interested in pursuing graduate work in biology leading to a Master's degree or Doctorate should contact their advisor to determine which Biology elective courses will best prepare them for a particular graduate program. The following list of chemistry, physics, and math courses are commonly expected for graduate admissions:

Six additional elective credits in biology from the Cell and Molecular Biology, Ecology and Evolution, and/or Organismal Biology emphases as outlined above for the Biology major.

Policies for the Biology major and minor

Students majoring or minoring in Biology should seek assistance in planning their program of study with an advisor in the department.

Transfer students must take a minimum of 12 biology credits at Edgewood College for a major and a minimum of 8 biology credits for a minor.

Students with specific goals for careers or post-graduate study may be advised to take some courses at the University of Wisconsin-Madison through Edgewood College's Collaborative Program.

A student must maintain a cumulative grade point average of 2.5 in biology courses. A biology course in which the student receives a grade below “C” will not be accepted toward the major or the minor.

Broad Field Natural Science Major: Biology Concentration

Broad Field Natural Science is an interdisciplinary major in the natural sciences requiring 48 credits in the sciences plus a mathematics course.

Required Biology courses:
BIO 151 ESU General Biology: Cell Biology and Ecology
OR
BIO 181 ESU Honors General Biology: Cell Biology and Ecology

MATH 114 A M Precalculus A: Algebra
MATH 114 B M Precalculus B: Trigonometry
MATH 231 M Calculus I

*See Chemistry, Geoscience and Physics Department for additional concentrations that are offered in the Broad Field Natural Science Major.

Please consult with your academic advisor to learn the details about how you can satisfy your COR 3 requirement.

Cytotechnology Major

Requirements for a major in Cytotechnology are as follows:

Three years of undergraduate academic study including completion of all General Education degree requirements and a minimum of 90 credits.

The following science and math courses must be completed prior to the internship:

Biology courses (30 credits):
BIO 151 ESU General Biology: Cell Biology and Ecology
BIO 152 S General Biology: Genetics and Evolution
BIO 210 Anatomy & Physiology I
BIO 211 Anatomy & Physiology II
BIO 312 S Microbiology
BIO 401 Genetics
BIO 410 Pathology
BIO 402 Cell and Molecular Biology

PHYS 201 & 202 S College Physics I & College Physics II
A one-year internship at State Laboratory of Hygiene, School of Cyto•technology, Madison, WI, or another approved school of Cyto•technology. During the internship, a student earns 38 credits.

Please consult with your academic advisor to learn the details about how you can satisfy your COR 3 requirement.

Policies for Cyto•technology Major

Transfer students must take a minimum of 8 biology credits at Edgewood College for a Cyto•technology major.

A student must maintain a cumulative grade point average of 2.5 in all required courses. A required course in which the student receives a grade below "CD" will not be accepted toward the major.

After showing satisfactory progress in the internship program, the student will be permitted to participate in the May commencement ceremony as an August graduate.

When the entire 38-credit internship is successfully completed in August, the student will be granted a B.S. degree in Biological Sciences including Biology and Environmental Science.

A minimum of 2 credits from the following:

- BIO 206 EV Natural Communities of Wisconsin
- BIO 250 EV Environmental Biology
- BIO 430 Animal Behavior
- BIO 450 E Ecology

A minimum of 2 credits from the following:

- BIO 201 Biotechnology
- BIO 312 S Microbiology
- BIO 402 Cell and Molecular Biology

Additional credits from the following:

- BIO 201 Biotechnology
- BIO 206 EV Natural Communities of Wisconsin
- BIO 208 Nutrition
- BIO 210 Anatomy and Physiology I
- BIO 211 Anatomy and Physiology II
- BIO 275 Dermatology
- BIO 292 Biology Excursions
- BIO 312 S Microbiology
- BIO 402 Cell and Molecular Biology
- BIO 406 Medical Microbiology
- BIO 408 Immunology
- BIO 410 Pathology

Additional requirements from among:

- MATH 114A M Precalculus A: Algebra
- MATH 114B Precalculus B: Trigonometry
- MATH 231 M Calculus I

Biology Teaching Major

This major is designed for individuals who wish to be certified to teach biology at the secondary level (WDPI category Early Adolescence through Adolescence, Ages 10-21; WDPI certification 605 and 615).

This major requires completion of the requirements listed below, the Education professional requirements and the licensing requirements for teacher education (see EDUCATION).

Biology Teaching Majors seeking Wisconsin certification will be required to pass PRAXIS II Exam 10435 to be eligible for certification. It is recommended that Biology Teaching Majors complete the Natural Science Teaching minor to strengthen their understanding of physics and the geosciences as defined in the "WDPI Content Guidelines for Life and Environmental Science Including Biology and Environmental Studies" and prepare for their WDPI content exam.

Thirty-six required biology credits to include:

The following required core courses:

- BIO 151 ESU General Biology: Cell Biology and Ecology
- BIO 152 S General Biology: Genetics and Evolution
- BIO 251 IX Introduction to Biology Research I
- BIO 351 Organismal Botany
- BIO 352 Organismal Zoology
- BIO 401 Genetics
- BIO 480 3 Biology Seminar

Additionally, credits from the following:

- BIO 402 Cell and Molecular Biology
- BIO 408 Immunology
- BIO 410 Pathology

Completion of WDPI content exam, PRAXIS Exam 10435, with a passing score.

Biology Teaching Major with Environmental Science

This major is designed for individuals who wish to be certified to teach biology and/or environmental science at the secondary level (WDPI category Early Adolescence through Adolescence, Ages 10-21; WDPI certification 605 and 615).

This major requires completion of the requirements listed below, the Education professional requirements and the licensing requirements for teacher education (see EDUCATION).

Biology Teaching Majors with Environmental Science seeking Wisconsin certification will be required to pass PRAXIS Exam 10435 to be eligible for certification. It is recommended that Biology Teaching Majors with Environmental Science complete the Natural Science Teaching minor to build their understanding of physics as defined in the "WDPI Content Guidelines for Life and Environmental Science Including Biology and Environmental Studies" and prepare for the WDPI content exam.

Thirty-five required biology credits to include:

The following required courses:

- BIO 151 ESU General Biology: Cell Biology and Ecology
- BIO 152 S General Biology: Genetics and Evolution
- BIO 206 EV Natural Communities of Wisconsin
- BIO 250 EV Environmental Biology
- BIO 430 Animal Behavior
- BIO 450 E Ecology
- BIO 480 3 Biology Seminar

Completion of WDPI content exam, PRAXIS Exam 10435, with a passing score.
Additional requirements:
A two-semester sequence in Chemistry:
CHEM 110 & 111 S Introductory Chemistry & Introductory Organic Chemistry and Biochemistry
CHEM 120 & 121 S General Chemistry I & General Chemistry II
PHYS 130 S General Physics I
PHYS 201 College Physics I

One mathematics course from among:
MATH 114A M Precalculus A: Accelerated College Algebra
MATH 231 M Calculus I
MATH 232 M Calculus II
MATH 233 M Calculus III

Seven credits of required social science courses:
PS 351 Selected Issues in Public Policy (2-4 cr)
PS 352 EJ Environmental Politics
GEOG 265 E Environmental Conservation
PHIL 110 EPU Environmental Ethics

Seven credits of required geoscience courses:
GEOS 102 S Introduction to Earth Science I
GEOS 206 EV Environmental Geology

One semester of the methods of teaching science and accompanying practicum: NATS 459S Teaching Science in Middle/Secondary Schools. Students must be accepted into Emergent Professional Transition before being admitted to NATS 459S.

Completion of WDPI content exam, PRAXIS Exam 10435, with a passing score.

BIOLOGICAL SCIENCES

Biology Teaching Minor
This minor is designed for individuals who wish to be certified to teach biology at the secondary level (WDPI category Early Adolescence through Adolescence, Ages 10-21, WDPI license 605).

The minor requires completion of the requirements listed below and the Education professional requirements and the licensing requirements for teacher education (see EDUCATION).

A teaching minor in Biology must be combined with a Chemistry or Broad Field Science major for licensure to teach science in grades 6, 7, and 8 and general science in grade 9 if the applicant holds middle or middle/secondary science licenses.

Biology Teaching minors seeking Wisconsin certification will be required to pass PRAXIS Exam 10435 to be eligible for certification.

Twenty-five credits in biology to include:
Required courses:
BIO 151 ESU General Biology: Cell Biology and Ecology
BIO 152 S General Biology: Genetics and Evolution
BIO 312 S Microbiology
BIO 351 Organismal Botany
BIO 352 Organismal Zoology
BIO 401 Genetics

Additional requirements:
NATS 459 S Teaching Science in Middle/Secondary schools

Completion of WDPI content exam, PRAXIS Exam 10435, with a passing score.

Broad Field Science Teaching Major: Life and Environmental Science including Biology and Environmental Studies
This major is designed for individuals seeking certification to teach general science, biology, and/or environmental science at the Early Adolescence through Adolescence level (Ages 10-21; grades 7-12; WDPI licenses 601, 605, 606, and 615).

This major requires completion of the requirements listed below, the Education professional requirements and the licensing requirements for teacher education (see EDUCATION).

One of the following social science courses:
PS 351 Selected Issues in Public Policy (3-4 cr)
PS 352 Environmental Politics
GEOG 265 Environmental Conservation

One semester of the methods of teaching science and accompanying practicum: NATS 459S Teaching Science in Middle/Secondary Schools. Students must be accepted into Emergent Professional Transition before being admitted to NATS 459S.

Completion of WDPI content exam, PRAXIS Exam 10435, with a passing score.
An interdisciplinary major administered by the History and Social Science Departments

Majors

BFSS History Concentration
BFSS History Concentration with Teaching Minor
BFSS Social Science: Economics Concentration
BFSS Social Science: Political Science Concentration
BFSS Social Science: Sociology/Anthropology Concentration

BFSS: History Concentration

Administered by the History Department

An interdisciplinary major of 34-36 credits in history and the social sciences, to include 14-16 credits in history with 20 credits from at least three of the following social sciences: economics, political science, sociology/anthropology, and psychology.

Requirements are:

1. One course in each of these areas: A, B, and C (see HISTORY).
2. HIST 295 Pro-seminar: Historians, Historiography and Historical Methods
3. HIST 400/401A, B, or C, Selected Issues/ Research Paper
4. 10-12 credits of electives in History. Confirm with history advisor.
5. Students must be adept at using a word processing program. They must also be familiar with computer-accessed historical sources. Instruction in researching such sources is begun in HIST 295, and continued in upper division courses. Majors demonstrate proficiency in HIST 401.

Students must earn at least 12 credits in history courses at Edgewood College. At least half of the credits in history should be at the 200 level or above. A minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.75 is required in history and 16 in the social sciences distributed as follows:

1. The required courses in history are:
   - HIST 115 H plus one elective from Area A in History (see HISTORY)
   - HIST 131 and HIST 132 H
   - HIST 111 GH plus one elective from Area C in History
   - HIST 120 GH World Civilization Since 1500
   - HIST 295 Pro-Seminar
   - HIST 400/401 A, B, or C Selected Issues/ Research Paper
   - 4-6 credits of electives in History, in consultation with an advisor. Confirm with history advisor.
   - Sixteen social science credits to include ECON 255, ECON 256, SOC 201, and PS 262. Consult with an advisor.
   - Post-baccalaureate students must complete a 12 credit residency requirement with the History Department. Consult with an advisor.

2. Completion of the Education professional requirements and the licensing requirements for teacher education (See EDUCATION). A Broad Fields Social Studies - History Major with a teaching minor must be admitted to teacher education before being admitted to ED 459H; admission to teacher education is recommended as early as possible.

3. To meet Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction certification requirements, students should take GEOG 265 E Environmental Conservation which includes coursework in conservation of natural resources and marketing and consumer cooperatives, and GEOG 266 GIS Mapping. Students are advised to check carefully the certification requirements of the state in which they plan to teach.

4. Majors must be adept at using a word processing program. They must also be familiar with computer-accessed historical sources. Instruction in researching such sources is begun in HIST 295, and continued in upper division courses. Majors demonstrate proficiency in HIST 401.

5. At least half of the credits in history should be at the 200-level or above. Post-baccalaureate and undergraduate students must earn at least 12 credits in history at Edgewood College.

A minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.75 is required in history and social science courses offered toward the major.

BFSS: Economics Concentration

Administered by the Social Science Department

A Broad Fields Social Studies interdisciplinary major of 36-60 credits in history and the social sciences selected by the student in consultation with a Social Science Department advisor, to include 28-36 credits in economics with supporting courses from at least two of the following disciplines: geography, history, political science, sociology, anthropology.

All students in Broad Fields Social Studies with concentrations in Economics, Political Science or Sociology/Anthropology must complete the common interdisciplinary sequence in social science.

BFSS: Political Science Concentration

Administered by the Social Science Department

A Broad Fields Social Studies interdisciplinary major of 36-60 credits in history and the social sciences selected by the student in consultation with a Social Science Department advisor, to include 28-36 credits in political science with supporting courses from at least two of the following disciplines: economics, geography, history, and political science.

All students in Broad Fields Social Studies with concentrations in Economics, Political Science or Sociology/Anthropology must complete the 13 credit common interdisciplinary sequence in social science.

BFSS: Sociology/Anthropology Concentration

Administered by the Social Science Department

A Broad Fields Social Studies interdisciplinary major of 36-60 credits in history and the social sciences selected by the student in consultation with a Social Science Department advisor, to include 28-36 credits in sociology with supporting courses from at least two of the following disciplines: economics, geography, history, and political science.

All students in Broad Fields Social Studies with concentrations in Economics, Political Science or Sociology/Anthropology must complete the common interdisciplinary sequence in social science.

The student must also complete one of the following concentrations:

a. "Biology Concentration: 16 additional credits in biology to be chosen in consultation with an advisor from the Department of Biological Sciences (See Biology p..... for requirements)"

b. Chemistry Concentration: students must complete CHEM 120 S and CHEM 121 S plus 16 additional credits in chemistry to be chosen in consultation with an advisor from the Department of Chemistry, Geoscience and Physics.

c. Geoscience Concentration: students must complete GEOS 102 S and GEOS 103 S plus sixteen additional credits in the geosciences to be chosen in consultation with an advisor from the Department of Chemistry, Geoscience and Physics. (some coursework may need to be completed through the UW-Madison Collaborative Program).

d. Physics Concentration: students must complete PHYS 201 S and PHYS 202 S plus 16 additional credits in physics to be chosen in consultation with an advisor from the Department of Chemistry, Geoscience, and Physics.

Mission
The mission of the Chemistry Department is to prepare students to be well-informed citizens and leaders in a world that is increasingly shaped by science and technology. Based on Sinsinawa Dominican values, the science programs aim to instill in all students an understanding of, and a life-long enthusiasm for, the process of scientific discovery and a commitment to the responsible application of science. The department is committed to innovation and excellence in the science programs, and to preparing majors to be successful in science-related careers that are vital for meeting future local, national, and global needs.

A student must maintain a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.5 in all required core courses in natural science and mathematics and in all courses taken to complete one of the concentrations. Any natural science or mathematics course in which the student received a grade below "CD" will not be accepted toward the major.

Transfer students must take a minimum of 12 natural science credits at Edgewood College.

Please consult with your academic advisor to learn the details about how you can satisfy your COR 3 requirement.

Chemistry Major
Requirements for the major:
Core courses (23 credits)
CHEM 120 S General Chemistry I
CHEM 121 S General Chemistry II
CHEM 321 Inorganic Chemistry I
CHEM 322 Organic Chemistry I
CHEM 351 U Analytical Chemistry
CHEM 371 Inorganic Chemistry I
CHEM 480 K Chemistry Seminar

In addition, students must choose one of the following two concentrations.

Professional Concentration
This concentration is designed to prepare students for careers in health fields (such as medicine, dentistry, pharmacy, and physical therapy), industry, business, or law, or graduate school in biochemistry or molecular biology. Careful consultation with an advisor is recommended.

A minimum of 30 credits in chemistry including the core courses listed above, plus:
One additional required course:
CHEM 340 Biochemistry

Four credits from the following:
CHEM 360 Quantum Mechanics
CHEM 361 Physical Chemistry
CHEM 370 Integrated Laboratory
CHEM 431 X Advanced Organic Chemistry
CHEM 471 Inorganic Chemistry II
CHEM 489 Undergraduate Research

Natural Science and Mathematics Major with the pre-Engineering Concentration
Students may choose the dual degree option under the existing collaborative programs with the Colleges of Engineering at UW-Madison and Marquette University. Under this option, in addition to receiving a Bachelor’s degree in engineering from one of these institutions, a student will receive a B.S. in Natural Science and Mathematics from Edgewood College subject to the completion of the degree requirements stipulated by the College.

Sixty-seven credits to include the following core courses:
CHEM 120 S General Chemistry I
CHEM 121 S General Chemistry II
CHEM 231 M Calculus I
CHEM 232 M Calculus II
CHEM 233 M Calculus III
MATH 231 M Calculus I
MATH 232 M Calculus II
MATH 233 M Calculus III
MATH 331 Differential Equations
PHYS 201 S College Physics I
PHYS 202 S College Physics II
PHYS 350 Scientific Computing
PHYS 360 Modern Physics

Under the agreements with the Colleges of Engineering at the UW-Madison and Marquette University, students who complete the Edgewood College pre-engineering concentration with a minimum GPA of 3.0; have a 3.0 GPA in mathematics, chemistry, physics and computer science courses; have the General Education courses equivalent to the liberal arts electives required by the specific degree-granting department of the student's choice in the College of Engineering; and have a positive recommendation from the Edgewood College physical sciences or mathematics faculty, will be assured entrance into that specific degree-granting department.

The course credits earned by students upon completion of their engineering program at UW-Madison or Marquette University may be transferred to Edgewood College to complete the B.S. in Natural Science and Mathematics.
Earth Science Minor
A minimum of 22 credits in earth science to include:
Required courses:
- GEO 102 S Introduction to Earth Science I
- GEO 103 S Introduction to Earth Science II
- GEO 301 S Weather and Climate

Ten additional credits in earth or space science.

Physics Minor
Track 1:
A minimum of 22 credits in physics to include:
Required courses:
- PHYS 201 S College Physics I
- PHYS 202 S College Physics II
- PHYS 360 Modern Physics

At least 11 additional credits from the following:
- PHYS 220 Biomechanics
- PHYS 250 V Astronomy
- NATS 250 PV History & Philosophy of Science
- PHYS 310 Principles of Mechanics
- PHYS 320 Electromagnetism
- PHYS 350 Scientific Computing
- PHYS 361 Thermal Physics
- PHYS 379/479 Independent Study
- PHYS 489 Undergraduate Research

Broad Field Science Teaching Major: Earth and Space Science
This major is designed for individuals who wish to be certified to teach general science and/or the earth and space sciences at the secondary level (WDPI category Early Adolescence through Adolescence, ages 10-21; WDPI licenses 621 and 635).

The major requires completion of the requirements listed below, the Education professional requirements and the licensing requirements for teacher education (see EDUCATION).

Broad Field Science Teaching majors with Earth and Space Science seeking Wisconsin certification will be required to pass PRAXIS Exam 10435 to be eligible for certification. This major aligns with “WDPI Content Guidelines for Earth and Space Science”

Fifty-one credits in natural science to include:
- GEO 102 S Introduction to Earth Science I
- GEO 103 S Oceans and Atmosphere
- GEO 203 S Historical Geology
- GEO 206 EV Environmental Geology
- GEO 301 S Weather and Climate

Science Education Minor

The Science Education minor is designed to provide the interdisciplinary science background required to teach science topics at the Early Childhood through Middle Childhood level (Birth to 8 years; PI 34.27) and Middle Childhood through Early Adolescence level (Ages 6-13; PI 34.28).

Coursework includes biological, earth, space, and physical science. This minor is intended to provide content knowledge that will support the teaching of elementary science with an interdisciplinary perspective and an integrated approach.

PRAXIS II Exam 10014 must be passed for Early Childhood certification. PRAXIS II Exam 10014 must be passed for Middle Childhood through Early Adolescence certification.

Completion of WDPI content exam, PRAXIS Exam 10435, with a passing score.

Department Award

The Martie Kaump Award is given to a student who has demonstrated outstanding artistic achievement and student leadership. The criteria for this award includes the following:

1. Has completed 70 credits and maintained a grade point of 3.2 or higher. This award is given in alternate years by the Communication Studies Department.
2. Has reasonably successful in mentoring less experienced students.
3. Is able to work independently.
4. Uses research tools in academic work.
5. Is able to formulate long-range goals.
6. Has completed 70 credits and maintained a grade point of 3.2 or higher. This award is given in alternate years by the Communication Studies Department.

Communication Studies Major

Major core, minimum 24 credits. Core courses taken over the minimum 24 credit hours may count towards an emphasis.

Required Core Courses:

- COMMS 201 Communication and Civilization
- COMMS 240 Introduction to Interpersonal Communication
- COMMS 311 Qualitative Communication Research Methods
- COMMS 313 Quantitative Communication Research Methods

Optional Core classes (must take 4 out of 5):

- COMMS 241 Introduction to Organizational Communication
- COMMS 243 Introduction to Media Studies
- COMMS 312 Argument and Controversy

Area of Emphasis, minimum 24 credits total. Must take a minimum of 15 credits in COMMS courses. Any COMMS class not taken for the major core may count toward an emphasis.

Please consult with your academic advisor to learn the details about how you can satisfy your COR 3 requirement.

Computer Information Systems Major

The Computer Information Systems major is structured to provide students with the theoretical framework and skill sets necessary to compete and be productive in the information technology world. Specifically, the major focuses on building an understanding of core information technologies, application development and related areas of study, preparing students for the Information Systems and Information Technology profession. Students engage in a variety of integrative activities designed to sharpen their abilities to problem solve and to work in teams. It incorporates both individual and team projects, including community outreach and a senior capstone experience.

Business–Computer Information Systems Major

All CS courses listed for the Computer Information Systems major (51-53 cr). All courses listed for the Business minor (35 cr). Students graduating with a Business/Computer Information Systems major may need to complete more than 120 credits in order to complete their degree.
Computer Science Minor
The Computer Science minor provides students a ‘behind the scenes’ exploration of the computing field.
A total of 18 credits as follows:
- CS 105 I Digital Life Through Multimedia
- CS 180 Introduction to Programming
- CS 220 Introduction to Networking Technologies
- CS 340 Programming for the Web
- CS 490 Topics in Computer Science

Computer Science Teaching Minor
The Computer Science Teaching Minor is part of a program leading to a Wisconsin initial educator license to teach computer science at the level corresponding to the student’s major.
A teaching major in some field for middle/secondary or secondary education.
A total of 18 credits in Computing and Information Sciences as follows:
- CS 105 I Digital Life Through Multimedia
- CS 180 Introduction to Programming
- CS 220 Introduction to Networking Technologies
- CS 340 Programming for the Web
- CS 490 Topics in Computer Science

A course on computers in education approved by the department.
Completion of the education professional requirements and licensure requirements for Early Adolescence through Adolescence (see EDUCATION). A Computer Science Teaching minor must be accepted into Emergent Professional Transition before being admitted to ED 459U; progress through transition steps is recommended as early as possible.

Department Policies
Due to the interactive nature of the Computing and Information Sciences curriculum, all students in the major and minor degree programs are required to use a laptop computer throughout the duration of the program. To obtain specific information about the laptop computer configuration, please contact the Chair of the Department.
A student must have a cumulative grade point average of 2.5 or higher in all computer science courses in order to earn a major in Computer Information Systems, Business/Computer Information Systems or Computer Science Teaching.
A student must have a cumulative grade point of 2.5 or higher in all computer science courses in order to earn a major in Computer Information Systems, Business/Computer Information Systems or Computer Science Teaching.
A minimum of three computer science courses in the majors at or above the 300 level must be taken in the Department of Computing and Information Sciences at Edgewood College. A minimum of two computer science courses in the minors, one at or above the 200 level and one at or above the 300 level, must be taken in the department.
Courses in computer science taken more than five years ago may not be accepted toward the majors in Computer Information Systems, Business/Computer Information Systems or Computer Science Teaching.
A minimum of three computer science courses in the majors at or above the 300 level must be taken in the Department of Computing and Information Sciences at Edgewood College. A minimum of two computer science courses in the minors, one at or above the 200 level and one at or above the 300 level, must be taken in the department.
Any course requirement other than the minimum residency requirement and all 400 level courses may be satisfied through examination or Credit for Prior Learning.
Courses in the department may not be taken Pass/Fail. Courses in the Department of Computing and Information Sciences may not be audited.

Department Policies

Students pursuing the English–Literature, English–Writing or English–Journalism major are required to maintain at least a 2.5 GPA in English courses. English Teaching majors are required to maintain a 3.0 GPA in English courses. Transfer students in any English major must earn at least 16 credits at Edgewood College in English at the 300/400 level. Post-baccalaureate students are exempt from this requirement. Transfer students pursuing minors in English–Literature, English–Writing, or English Teaching must fulfill at least 12 credits in English from courses at Edgewood College. Post-baccalaureate students are exempt from this requirement. Students choosing the English Teaching major or minor must consult with an advisor in the School of Education. Courses required for the major are offered on a rotating basis. Students are urged to consult with the department chair or their advisors for information regarding this sequence.

English Major with a concentration in Literature

Forty-four credits beyond ENG 110 W, as follows:

Required courses:

- ENG 201 Introduction to Journalism
- ENG 205 BX Introduction to Creative Writing
- ENG 280 CXU Introduction to Literary Studies

Four courses from the following:

- ENG 301 Magazine Writing
- ENG 302 Advanced Writing
- ENG 305 BX Fiction Writing
- ENG 306 Poetry Writing
- ENG 312 Topics in Journalism
- ENG 314 Literary Journalism
- ENG 406 Advanced Fiction Writing
- ENG 410 Advanced Journalism
- ENG 476 Advanced Writing Workshop

At least four courses in literature, of which three must be at the 300/400 level, and at least one of which must be pre-1865 literature. One must be an English COR3 seminar. Other English courses to bring the total number of English credits to at least 44. Transfer students must earn at least 16 credits in English at Edgewood College from 300/400 courses. Post-baccalaureate students are exempt from this requirement.

English Major with a concentration in Writing

Forty-four credits beyond ENG 110 W, as follows:

Required courses:

- ENG 201 Introduction to Journalism
- ENG 202 Journalism Practicum
- ENG 205 BX Introduction to Creative Writing

Transfer students must earn at least 16 credits in English at Edgewood from 300/400 courses. Post-baccalaureate students are exempt from this requirement.

English Major with a concentration in Journalism

Forty-four credits beyond ENG 110 W, as follows:

Required courses:

- ENG 201 Introduction to Journalism
- ENG 205 BX Introduction to Creative Writing

At least three courses from the following:

- ENG 301 Magazine Writing
- ENG 309 The New Journalism
- ENG 312 Topics in Journalism
- ENG 314 Literary Journalism
- ENG 316 Video Production
- ENG 317 Photojournalism
- ENG 410 Advanced Journalism

One D- or G-tagged English course at the 200/300/400 level.

At least five courses in English at the 300/400 level, of which at least three must be literature courses. One must be an English COR3 seminar. Transfer students must earn at least 16 credits in English at Edgewood College from 300/400 courses. Post-baccalaureate students are exempt from this requirement. Other English courses to bring the total number of English credits to at least 44.

English Teaching Major

The major is part of a program leading to a Wisconsin initial educator license to teach English at the Early Adolescence through Adolescence level (Ages 10-21). It includes 44 credits beyond ENG 110 W, as follows:

Required courses:

- ENG 280 CXU Introduction to Literary Studies
- ENG 303 Introduction to the Study of Language
- ENG 331a Literary Figures: Shakespeare
- ENG 401 The Teaching of Composition

At least 28 English credits at the 300/400 level. One course must be an English COR3 seminar. Transfer students must earn at least 16 credits in English at Edgewood College from 300/400 courses. Post-baccalaureate students are exempt from this requirement. Additional credits in English to bring the total to 24. Students in this major must also complete the professional education requirements and licensing requirements for teaching (see EDUCATION). Transfer students must earn at least 16 credits in English at Edgewood College from 300/400 courses. Post-baccalaureate students are exempt from this requirement.

English Minor with a concentration in Literature

Twenty-four credits beyond ENG 110 W, as follows:

- Sixteen credits in English at the 300/400 level, of which at least 12 credits must be in literature.

English Minor with a concentration in Writing

Twenty-four credits beyond ENG 110 W, as follows:

- Four courses from the following:

  - ENG 201 Introduction to Journalism
  - ENG 205 BX Introduction to Creative Writing
  - ENG 301 Magazine Writing
  - ENG 302 Advanced Writing
  - ENG 305 BX Fiction Writing
  - ENG 306 Poetry Writing

  - ENG 314 Literary Journalism
  - ENG 316 Advanced Fiction Writing
  - ENG 317 Photojournalism
  - ENG 410 Advanced Journalism
  - ENG 476 Advanced Writing Workshop

Eight credits in literature at the 300/400 level.

English Teaching Minor

The minor, together with a licensing major, is part of a program leading to a Wisconsin initial educator license to teach English at the level corresponding to the major. It includes 24 credits beyond ENG 110 W, as follows:

Required courses:

- ENG 280 CXU Introduction to Literary Studies
- ENG 303 Introduction to the Study of Language
- ENG 331a Literary Figures: Shakespeare
- ED 459E Teaching Methods – English

One additional 300/400 level literature course. Additional credits in English to bring the total to 24. Students in this minor must also complete the Early Adolescence through Adolescence licensing requirements (see EDUCATION).
Goals for Foreign Language Program

Goal I: to expose students to the target culture – for French students, the Francophone world, and for students of Spanish, the Spanish-speaking world, through language and cultural immersion with the aim to enhance cross-cultural competence and understanding.

Goal II: to enable students to develop oral proficiency in the foreign language, including accuracy of structure and pronunciation, at the target level of intermediate high (as defined in the ACTFL national proficiency guidelines).

Goal III: to introduce students to a variety of writing formats and improve written proficiency in the target language, including accuracy of syntactical structure, grammar, punctuation, and organization of presentation.

Goal IV: to introduce students to the literature of France and the Francophone world or Spain and Latin America, together with other avenues of intellectual inquiry (film, history, art, music, philosophy).

Goal V: to acquaint Foreign Language Teaching students with current methodologies in foreign language instruction in order to help them to develop pedagogical tools and skills necessary for teaching the target language and culture, and prepare them professionally for their career through hands-on experience and practical training.

- Spanish for Elementary Education

Major programs in French and Spanish are composed primarily of courses in language, literature and culture. The study of foreign languages can lead students to a variety of careers, including teaching, government, and industry. Majors in foreign language teaching prepare specifically for teaching at elementary and/or secondary levels. Many students combine majors in French or Spanish with the study of international relations, business, social work, nursing, or other areas where knowledge of a foreign language is useful. Some may continue foreign language study at the graduate level, pursuing degrees in literature, culture, and translation. Students majoring in foreign languages are encouraged to talk to department faculty and Career Services to discuss opportunities beyond graduation.

Completion of the professional education requirements and licensing requirements for teacher education (See the EDUCATION listing). A French Teaching Minor must be accepted into Emergent Professional Transition before being admitted to French 459F.
*Specific course content determines to which area–language, literature, or culture–the credits can be applied
French Program Policies
Emphasis is on the use of French in the classroom beginning with first-year classes. Advanced classes are conducted in French. Upper-level courses may be repeated for credit, provided content is different. Students with three or more years of the same high school language cannot take 101 of that same language at Edgewood College.
Transfer students who intend to continue in language should consult the Foreign Language Department for assistance in choosing the appropriate level course.

All majors, teaching and non-teaching, and all teaching minors must pass with a minimum grade of "B" at least two of the following: FREN 312, 313 G, 314, 316 G, 412 G, 413 G, 414 G, 416 G, 430. All non-teaching minors must pass with a minimum grade of "B" at least one of the courses listed.

All majors, teaching and non-teaching, and all teaching minors must also maintain a 3.0 GPA in French courses, achieve oral proficiency at the intermediate-high level (ACTFL guidelines), and be approved by the Department.

If the department rotation of required 300 and 400 level courses does not permit students in the major or minor to take them at the College, they may take them at UW-Madison through the Collaborative Program.

Study Abroad

French Teaching majors and French Teaching minors are required to have an intensive language experience, either through residence in a French-speaking country or through an immersion program. It is strongly recommended that to acquire the minimum necessary language skills for future employment, French majors participate in residence abroad or an immersion program. All options for intensive language experience must be approved by the Foreign Language Department, the Center for Global Education and the Registrar's Office.

Minimum credits at Edgewood College

A French major, French Teaching major or French Teaching minor must take a minimum of eight credits in French at Edgewood College or at UW-Madison through the Collaborative Program. Retroactive credit and Student Teaching will not be counted toward this minimum.

A French minor must take a minimum of four credits in French at Edgewood College or at UW-Madison through the Collaborative Program. Retroactive credit and Student Teaching will not be counted toward this minimum.

The year that prior courses were taken must be considered for determining courses' acceptability for satisfying major/minor requirement. Those seeking add-on teaching certification in determining courses' acceptability for satisfying major/minor requirement. Those seeking add-on teaching certification in French must consult with the Foreign Language Department.

Retroactive Credit

Credits may be granted for foreign language skills acquired through high school study, immersion experience in the target language, or other means of prior learning. Level of language proficiency will be determined based on the successful completion of the student's first college level foreign language course (placement must be above 101 level) with a minimum grade of C. Up to 16 credits may be granted in Foreign Language. Only non-native speakers are eligible. See the list below for an explanation of how credit is awarded.

- 4 retroactive credits if B or higher in FREN 102 L
- No retroactive credits if BC or C in FREN 102 L
- 8 retroactive credits if B or higher in FREN 201 GL
- 4 retroactive credits if BC or C in FREN 201 GL
- 12 retroactive credits if B or higher in FREN 202 GL
- 4 retroactive credits if BC or C in FREN 202 GL
- 16 retroactive credits if B or higher in FREN 312 or a higher level French Course
- 8 retroactive credits if BC or C in FREN 312 or higher French Course

Proficiency Tests

Proficiency tests exempting a student from a first and/or second year of foreign language are available upon request and with prior departmental approval. Please consult the Foreign Language Department about all of the policies above.

History

One of the following two-semester sequences:

- HIST 400A/401A Selected Issues in European History/Research Paper
- HIST 400B/401B Selected Issues in American History/Research Paper
- HIST 400C/401C Selected Issues in East Asian History/Research Paper

Elective courses in history to complete the 42-44 credit total, to be chosen by the student in consultation with a History Department advisor. Confirm choice with history advisor. It is strongly recommended that history majors who plan to attend graduate school take a foreign language. Students should consult with their academic advisor for information.

Both undergraduate and post-baccalaureate students must earn at least 12 credits at history at Edgewood College.

History Minor

A minimum of 24 credits to include HIST 295, and a 400/401 sequence. The other courses will be chosen by the student in consultation with a History Department advisor. At least 12 credits in history must be earned at Edgewood College.

History Teaching Minor:

Elementary/Middle Education

An elementary/middle level education major. A minimum of 28 credits in history including:

- At least one course from each of the areas above: A, B, and C
- HIST 295 Proseminar: Historians, Historiography and Historical Method
- A HIST 400/401 two-semester sequence

Completion of the Education professional requirements and the licensing sequence in either elementary or elementary/middle education (see EDUCATION). To meet Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction licensing requirements, students should take GEOG 265 E Environmental Conservation, a course in conservation of natural resources and marketing and consumer cooperatives. Students are advised to check carefully the certification requirements of the state in which they plan to teach.

Minors must earn at least 12 credits in history at Edgewood College.

Minors must earn at least 16 credits at the 200-level or above in history. A minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.75 is required in history courses taken toward the minor.

International Relations Major

1. Interdisciplinary core of 36-37 credits:
   - Political Science:
     - PS 210 GJ Intro to International Relations

   - Two years of college-level study of one foreign language (16 credits) or equivalent.

3. A Minor in one of the following disciplines:
   - Sociology, business, economics, French, history, political science, environmental studies, women and gender studies or Spanish.

Courses selected for a minor must meet the requirements of the department or program through which the minor is offered.

Policies

An International Relations major must take a minimum of twelve credits of the interdisciplinary core coursework in residence at Edgewood College or through the Collaborative Program, not including courses taken solely for the minor. The year that prior courses were taken will be considered in determining the acceptability of transfer courses for satisfying the major requirement.
Mathematics and mathematics teaching majors are designed to prepare students to enter a wide variety of career trajectories—such as teaching, actuarial science, business, and pre-engineering—as well as graduate school. In addition to preparation in core areas of mathematics, students will develop habits of precision and logical thinking, acquire an appreciation for and understanding of the aesthetic qualities and historical development of mathematics, and gain an appreciation for and understanding of mathematical concepts and techniques that are applicable to areas outside of mathematics.

The department has identified four goals for students majoring in mathematics and mathematics teaching.

Core Mathematics
Students should demonstrate a broad understanding of core mathematics as defined by the requirements for the major and the department's course goals. These goals include the interplay of mathematics with other disciplines and the history of mathematics.

Problem-solving
Students should demonstrate competency in problem-solving. This includes the ability to generate special cases, recognize patterns, formulate and test conjectures, reject incorrect solutions, use mathematical tools developed in coursework, and reflect appropriately on the solution.

Proof
Students should demonstrate the ability to critically examine mathematical arguments and produce proofs that are both mathematically and stylistically correct.

Communication
Students should be able to communicate mathematics effectively in oral and written form using formal definitions, appropriate mathematical terminology and symbolism.

The Mathematics faculty assesses how well students are meeting mathematical terminology and symbolism.

Mathematics Teaching for Elementary/Middle School Minor

- The minor, together with a licensing major in Middle Childhood through Early Adolescence, is part of a program leading to a Wisconsin initial educator license to teach mathematics at the level corresponding to the major.

Mathematics Teaching Major

- A minimum GPA of 2.5 in the above mathematics courses.
- Mathematics majors are recommended to take a computer programming course. Majors planning to pursue a career in actuarial science should consult with their advisor regarding additional recommendations.

Mathematics Teaching for Elementary/Middle School Minor

- At least two of the following with at least 7 credits:
  - MATH 233 M Calculus III
  - MATH 331 Differential Equations
  - MATH 351 Probability
  - MATH 431 Real Analysis
  - MATH 432 Complex Analysis
  - MATH 441 Abstract Algebra I
  - MATH 442 Abstract Algebra II

A minimum GPA of 2.5 in the above courses.
- Completion of the Education professional requirements and licensure requirements for teacher education (see EDUCATION). Progress through the transition steps is recommended as early as possible.

Mathematics Minor

- Twenty-four credits in mathematics including:
  - Required courses:
    - MATH 231 M Calculus I
    - MATH 232 M Calculus II
    - MATH 301 U Problem Solving and Proof
    - MATH 341 Linear Algebra

A minimum GPA of 2.5 in the above courses.
- Completion of the Education professional requirements and licensure requirements for teacher education (see EDUCATION). Progress through the transition steps is recommended as early as possible.

Mathematics Teaching for Elementary/Middle School Minor

- Thirteen credits in mathematics (beyond those required for the education major), including:
  - A major in Middle Childhood through Early Adolescence Education.

Required courses:

- MATH 121 M Statistics
- MATH 451 Explorations in Middle/Secondary Mathematics

At least one of the following courses:

- MATH 222 M Calculus with Business Applications
- MATH 231 M Calculus I

At least one of the following courses, in consultation with minor advisor:

- MATH 122 Finite Mathematics
- MATH 232 M Calculus II

A minimum GPA of 2.5 in the above courses.
- Completion of the Education professional requirements and licensure requirements for teacher education (see EDUCATION). Progress through the transition steps is recommended as early as possible.
Mathematics Teaching Minor

The minor, together with a licensing major (Early Adolescent through Adolescent), is part of a program leading to a Wisconsin initial educator license to teach mathematics at the Early Adolescent through Adolescent level.

A teaching major in some field for Early Adolescent through Adolescent Education.

Twenty-eight credits in mathematics including:

Required courses:
- MATH 231 M Calculus I
- MATH 232 M Calculus II
- MATH 301 U Problem Solving and Proof
- MATH 341 Linear Algebra
- MATH 451 Explorations in Middle/Secondary School Mathematics
- MATH 459 Middle/Secondary Math Methods (Cross-listed with ED 459M)
- MATH 461 Geometry

Choose one of the following:
- MATH 121 M Statistics
- MATH 351 Probability

A minimum GPA of 2.5 in the above mathematics courses. Completion of the Education professional requirements and licensure requirements for Early Adolescence through Adolescence (see EDUCATION). Progress through the transition steps is recommended as early as possible.

Mathematics Policies

A student must have a cumulative grade point average of 2.5 or above in courses required for the major or minor.

A student pursuing any major within the Mathematics Department must take at least three mathematics courses at or above the 300 level at Edgewood College. A student pursuing any minor within the Mathematics Department must take at least two mathematics courses approved by the department at Edgewood College.

Students intending to major or minor in mathematics or mathematics teaching should take MATH 301 U Problem Solving and Proof concurrently with or as soon as possible after MATH 232 M Calculus II since it is a prerequisite for most of the mathematics courses at the 300 and 400 levels.

Courses in mathematics may not be audited.

Courses in the department may be taken Pass/Fail only with the consent of both the instructor and the Department Chair.

No student may take a mathematics course Pass/Fail if it is to be used to satisfy any major or minor requirement from any department in the College.

Any course requirement of the mathematics and mathematics teaching majors and minors (with the exception of MATH 485 X and MATH 459) may be satisfied through the proficiency process established by the department. The minimum residency requirement may not be waived.

Students in a math teaching major or minor should not plan to take upper division mathematics courses during the semester in which they are student teaching.

Student Development Opportunities

The Mathematics Department supports a number of student development opportunities, including participation in the Edgewood College Research Conference, summer research experiences, and St. Norbert’s annual Pi Mu Epsilon Conference. Any full-time member of the Department can provide details.

Internships and Careers in Mathematics

A number of careers are open to students majoring in mathematics. Some students proceed to graduate school in an advanced mathematical, professional, or technical field; other students move directly into the work force including teaching at the middle or secondary level. The student majoring in mathematics should talk to her/his advisor in the sophomore year to explore internships and career opportunities. Members of the department will work with the student and Edgewood College’s Career Services office to help the student successfully chart a path beyond graduation.

Uniforms and Careers in Mathematics

Goals of the Major

The curriculum for the music major is aligned with the standards for the National Association of Schools of Music and the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction. The comprehensive degree offerings challenge students to reach their highest potential. The development of performing skills, critical thinking, and music literacy are goals of each area of private and class instruction, music appreciation, music theory, music history and performing ensembles. Each semester, the music faculty assesses student achievement using standard test formats, portfolio reviews, rubrics, and juried performance reviews.

Opportunities for non-Music Majors

Non-majors are encouraged to take music courses, a number of which require no previous musical experience. Performing ensembles are available to all students regardless of major. Some ensembles and upper-division courses require an audition. Some of the assessment strategies outlined above are also used for non-majors.

The Music Department offers general education courses that cover the following tags: A, B, D, G, I, K, Q, X.

In addition:

Private Lessons: Students must register for private lessons each semester they are enrolled at Edgewood College; at least two semesters must be taken at the 300 level with a grade of “C” or better, and two semesters must be taken at the 400 level with a grade of “C” or better.

Performing Organization: Students must be registered for a performing ensemble each semester they are enrolled at Edgewood College. Students should contact the department chair prior to registration for placement information.

Additional Music Major Requirements:

Piano Proficiency (see Music Department for criteria): Students must be enrolled in MUS 103 every semester until the Piano Proficiency is satisfied. Students must register for MUS 104 (with consent of instructor) the semester they complete the requirement.

Performance Class/ Juried Reviews/Portfolio:

All students who study privately will perform each semester in a performance class (MUS 000), and in a juried review during final examination week. Students must pass 6 semesters of MUS 000. Any student failing 3 consecutive semesters of MUS 000 will not be permitted to continue in the program. Students will turn in a portfolio after four semesters of study at Edgewood College. A final portfolio review is required prior to graduation. Music education portfolios fulfill Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction requirements.

Transfer students should see the Department Chair for portfolio deadlines.

GPA Requirements: Majors need to attain the following GPA requirements by the end of their sophomore year, and must maintain them to remain in good standing and to be approved for graduation. In addition, a music course in which a student receives a grade below “C” will not be accepted toward the major.

In addition:
- Private Lessons (3 credits): Students must complete three credits of private study on a major instrument or voice. At least one credit must be completed at the 300 level with a grade of “C” or better.
- Performing Organization (4 credits): Students must complete four credits of performing organizations. Contact the Department Chair prior to registration for placement.

Additional Requirements for the Minor:
- All students who study privately will concurrently enroll in a performance class (MUS 000), and will participate in a juried review during final examination week. Music minors must pass 3 semesters of MUS 000. Any music minor failing 2 consecutive semesters of MUS 000 will not be permitted to continue in the program.

Policies

- Computer Competency
  - Majors must be adept at word processing and Finale software. They must also be familiar with computer-accessed sources and web page development. Skills for these proficiencies are addressed in the music theory and music history/appreciation courses, as well as in MUS 191 L; Computer Applications in Music, which satisfies the general education computer competency requirement.

Applied Music Private Study
- Additional fees are assessed for private lessons. Contact the College Business Office for current rates.

Requirements for Transfer Students

- All transfer students are required to audition on their primary instrument or voice before acceptance into the music major. After successful completion of the audition, the student must take the following music qualifying exams: Music Theory, Ear Training/Solfege, Piano Skills, and, if applicable, Music History.

Temporary Suspension of Studies

- To assure a positive learning experience, students returning after a three-year interruption of studies toward the major must take placement exams to determine if theoretical and performance-based skills have been maintained at an appropriate level.

Credit for Prior Learning

- Private lessons and performing groups may not be audited.

Credit for Prior Learning

- Credit for Prior Learning is awarded on a 3-credit basis for proof of prior learning experience, including but not limited to formal education and/or work performed while employed in a music position. Evidence must be submitted to the Department Chair for deadline details. Music Performance Grants and Scholarships

Fine Arts Grant in Music

- For first-time freshmen and transfer students. Open to music majors and non-majors. To audition, a student must perform two works in contrasting styles. Award amounts are based on the audition results and need. The grant is renewable for up to four years based on the recommendation of the Music Department, taking into consideration the student’s contribution to a performing organization.
MUSIC

Sister E. Blackwell Music Scholarship

Offered on a competitive basis to qualified undergraduate students who attain sophomore status or above and who participate in a performing ensemble and are also taking private lessons. Interested students should contact the Financial Aid Office and the Music Department Chair. The Music Department will supply information regarding audition requirements and deadlines. The award is based on leadership, scholarship and performance in music courses as well as audition results.

Ken and Diane Ballweg Music Scholarship

Offered to an undergraduate student who is a declared music major who intends to make music his or her profession. The audition requires the student to perform intermediate through advanced level works (as determined by the Music Department) for a duration of 20 minutes. The scholarship is not automatically renewable, and is not automatically given each year. Interested students should contact the Financial Aid Office and the Chair of the Music Department.

Battcock Scholarship

Awarded to qualified students based on potential as a piano student.

DeEtte Beilfuss-Eager Scholarship

Restricted to a student who is in good academic standing as a music major, and studying advanced piano or is determined by the Music Department to have a high potential as a piano student.

Malmquist Scholarship

Awarded to qualified students based on academic promise, musical leadership, and contribution to the department and respective ensemble.

Vernon and Anja Sell Choral Scholar Endowment

Awarded each year to one or more qualified students who have been active members of the Chamber Singers for at least one year; demonstrated continued growth in choral/ chamber singing and musicianship; shown exceptional interpersonal leadership skills, and are in good academic standing with the appropriate GPA. The award is based solely on merit rather than financial need and is awarded yearly. Recipients may receive the award in successive years.

PHILOSOPHY

Minor

Philosophy

Requirements for the minor:

18 credits selected in consultation with the Chair of the department, including PHIL 479. A minimum of 9 credits must be completed at the College.

Students who minor in Philosophy will demonstrate a breadth of knowledge in the major areas of philosophical study and an in-depth understanding of at least one philosophical theme or one philosopher. They will also give evidence of an ability to apply and to practice engaged philosophy in a life of service for a just and peaceful world.

Minimum GPA
For Admission to the Psychology major, students must have at least a C in each of the following three courses and a 2.5 average in all three: PSY 101, PSY 340, and BIO 151 (or equivalent). A student may declare the psychology major after completion of the above three courses. For graduation, students must have a 2.5 average in all psychology major requirements, and at least a C in PSY 498, the capstone course. A course in which a student receives a grade below C will not be counted toward the major or minor. If a student repeats a course, the better grade will be counted toward the GPA for purposes of admission to the major, graduation, and inclusion in the minor. Transfer course grades will be counted toward the GPA for purposes of admission to the major and graduation.

Residence Requirements for major and minor
A minimum of three courses toward the major and two courses toward the minor must be taken at Edgewood College.

Required courses for the major and minor
For the psychology major and each psychology major concentration, the courses required are listed in the catalogue. There is no minimum number of credits. Students need to complete the required courses for the major or major concentration. For the psychology minor, five courses in psychology are required, which must include General Psychology or equivalent transfer course.

Psychology Major

The psychology major seeks to assist students in developing a critical knowledge of psychology as a science and psychology as a means to promote human welfare. These goals reflect the College’s mission and identity statements, which promote educating students for meaningful professional lives of service and a lifelong search for truth.

Mission
It is the mission of the School of Education to prepare reflective practitioners for effective schools with an emphasis on leadership at the classroom, school, district, and system levels.

Vision
The School of Education envisions that candidates for licensing as initial educators should be both reflective and effective practitioners committed to student learning and continuing professional development in a dynamic world. Candidates will bring to their positions an informed view of the world, a solid grounding in content for teaching, a grasp of the principles and conditions of establishing a positive learning environment, a functional understanding of the diverse backgrounds and learning styles which children and youth represent, an appreciation of the value of parental involvement in student learning, sensitivity to the need for positive community relations, a specialized expertise for their level and area of preparation, and are assessed under professional quality standards for initial educators.

Purpose and Beliefs
Influenced by the concept of a professional educator as both a reflective and effective practitioner, the School of Education has as a central purpose the preparation of teachers who have a solid general education, who develop an awareness and functional understanding of the methods and content of inquiry in recognized fields of the arts and sciences, who acquire effective professional knowledge and skills, who receive professionally appropriate experiences for teaching children and youth, who value a commitment to service, and who are assessed against professional standards.

In such a context, the central purpose of the teacher education program is based on four core beliefs:

- Belief in the intellectual personal uniqueness and value of every human person;
- Belief in the efficacy of education as a force in promoting the dignity, freedom, and responsibility of each person, and understanding of the basic unity and equality of all human persons;
- Belief in the liberating dimension of education through reflective action and critical analysis; and
- Belief in the potential of Christian humanism as a dynamic reality in nurturing qualities of respect, care, genuineness, and understanding.

The School of Education Conceptual Framework

The School of Education’s Conceptual Framework can be thought of as expressing our commitment to three interdependent components: (I) Critical Lens, (II) Professional Socialization and Practice, and (III) Effective Tools and Techniques.

In the spirit of the Mission and Vision of Edgewood College, the School of Education’s Conceptual Framework commits its programs to provide (I) Critical Lenses that involve inquiry into the historical, social, and philosophical roots of existing practice in order to engage with it and press ahead into innovative and creative practices working toward a multi-cultural and socially just vision of what education can be. School of Education programs will involve (II) Professional Socialization and Practice incorporating field work, practicum, and immersion experiences in partnership communities and socially diverse settings where candidates will acquire (III) Effective Tools and Techniques involving best practices that promote the science and art of teaching, research, and administration.

I Critical Lenses

1. Teachers know the subjects they are teaching. The teacher understands the central concepts, tools of inquiry, and structures of the disciplines she or he teaches and can create learning experiences that make these aspects of subject matter meaningful for pupils.
2. Teachers know how children grow. The teacher understands how children with broad ranges of ability learn and provides instruction that supports their intellectual, social, and personal development.
3. Teachers understand that children learn differently. The teacher understands how pupils differ in their approaches to learning and the barriers that impede learning and can adapt instruction to meet the diverse needs of pupils, including those with disabilities and exceptionalities.
4. Teachers know how to teach. The teacher understands and uses a variety of instructional strategies, including the use of technology, to encourage children’s development of critical thinking, problem solving, and performance skills.
5. Teachers know how to manage a classroom. The teacher uses an understanding of individual and group motivation and behavior to create a learning environment that encourages positive social interaction, active engagement in learning, and self-motivation.
6. Teachers communicate well. The teacher uses effective verbal and nonverbal communication techniques as well as instructional media and technology to foster active inquiry, collaboration, and supportive interaction in the classroom.
7. Teachers are able to plan different kinds of lessons. The teacher organizes and plans systematic instruction based upon knowledge of subject matter, pupils, the community, and curriculum goals.
8. Teachers know how to test for student progress. The teacher understands and uses formal and informal assessment strategies to evaluate and ensure the continuous intellectual, social, and physical development of the pupil.
9. Teachers are able to evaluate themselves. The teacher is a reflective practitioner who continually evaluates the effects of his or her choices and actions on pupils, parents, professionals in the learning community and others and who actively seeks out opportunities to grow professionally.
10. Teachers are connected with other teachers and the community. The teacher fosters relationships with school colleagues, parents, and agencies in the larger community to support pupil learning and well-being and acts with integrity, fairness and in an ethical manner. These standards serve as objectives for all teacher education programs with adaptations appropriate to the respective licenses sought.

II Professional Socialization and Practice

11. Teachers are able to plan different kinds of lessons. The teacher understands and uses a variety of instructional strategies, including the use of technology, to encourage children’s development of critical thinking, problem solving, and performance skills.
12. Teachers communicate well. The teacher uses effective verbal and nonverbal communication techniques as well as instructional media and technology to foster active inquiry, collaboration, and supportive interaction in the classroom.
13. Teachers are able to plan different kinds of lessons. The teacher organizes and plans systematic instruction based upon knowledge of subject matter, pupils, the community, and curriculum goals.
14. Teachers know how to test for student progress. The teacher understands and uses formal and informal assessment strategies to evaluate and ensure the continuous intellectual, social, and physical development of the pupil.
15. Teachers are able to evaluate themselves. The teacher is a reflective practitioner who continually evaluates the effects of his or her choices and actions on pupils, parents, professionals in the learning community and others and who actively seeks out opportunities to grow professionally.
16. Teachers are connected with other teachers and the community. The teacher fosters relationships with school colleagues, parents, and agencies in the larger community to support pupil learning and well-being and acts with integrity, fairness and in an ethical manner. These standards serve as objectives for all teacher education programs with adaptations appropriate to the respective licenses sought.

III Effective Tools and Techniques

17. Teachers are able to plan different kinds of lessons. The teacher understands and uses a variety of instructional strategies, including the use of technology, to encourage children’s development of critical thinking, problem solving, and performance skills.
18. Teachers communicate well. The teacher uses effective verbal and nonverbal communication techniques as well as instructional media and technology to foster active inquiry, collaboration, and supportive interaction in the classroom.
19. Teachers are able to plan different kinds of lessons. The teacher organizes and plans systematic instruction based upon knowledge of subject matter, pupils, the community, and curriculum goals.
20. Teachers know how to test for student progress. The teacher understands and uses formal and informal assessment strategies to evaluate and ensure the continuous intellectual, social, and physical development of the pupil.
21. Teachers are able to evaluate themselves. The teacher is a reflective practitioner who continually evaluates the effects of his or her choices and actions on pupils, parents, professionals in the learning community and others and who actively seeks out opportunities to grow professionally.
22. Teachers are connected with other teachers and the community. The teacher fosters relationships with school colleagues, parents, and agencies in the larger community to support pupil learning and well-being and acts with integrity, fairness and in an ethical manner. These standards serve as objectives for all teacher education programs with adaptations appropriate to the respective licenses sought.

Standards and Objectives

Full implementation of PI 34 for teacher and administrator licensing in Wisconsin took effect September 1, 2004. All candidates completing programs for licensing after August 31, 2004, must meet new licensing and license-renewal rules applicable to the respective programs, including PRAXIS I and II testing and a performance-based portfolio assessment. The Teacher Education Program Approval and Licensing rules that structure teacher education, licensure programs, and professional development for practicing educators in Wisconsin are based on the ten Wisconsin Teacher Standards with related knowledge, skills and dispositions. To receive a license to teach in Wisconsin, the candidate must complete an approved program and demonstrate proficient performance in the knowledge, skills, and dispositions under all of the following ten standards:

1. Teachers know the subjects they are teaching. The teacher understands the central concepts, tools of inquiry, and structures of the disciplines she or he teaches and can create learning experiences that make these aspects of subject matter meaningful for pupils.
2. Teachers know how children grow. The teacher understands how children with broad ranges of ability learn and provides instruction that supports their intellectual, social, and personal development.
3. Teachers understand that children learn differently. The teacher understands how pupils differ in their approaches to learning and the barriers that impede learning and can adapt instruction to meet the diverse needs of pupils, including those with disabilities and exceptionalities.
4. Teachers know how to teach. The teacher understands and uses a variety of instructional strategies, including the use of technology, to encourage children’s development of critical thinking, problem solving, and performance skills.
5. Teachers know how to manage a classroom. The teacher uses an understanding of individual and group motivation and behavior to create a learning environment that encourages positive social interaction, active engagement in learning, and self-motivation.
6. Teachers communicate well. The teacher uses effective verbal and nonverbal communication techniques as well as instructional media and technology to foster active inquiry, collaboration, and supportive interaction in the classroom.
7. Teachers are able to plan different kinds of lessons. The teacher organizes and plans systematic instruction based upon knowledge of subject matter, pupils, the community, and curriculum goals.
8. Teachers know how to test for student progress. The teacher understands and uses formal and informal assessment strategies to evaluate and ensure the continuous intellectual, social, and physical development of the pupil.
9. Teachers are able to evaluate themselves. The teacher is a reflective practitioner who continually evaluates the effects of his or her choices and actions on pupils, parents, professionals in the learning community and others and who actively seeks out opportunities to grow professionally.
10. Teachers are connected with other teachers and the community. The teacher fosters relationships with school colleagues, parents, and agencies in the larger community to support pupil learning and well-being and acts with integrity, fairness and in an ethical manner. These standards serve as objectives for all teacher education programs with adaptations appropriate to the respective licenses sought.

Assessment and Transitions

The Transition Step Assessment System is designed to track candidates’ pathways through the undergraduate teacher license degree programs in order to realize the conceptual framework and ensure key professional and legal DPI standards are met in the areas of teaching performance, subject matter, dispositional commitment, and level of academic accomplishment. To do this, various tools are used in order to assesses and monitor proficiency and adequacy. These can be divided into (I) formally set standards and criteria and (II) the program opportunities for candidate teachers to show their knowledge, skill and disposition.

Course sequence may vary slightly according to specific licensing programs. Students will take ED 210, ED 215 or ED 220 depending on their program.

Portfolio and Resources For Learning

As a candidate passes through the five stages of the assessment system, formal evidence of learning and accomplishment is documented in a portfolio. Since each stage represents developmental growth toward initial educator licensing, candidates should challenge themselves to show evidence with increasing indications of what they know and are able to do as a result of what they have learned through courses, field experiences, standardized tests, and other opportunities for professional growth they encounter. A review of a candidate's portfolio is required at each of the five stages of transition. Courses, field experiences, standardized tests, and other opportunities for professional growth they encounter are, thereby, resources for learning and accomplishment. While the ten Wisconsin Teacher Standards guide the systematic assessment of what a candidate knows and is able to do there are key areas of assessment that have varying influence on a student's preparation depending on the stage in the preparation program. The key areas are Communication Skills, General Education, Human Relations, Professional Dispositions, Content Knowledge, Pedagogical Knowledge, and Teaching Practice. Those all offer opportunities for learning and reflection and integration with the ten Wisconsin Teacher Standards. More specific information can be obtained by contacting the School of Education.

Licensing Sequences

Early Childhood: Special Education

This license enables students to teach infants and very young children with special educational needs from birth to age eight.

Early Childhood: Regular Education

For licensure in early childhood education, students complete either the Early Childhood: Special and Regular Education Major, or the Early Childhood Education minor and a major in Elementary Education.

Early Childhood-Middle Childhood: Regular Education

To teach children ages birth through eleven, students must complete the Elementary Education major with the Early Childhood minor.

Middle Childhood – Early Adolescence:

To teach children and youth ages six through thirteen, students must complete the Elementary Education major with a minor. The minor may be a licensing minor or a non-licensing minor.

Middle Childhood – Early Adolescence:

To teach children and youth ages six through thirteen in special education populations, students must complete a graduate program in cross-categorical special education. Undergraduate licensing programs are excellent foundations on which to build a graduate program in special education.

Early Adolescence – Adolescence:

To teach children and youth ages ten through 21 in special education populations, students must complete the graduate program in cross-categorical special education. Undergraduate licensing programs are excellent foundations on which to build a graduate program in special education.

Early Adolescence – Adolescence:

To teach at the early adolescence through adolescence level, ages ten through 21, students must complete a teaching major and a minor in Middle/Secondary Education. Teaching majors include:

- Biology Teaching
- Broad Field Science Teaching
- Broad Fields Social Studies: History Concentration with Teaching Minor
- Computer Science Education
- English Teaching
- Mathematics Teaching

Child Life Major

This major prepares students for the psychosocial care of children and youth in hospitals and other health care settings. The program provides a strong teaching and learning component together with a core of specialized child life courses. Satisfactory completion of the major provides access to the profession of Child Life. The program and degree prepare the candidate for an entry level position in the field of child life. To become a Certified Child Life Specialist (CCLS), one year of successful employment and the successful completion of the child life exam are required.

The rotation of child life courses is based on the semester of enrollment in the Child Life program. Please consult with an advisor in Child Life for the most current information.

Transition Steps:
Child Life student should have the following:
   • PRAXIS I
   • Admission to the Child Life program
   • Admission to Child Life internship
   • 100 hours of pre-internship practicum experiences
   • Exit GPA

Please consult with your academic advisor to learn the details about how you can satisfy your COR 3 requirement.

Title II Compliance Report

Section 207 of Title II of the Higher Education Act mandates that the United States Department of Education collect data on state assessments, other requirements, and standards for teacher certification and licensure, as well as data on the performance of teacher preparation programs. The law requires the Secretary to use these data in submitting an annual report on the quality of teacher preparation to the Congress. Data from institutions with teacher preparation programs are due to states annually for use by states in preparing annual report cards to the Secretary. The full report may be obtained through the Dean of the School of Education or the full report for the State of Wisconsin may be accessed at the following website:

www.title2.org/title2dr/CompleteReport.as
The School of Integrative Studies (SoIS) is home to many of Edgewood College’s interdisciplinary, experiential, and community-based academic programs. In all its programs, SoIS seeks to develop creative, intellectually-engaged, and ethical problem-solvers through inquiry and action for social justice and the public good. Considering issues from multiple perspectives, learning to thrive in cross-cultural contexts, and linking ideas and action to important issues facing our world today are among the experiences and skills that students can expect from SoIS programs.

SoIS offers a variety of programs aimed at providing relevant and rigorous academic experiences for students. Currently, SoIS offers majors/minors in the following areas:

- Environmental Studies (minor)
- Ethnic Studies (major and minor)
- Global Studies (minor)
- Latin American Studies (minor)
- Women’s and Gender Studies (minor)

Because some students are interested in academic areas for which the college does not have a major or minor, Edgewood College offers a process for students to design their own academic program. SoIS coordinates this process for students:

- Individualized Major (student-designed)
- Individualized Minor (student-designed)

The Individualized Major/Minor Program offers students the opportunity to create an academic program plan around their own academic interests and goals. Students use the Individualized Program to develop integrative majors or minors that Edgewood does not offer, or they use the program to add a specialized, integrative minor to a current major. Students interested in this opportunity should contact the Dean of the School of Integrative Studies for more information.

In addition to these minor and major options for students, a number of other SoIS programs exist that enrich students’ education. The COR Program (component of General Education), the Honors Program, Study Abroad, a number of civic leadership programs, the Writing Center, and institutional courses (IC) all represent pathways that students choose to deepen and personalize their college education.

Employers and experts agree – success in the future will require the abilities to integrate and synthesize ideas from different perspectives; to identify and clarify real problems and questions; and to engage with and appreciate differences among others. Majors, minors, and experiences in SoIS programs offer students numerous opportunities to develop and apply those abilities essential to meaningful personal and professional lives: critical thinking, ethical reasoning, problem-solving, interdisciplinary analysis, communication, reflective practice, and leadership and community engagement.

Coursework for Minor
A minimum of 20 credits is required, including:

1. Required core courses (10 credits):
   - ENVS/PHIL110 EPU Environmental Ethics
   - ENVS/BIO 250 EV Environmental Biology
   - ENVS/PS 352 EJ Environmental Politics

2. An additional 10 credits from the following courses, with at least 3 credits in the natural sciences.
   - ENVS 301 2 Roots and Shoots
   - ENVS 330 2EG Sustainability: Global-Local Connections
   - ENVS/BIO 206 EV Natural Communities of Wisconsin
   - ENVS/BIO 275 EV Dendrology
   - ENVS/BIO 333 E Ecological History of Civilization
   - ENVS/BIO 450 E Ecology
   - ENVS/ECON 325 Environmental Economics

   - ENVS/GEOS 206 EV Environmental Geology
   - ENVS/PS 201 E Debating the Earth
   - ENVS/PS 353 EJ Politics of Sprawl, Land Use and Transportation Policy
   - BIO/GEOS/ NATS 292 Excursions
   - ENG 250 CEX Wilderness & Literature of the American West

Additional elective courses from future or current course offerings, transfer credits from other institutions, or credit for independent study may be approved by the Environmental Studies Steering Committee for inclusion in the minor.

Service Activities
All students in the minor are required to participate in three campus or local service activities related to environmental studies. Service activities are approved by a student’s minor advisor.

Capstone Experience
The program’s core courses encourage interdisciplinary perspectives and approaches to problem solving. Toward the end of their program, usually in their final year, students integrate and apply their coursework in a capstone experience. Capstone experiences must be approved by the Environmental Studies Steering Committee and may be fulfilled as follows:

- COR III courses or projects with an environmental focus
- Senior seminar projects with an emphasis on environmental studies
- Capstone projects associated with independent research, field courses, or study abroad

Environmental Studies Program
Part of the School of Integrative Studies, the Environmental Studies program offers a minor that complements any of the majors on campus. Students in the program combine coursework from departments across the curriculum with involvement in the local and global community to gain a broad interdisciplinary perspective on environmental issues and the experience necessary to work toward a sustainable future. The minor prepares students for meaningful, collaborative work in areas such as environmental education, research, consulting, policy, writing, or activism. An individualized major in Environmental Studies is also available. Students who wish to pursue a minor or major in Environmental Studies should contact the Chair of the program.

The interdisciplinary Environmental Studies minor has three components: interdisciplinary coursework, service activities, and an integrative capstone experience.

Capstone experiences must be approved by the Environmental Studies Steering Committee and may be fulfilled as follows:

- COR III courses or projects with an environmental focus
- Senior seminar projects with an emphasis on environmental studies
- Capstone projects associated with independent research, field courses, or study abroad

Ethnic Studies

Ethnic Studies Program

Ethnic Studies at Edgewood College integrates multiple perspectives and disciplines to study the historical and contemporary experiences of African American, Latino, Asian and Pacific American, and Native American peoples and other historically marginalized racial and ethnic groups in the United States within a global and postcolonial context. Our curriculum promotes critical thinking, creative analysis, and civic engagement by examining issues of race and ethnicity as they intersect with class, gender, sexuality, religion, and nation. Combining academic excellence with a commitment to social justice, our interdisciplinary undergraduate major and minor prepare students for ethical leadership and personal fulfillment in an increasingly multicultural, transnational, and globalized society.

The program offers a number of courses that fulfill both Multicultural Perspectives and many other General Education requirements. Ethnic Studies courses also complement many majors in the humanities, social sciences, the arts, and education, such as English, History, Religious Studies, Psychology, Sociology, Art, Communication Studies, and various Education or Teaching majors. It is often possible to pair an Ethnic Studies major with a more traditional major represented in the program.

A background in ethnic studies provides a strong foundation for a career in the fields of diversity and inclusion, education, health care services, business, advertising and marketing, advocacy, journalism, community organizing, social sciences, psychology, counseling, and a wide variety of civil service positions in all levels of government, as well as graduate study in a number of disciplines.

The program is administered by the Center for Multicultural Education in the School of Integrative Studies.

The goals of the program are for students to:

- Develop knowledge and understanding of the historically marginalized racial and ethnic groups in the U.S. in their historical and cultural contexts, and their contributions to society
- Articulate the ways in which racial categories and racialized experiences shape U.S. social life
- Critically examine the intersections of race and ethnicity with class, gender, sexuality, religion, and nation in identity constructions
- Understand and apply different conceptual approaches to race and ethnicity, including historical, literary, cultural, sociological, and others
- Integrate academic inquiry and civic engagement, and reflect on one's own role in building just, compassionate communities
- Develop multicultural competence for lifelong learning.

GLOBAL STUDIES

Global Studies Program
The Global Studies Minor is an interdisciplinary program that analyzes global issues and cultures, societies, histories, and political and economic systems in a comparative, global context. It is designed to enhance students’ understanding of diverse cultures, global issues, and other languages. It seeks to prepare students to live in and contribute to the complex, interconnected world of the 21st century by providing them with the knowledge, skills, and attitudes to understand and serve others. To meet this objective, the minor will integrate language competency and global/intercultural studies to give students the tools they need to become engaged citizens in the local/national/global communities they enter after graduation. This minor adds an international perspective to any major.

Latin American Studies Minor
The Latin American Studies Minor offers students the opportunity for an interdisciplinary study of the social, cultural, political, and economic traditions and contemporary realities of Latin American countries and peoples. It draws on faculty expertise from disciplines like art, biology, economics, nursing, political science, religious studies, music, sociology, and Spanish language and culture. Students will develop broad knowledge through courses offered in several disciplines or programs, as well as language training. The minor is appropriate for students in any major who want a complementary concentration in the region.

Requirements for Minor
Required Courses (8 credits):
- GS 111 G Introduction to Latin American Studies

Intermediate Spanish/Portuguese Language 4 credits
(Spanish 202 GL Fourth Semester Spanish or show equivalent proficiency. Since Edgewood doesn’t offer Portuguese, students must transfer in a fourth semester college course or show equivalent proficiency; Spanish majors/minors need one 300-level language class)

Interdisciplinary Electives:
A minimum of 3 courses (12 credits minimum*) chosen from the following:
- ART 352/MUS 352 2DG Mexican and Mexican-American Art; Music & Culture: The Development of Ethnic Identities

Women’s and Gender Studies Program

The Women’s and Gender Studies Program is administered in the School of Integrative Studies. Women’s and Gender Studies is an interdisciplinary program developed to study the history, experiences, and contributions of women to various fields of learning, feminist theoretical perspectives, and the critical role of gender in human life. The Women’s and Gender Studies program is both interdisciplinary and integrative, engaging students, faculty, and staff through coursework, community-based learning, and campus-wide programming. Each March, the program offers a range of programming and activities in celebration of Women’s History Month. In addition, the Women’s and Gender Studies Program promotes various year-round co-curricular initiatives, sometimes in conjunction with other departments and programs. Women’s and Gender Studies offers a minor consisting of designated courses in several departments and within the program. The program enables students to demonstrate knowledge of:

1. Roles, contributions, experiences, and perspectives of diverse women.
2. Theories of gender and ways that gender shapes human experience.
3. Ways in which race, class, ethnicity, sexual orientation, and other social positions affect how gender is experienced.

Women’s and Gender Studies Minor

Twenty credits, to include:

1. WS 201 or WS 202 or WS 203 or WS 204 Q Introduction to Women’s and Gender Studies
2. WS 480 GQ Senior Seminar
3. Twelve additional credits selected in consultation with an advisor.

Students earning the minor must earn a minimum of six credits in the Women’s and Gender Studies program at Edgewood College.
The School of Nursing offers a major leading to the BS degree. There are 128 credits required for graduation, of which 49 are in the Nursing major. The program is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) and approved by the Wisconsin Board of Nursing.

Mission
The School of Nursing reflects the Mission Statement of Edgewood College by locating professional nursing within the context of a Catholic, liberal arts college with a Dominican heritage. The mission of the College is to develop intellectual competence and a sense of responsibility for service and to further personal development. Nursing is a profession built on knowledge from nursing theory, research and practice, the humanities, and the natural and behavioral sciences. Nursing values the systematic and purposeful application of the nursing process to promote the optimal health of clients. Caring is essential to professional nursing practice and includes appreciation of human diversity and respect for the rights of others. Students are unique individuals who enter nursing with diverse characteristics and experiences. It is the responsibility of the student to actively pursue knowledge and experience and to develop intellectual curiosity with a spirit of inquiry as a basis for lifelong learning. The faculty develops, implements and evaluates the curriculum to provide a broad and rich foundation for nursing practice. Faculty foster the professional development of students by offering learning challenges, promoting opportunities to think critically and creatively and exhibiting collegiality in the teaching-learning relationship. Teaching and learning is a dynamic and interactive process designed to integrate knowledge and research with professional nursing practice. Teaching and learning are facilitated when both students and faculty are actively engaged in the process. The nursing graduates of Edgewood College are knowledgeable, accountable, responsible, ethical and culturally sensitive as they demonstrate purposeful application of the nursing process to promote the optimal health of clients. Caring is essential to professional nursing practice and includes appreciation of human diversity and respect for the rights of others.

Prerequisites for Admission
Admission to the nursing program requires a cumulative GPA of at least 2.75 in all courses that satisfy Edgewood College degree requirements and at least a 2.75 GPA in all required science and math courses. Required science and math courses must have been taken within 5 years of admission to the first nursing course for credit in the nursing major, unless they were part of a degree earned within the past 5 years. A grade of C or better is necessary in each required science and math course. Once admitted into the School of Nursing, students will be required to maintain a cumulative GPA of 2.5 in all nursing courses and earn no lower than a C in any nursing course to progress in the major.

Students are admitted to the nursing program in both Fall and Spring semesters. Students hoping to begin the program for the Spring Semester must complete their application between November 15 and February 1. Candidates for admission are required to submit applications through the Nursing Centralized Application Service (NursingCAS) at http://nursingcas.org/. Students must submit all official transcripts and reference information to NursingCAS directly.

Applications are available in the School of Nursing or online. Students must submit all official transcripts and reference information to NursingCAS directly. Students who need to complete all prerequisites for the nursing program must have successfully completed a certified nursing assistant (CNA) course and have passed the certification examination. Students must have completed the course within the past 2 years or have recent experience as a CNA.

Admission to the nursing program is a two step process.

1. Students are first admitted to the College as either a “Nursing” or “Nursing Interest” major. They then apply for full admission to the nursing program following the completion of certain prerequisite courses. Admission to the College does not imply or guarantee admission to the nursing program. The Nursing Admission Committee will review student records after applications are received. The committee will admit the most qualified students based on cumulative GPA, science/math GPA, previous academic records, credits completed at Edgewood College and the strength of the written statements. Students may later be disqualified from the program if their cumulative or science/math GPA drops below the required minimum in the semester before admission.

2. Admission to the program is competitive; even students who meet the minimum requirements may not be admitted. Because of enrollment limits in the major, the School of Nursing may deny admission to qualified students.

Applicants who are not admitted may reapply in a subsequent semester or pursue a major in another field of study. Students who have applied in the past will be given no special consideration and their records will be reviewed as a member of the current applicant pool. Individuals who reapply must be currently enrolled at Edgewood College.

Admission to Nursing for Students Admitted as Freshman

Step One
Students who need to complete all prerequisites for the nursing program will be admitted to the College as a nursing major if they meet the following criteria until a pre-selected number of openings are filled:

- High school math through Algebra II with grade of C or better
- ACT scores of 18 or better in the following subcategories: English and Science Reasoning
- ACT scores of 19 or better in the Math subcategory (or placement into Math 101, 121, 114A, or 231 through the Edgewood College Math Placement Test)
- High School GPA of at least 3.0

Step Two
Students who are admitted as freshman nursing majors will be given priority for full admission to the nursing program if they meet the following criteria:

- Maintain at least a 2.75 GPA in college courses.
- Maintain at least a 2.75 GPA in required science and math courses. A minimum grade of C is required in all requisite math and science courses.
- Complete certified nursing assistant requirements.
- Apply for full admission to the nursing program the semester before they are eligible to begin nursing studies.

Students are admitted to the nursing program in both Fall and Spring semesters. Students hoping to begin the program for the Spring Semester must complete their application between August 15 and October 1. Students hoping to begin the program for the Fall Semester must complete their application between August 15 and October 1. Students who do not meet the above criteria are admitted to the College as “Nursing interest” or undecided majors and may apply for admission to the nursing program after meeting course and GPA eligibility requirements. There is no guarantee of admission to the nursing program if no openings are available.

Admission to Nursing for Transfer Students

Step One
New transfer students who need to complete prerequisites for the nursing program will be admitted to Edgewood College as nursing majors if they have earned a cumulative GPA of 2.75 or higher in previously completed college-level coursework. Students who do not meet this criterion will be admitted to the College as “nursing interest” students.
Step Two
Apply for full admission to the nursing program the semester before they are eligible to begin nursing studies. Students are admitted to the nursing program in both Fall and Spring semesters. Students hoping to begin the program for the Spring Semester must complete their application between August 15 and October 1. Students hoping to begin the program for the Fall Semester must complete their application between November 15 and February 1. Candidates for admission are required to submit applications through the Nursing Centralized Application Service (NursingCAS) at http://nursingcas.org/. Students must submit all official transcripts and reference information to NursingCAS directly.

Progression in the Major
In order to progress in the nursing major, students must maintain an academic cumulative GPA of 2.5, a cumulative GPA of 2.5 in all nursing courses, and a cumulative GPA of 2.5 in the required science and math courses. A grade of "C" or better is required in each nursing, math and science course. A grade of Pass in each clinical course is required for progression into the next nursing course. If these requirements are not met, the student is not eligible to progress in the nursing major.

Current CPR certification, physical exam, and health data are required before entering any clinical course. Students are responsible for their own transportation to clinical sites. See the Nursing Student Handbook for specific health requirements.

Assessment
The School of Nursing participates in an assessment process that compares Edgewood College nursing students with other nursing students across the country using a standardized exam. The computerized examinations, completed at regular intervals throughout the curriculum, provide benchmarks for student performance in critical thinking, nursing process, and therapeutic communication. The results are useful in preparing students to take the national licensing examination after graduation. An additional fee for the assessments is added to the tuition bill for each nursing theory course. Student abilities affecting their progression in the nursing major.

Policies for Repeating Courses
In accordance with college policy, a student may choose to repeat a course taken at Edgewood College to improve a poor or failing grade. Both earned grades are included in the GPA computation by the College and both appear on the student's transcript. Repeated courses are counted only once in total credits earned.

If a nursing or "nursing interest" student repeats a required science or math course, the most recent grade will be used to compute the science/math GPA for entrance or progression in the nursing major. A cumulative GPA of 2.75 and 2.75 GPA in required science and math courses are required for admission. A 2.5 in both GPA categories is required for progression in the nursing major.

In accordance with college policy, if a student repeats a course at Edgewood College that was previously accepted for credit at the time of transfer, the transferred credits are removed from the student's record. The repeated course grade is used to compute the GPA for the nursing major. A course required for the nursing major may be repeated only once for GPA calculation in the nursing GPA. Individuals may appeal to the School of Nursing any decisions affecting their progression in the nursing major.

Goals for the Major
The graduate will:
- Establish therapeutic relationships with clients that demonstrate caring.
- Demonstrate critical thinking skills and practices to promote, maintain and restore health.
- Synthesize knowledge from nursing theory, research and practice, the humanities and the natural and behavioral sciences to provide a basis for professional nursing practice.
- Respond to environmental factors that influence the health of individuals, families and communities.
- Collaborate with clients and colleagues in the process of identifying and organizing resources for the effective provision of health care.
- Demonstrate professional behaviors that reflect accountability and commitment in nursing practice.

PROFESSIONAL STUDIES
The School of Graduate and Professional Studies (GPS) strives to prepare students for a life of responsible service to society in their chosen professions. The programs offered through the School of GPS nurture leaders in the professions within an intellectual environment that encourages ethical and spiritual reflection as well as professional and technical growth. Our graduate programming and undergraduate accelerated degree options are designed to provide professionals with the practical skills needed for career transitions and leadership growth.

The Deming Way Campus is an adult-friendly facility located on Madison’s west side and serves as the primary location for the School of Graduate and Professional Studies. The adult accelerated undergraduate programs are housed at this location, as are a number of graduate courses in Business, Education, and Nursing.

Flexible scheduling is a hallmark of the programs offered in the School of Graduate and Professional Studies. Our courses are offered on evenings and weekends to accommodate the busy schedules of working adults. Small class sizes promote a sense of community and facilitate individualized instruction.

Accelerated Bachelors Degree Completion Program
The School of GPS offers top-quality accelerated degree programs and certificates designed for working adults. Courses are taught by an experienced and energetic faculty who blend fundamental principles with practical workplace experience. They are experts in their fields and are recognized for their ability to create classroom environments that meet the unique needs of adult learners. Skills learned in the classroom can immediately be put to use in the professional environment.

ANTH – ART

Anthropology (ANTH)

ANTH 222 GI INTRO TO CULTURAL ANTHROPOLOGY 4 cr
This course provides an introduction to the nature and diversity of human society and culture through an examination of specific cross-cultural contexts. It includes a conservative study of social, political and economic organization, patterns of religious and aesthetic orientations, gender issues, relations with the natural environment, as well as the process of sociocultural persistence and change. Special consideration will be given to the circumstances faced by contemporary small-scale societies. Cross-listed with ETHS 222.
Prerequisites: None.

ANTH 310 SELECTED TOPICS IN ANTHROPOLOGY 4 cr
A course which will examine vital areas of contemporary concern in anthropology. The topic or problem of the course changes each semester.
Prerequisites: None.

ANTH 346 MYTH AND SHAMANISM 4 cr
A cross-cultural approach to the study of belief systems with a focus on the use of myth and the practice of shamanism. Emphasis will be placed on hunter-gatherer and horticultural experiences, but consideration will also be given to the use of myth and shamanism in post-industrial societies.
Prerequisites: None.

ANTH 366 ANTHROPOLOGY OF SEX AND GENDER 4 cr
An exploration of cultural variation in the categorization of persons by sex and the operation of gender in social life, especially in small-scale societies. Special consideration will be given to women's position in non-Western societies.
Prerequisites: None.

ANTH 379 INDEPENDENT STUDY - ANTHROPOLOGY VAR cr
Topics and credits arranged.
Prerequisites: Consent of instructor.

ANTH 380 SEMINAR IN ANTHROPOLOGY VAR cr
An examination of selected problems or issues. The seminar is frequently used in conjunction with courses in the sequence on major social institutions to provide an opportunity for the student to examine an area of particular interest within a seminar format.
Prerequisites: None.

ANTH 479 INDEPENDENT STUDY - ANTHROPOLOGY VAR cr

Prerequisites: Consent of instructor.

ANTH 480 SEMINAR IN ANTHROPOLOGY VAR cr
An examination of selected problems or issues. The seminar is frequently used in conjunction with courses in the sequence on major social institutions to provide an opportunity for the student to examine an area of particular interest within a seminar format.
Prerequisites: None.

Art (ART)

ART 101 1A ART MATTERS 4 cr
This course explores what it means to be an artist in our contemporary world. What do artists do, and for whom? In this course we will focus on meanings of creativity and art in diverse cultural contexts; connections between art and life; art as an expression of individual and collective values, beliefs, and identities; relationships between artists and their audiences; and ways that artists strive to build a more complex and compassionate world. In addition, as we consider ways of understanding the visual language of artistic expression, students will be able to apply their learning to the expression of their own identities, values, and beliefs through art. Along with our classroom activities, we will experience Madison's art scene as we reflect upon our central question: does art matter?
Prerequisites: None. $30 course fee.

ART 102 B WATERCOLOR 3 cr
Watercolor introduces students to the basic traditional watercolor painting techniques as well as exploration into some more non-traditional methods. Once painting techniques are mastered, themes and concepts will require research into aesthetics and imagery of other cultures of the world. This research will serve as inspiration for student's own work. Previous experience in drawing is strongly recommended.
Prerequisites: None. $30 course fee.

ART 106 B ART STRUCTURE 3 cr
Art structure is a studio introduction to the visual arts for non-art majors and minors. Students explore a wide variety of media and styles that are then added to creating works of art that reflect an aesthetic awareness of various cultures around the world.
Prerequisites: None. $30 course fee.

ART 107 B DIGITAL PHOTO - NON ART MAJORS 3 cr
A beginning course in digital photography with emphasis on technical operation of the camera, along with the connection to emerging software technologies. Both black and white and color photography will be printed during the class. Each student must have a digital camera.
Prerequisites: None. $35 course fee.

ART 108 B PHOTOGRAPHY - NON ART MAJORS 3 cr
Fundamentals of darkroom photography, beginning with the camera and continuing with basic technical skills in developing and printing of black and white film. Each student must have a 35mm single lens reflex camera.
Prerequisites: None. $35 course fee.

ART 114 B DRAWING - NON ART MAJORS 3 cr
Drawing for non-art majors is an exploration of varied drawing techniques and media. Students are taught to ‘see’ as an artist sees and express oneself effectively. Through drawing and research into artistic traditions of other world cultures students will cultivate imagery that reflects their personal style.
Prerequisites: None. $30 course fee.

ART 117 B CERAMICS FOR NON ART MAJORS 3 cr
An introduction to ceramics for non-art majors. This course involves basic hand building, throwing and glazing techniques. Technical investigation of clay, glaze chemistry and kiln firing concepts will be presented throughout the course.
Prerequisites: None. $40 course fee.

ART 120 B VIDEO ART 3 cr
Introduction to the video camera as a creative tool. Emphasis will be on video film-making, based on assignments, self-direction, and group critique. Students will also learn editing strategies. (F/S)
Prerequisites: None. $35 course fee.

ART 126 AG ART Of THE WESTERN WORLD 4 cr
This course provides an introduction to the art of the Western World, with emphasis on ways that art and architecture is related to the historical, social, and cultural contexts in which it was created. We consider such questions as: How do architectural and figurative traditions established in ancient Near Eastern, Egyptian, Asian, and Roman cultures inform the development of the arts of the Middle Ages, Renaissance, Baroque, Neo-Classical, Romanticist, and Realist eras in Western Europe? What role does the patron and audience play in the stylistic developments initiated in these various cultures? Readings, class discussion, group inquiry projects, and other written and oral assignments will emphasize the development of reflective, creative, and critical approaches to the study of these visual arts traditions.
Prerequisites: None.

ART 151 1 DIGITAL ART & DESIGN - MAJORS 3 cr
Students use computers and a mix of industry standard art and design applications to create graphic design and digital art projects.
Prerequisites: High school level studio art. $35 course fee.

ART 152 1 DIGITAL ART & DESIGN - NON MAJORS 3 cr
Students use computers and a mix of industry standard art and design applications to create graphic design and digital art projects.
Prerequisites: None. $35 course fee.

ART 200 B DRAWING I 3 cr
This course is an exploration of varied techniques, media and subject matter to develop the ability to ‘see’ and express oneself effectively through drawing.
Prerequisites: For art majors and art minors only. $30 course fee.
ART 214 DRAWING II
This course will focus on composition and creativity in image-making. Through drawing and research into the contemporary artistic movements that have shaped contemporary art, students will create imagery that reflects their personal style.

Prerequisites: None. $30 course fee.

ART 216 THREE-DIMENSIONAL DESIGN
This course introduces students to the principles and practices of modern and contemporary art, emphasizing the creative process and the development of an individual style.

Prerequisites: None. $30 course fee.

ART 217 STUDIO PORTRAINTURE
This course focuses on the techniques and materials used in the creation of portraits and other types of three-dimensional studio art.

Prerequisites: ART 216. $35 course fee.

ART 219 LITHOGRAPHY

ART 220 TYPOGRAPHY
This course introduces students to the principles of typography, including the history of type design and the role of typography in contemporary art.

Prerequisites: ART 210 or consent of the instructor. $50 course fee.

ART 221 DRAWING IN NATURE
This course is designed to help students explore their personal connection to the natural world through drawing.

ART 224 DRAWING IN NATURE
This course will explore the relationship between art and nature, focusing on the use of drawing as a means of expressing the beauty and diversity of the natural world.

Prerequisites: ART 211 or consent of the instructor. $50 course fee.

ART 220 TYPOGRAPHY
This course is an introduction to the use of typography as a means of expression in contemporary art, focusing on the history and principles of type design.

Prerequisites: ART 210 or consent of the instructor. $50 course fee.

ART 224 DRAWING IN NATURE
This course will explore the relationship between art and nature, focusing on the use of drawing as a means of expressing the beauty and diversity of the natural world.

Prerequisites: ART 211 or consent of the instructor. $30 course fee.
ART 308 ETCHING 3 cr
Intaglio techniques, basic procedures used to create etching and drypoint on metal plates; the origins and development of intaglio prints. (S)
Prerequisites: ART 200F3, 202, or consent of instructor.
$50 course fee.

ART 310 LAYOUT DESIGN 3 cr
A continuation of ART 210, focused on developing skills in page layout and design. (F)
Prerequisites: ART 210 or consent of instructor.
$50 course fee.

ART 311 FIGURE DRAWING 3 cr
Develops mastery in drawing the human figure in a variety of media and techniques. (S)
Prerequisites: ART 200F3, 202, or consent of instructor.

ART 360 DIGITAL FINE ART 3 cr
An exploration of the computer as a fine art tool for the production of limited edition prints. Contemporary digital artists and trends will be covered.
Prerequisites: ART 151A or consent of instructor. $50 course fee.

ART 362 ADX NATIVE AMERICAN ART 4 cr
This course provides an introduction to North American Indian art and to the broader questions underlying its study. Beginning with the question “What is Native American art?” we will explore what Indians and non-Indians in the past have viewed Native American art, and how this art is seen today. As we look at art from various regions of what is now the United States, we will look at pre-Columbian art and Native American art, the changes that came about with the arrival of Europeans to this continent, and post-contact Native American art, with particular consideration of the impacts on this art of encounters between Indian and non-Indian peoples. Finally, we will examine the development of contemporary Native American art, considering the intersections of Indian and non-Indian arts and cultures that have taken place since the turn of the 20th century. Throughout this course we will address issues of art historical approach and method raised by the study of encounters among diverse peoples in North America, and the dynamics of continuity and change in American Indian art. We will also consider the role of art in contemporary society and the changing place of Native American art in the contemporary art world. Students will be expected to write informal responses to issues raised in this class, reflections on course readings, films, and works of art considered in class, and a substantive formal research paper. Cross-listed with ETHS 362 ADX.
Prerequisites: ENG 110 or W cornerstone.

ART 364 SELECTED TOPICS IN ART HISTORY 4 cr
Thematic surveys of art history, as well as particular cultural traditions or periods. May be repeated for credit; course topics will vary.
Prerequisites: None.

ART 365 PAINTING II 3 cr
This course is a continuation of ART 205 Painting I with added emphasis on individual development and experimental use in the medium of water soluble oil or acrylic painting.
Prerequisites: ART 205 or consent of instructor.
$30 course fee.

ART 366 ADVANCED RELIEF PRINTMAKING 3 cr
Research in advanced relief printmaking techniques with emphasis on development of personal concepts and expression. (F)
Prerequisites: ART 206 or consent of instructor.
$50 course fee.

ART 367 SCULPTURE 4 cr
This course is a continuation of ART 216 Sculpture I with added emphasis on individual development and experimental use in the medium of clay or other materials.
Prerequisites: ART 216 or consent of instructor.
$30 course fee.

ART 368 GRAPHIC DESIGN II 3 cr
This course is a continuation of ART 218 Graphic Design I with added emphasis on individual development and experimental use in the medium of graphic design software.
Prerequisites: ART 218 or consent of instructor.
$30 course fee.
ART 366 2AE ECO-DESIGN FOR EVERYONE 4 cr
This course examines sustainable design practice and theory from a critical and practical viewpoint. Sustainable design has been championed by politicians as a solution for renewing America. At the core of this discussion is sustainable architecture and the implementation of design strategies which in turn limit energy consumption. Students will engage with Madison area designers and architects, in particular, the Madison Museum of Contemporary Art “Design MOCAs” exhibition.
Prerequisites: COR 1 or equivalent; open to students in their second or third year, or sophomore and above transfers.

ART 378 EXTENDED STUDIO 1 cr
Extended studio may be used in combination with any studio class. The student is responsible for an additional two hours per week of original work beyond that required for the studio class. May be used more than once in a semester. (F/S)
Prerequisites: Consent of instructor.

ART 379 INDEPENDENT STUDY - ART VAR cr
Independent work undertaken individually by qualified students under the direction of an art instructor. (F/S)
Prerequisites: Consent of instructor.

ART 392 2E COMMUNITY ART PRACTICUM 3 cr
This course explores how studio artists, art therapists, art historians, and art educators join with community partners to create art programs that strengthen and nurture communities. Particular emphasis is placed upon the role of art and artists as they participate in and act upon the community as leaders from an environmental perspective. Students will be challenged to critically examine their understandings of community from an ecosystems perspective as well as how they form, attend to, and act as stewards in their relationship with the natural world as artists. Students will work individually or in pairs to develop and implement a community-based art project which integrates community art goals with the principles of an environmental studies approach. As a class, students will prepare and sponsor an on-campus art workshop for a selected community partner. Students will also explore course topics and objectives selected to provide an understanding of the social, economic, political, geographic, and other factors that influence access to and shape community beliefs, practices and values in art programming.
Prerequisites: COR 1 or equivalent; open to students in their second or third year, or sophomore and above transfers. and a major/minor in the Art department, or permission.

ART 405 EXPLAINING PAINTING MEDIA 3 cr
This course contains advanced painting with an emphasis on figurative painting; thematic painting; and exploration of painting media such as fresco, encaustic, egg tempera, casein and alkyls.
Prerequisites: ART 205 or consent of instructor. $30 course fee.

ART 408 ADVANCED ETCHING 3 cr
This course focuses on intaglio techniques: color printing, contemporary methods.
(S)
Prerequisites: ART 308 or consent of instructor. $50 course fee.

ART 410 FIGURE AND LANDSCAPE PAINTING 3 cr
Advanced painting with an emphasis on figurative, series and plein air painting. Students should expect to purchase approximately $100-150 of painting supplies. The Art Department will provide French easels for plein air painting.
Prerequisites: ART 205 or consent of the instructor. $30 course fee.

ART 450 DESIGN CONCEPT DEVELOPMENT 3 cr
A continuation of ART 310, focused on graphic design concept and strategy development. (F)
Prerequisites: ART 220 and ART 310. $50 course fee.

ART 455 TOPICS IN GRAPHIC DESIGN 3 cr
A course which focuses on specific and contemporary issues and trends in graphic design. May be repeated; topics will vary.
Prerequisites: ART 210.

ART 460 MOTION GRAPHICS 3 cr
An introduction to basic animation principles and motion graphics. Using Adobe Flash and After Effects, students will design and produce type and graphic object animations for the web and broadcast mediums. (F)
Prerequisites: ART 210 and 220 or consent of the instructor.

ART 462 ART THERAPY SEMINAR 1 cr
This course will focus on professional development and career planning and about art therapists and art therapy. This course includes a group discussion, a weekly two-hour class with required reading, research and oral and written assignments related to their internship and the profession of art therapy.
Prerequisites: COR 2, ENG 110 or W cornerstone, ART 240, 342, 344, and 345.
$50 course fee.

ART 475 WEB DESIGN II 4 cr
A continuation of Web Design with an emphasis on advanced page layout, HTML, and CSS. Site development for mobile and hand held devices will be introduced.
Prerequisites: ART 475 or consent of instructor. $50 course fee.

ART 478 EXTENDED STUDIO 1 cr
Extended studio may be used in combination with any studio class. The student is responsible for an additional two hours per week of original work beyond that required for the studio class. May be used more than once in a semester. (F/S)
Prerequisites: Consent of instructor.

ART 479 INDEPENDENT STUDY - ART VAR cr
Advanced independent work undertaken individually by qualified students under the direction of an art instructor. (F/S)
Prerequisites: Consent of instructor.

ART 480 PORTFOLIO DEVELOPMENT 3 cr
Students work to develop professional graphic design portfolios through career-tailored projects as well as peer and instructor feedback.
Prerequisites: ART 450. $50 course fee.

ART 490 ART INTERNSHIP VAR cr
Work experience related to major.
Prerequisites: Junior or senior status in the major; consent of instructor.

ART 491 GRAPHIC DESIGN INTERNSHIP VAR cr
Student completes professional graphic design as an intern. Internship may be paid or unpaid. 1 credit for every 5 hours worked during the course of a semester. (F/S)
Prerequisites: ART 310 or consent of the instructor.

ART 492 3X ART THERAPY INTERNSHIP 4 cr
This senior, capstone course for the Art Therapy major integrates knowledge, skills and experiences from prior coursework and practicums with the particular needs of the student’s chosen community partner setting. Through extended, hands-on application of classroom content and individualized on-the-job training and participation in the weekly seminar, students will develop increased understanding of the role of art therapy, art therapists, and themselves as art therapy students in building a more just and compassionate world. Placements are tailored to each student’s individual interests, skills and goals. Students are required to work 10 hours a week for 15 weeks at an approved site, arranged by student and the art therapy professor prior to the beginning of the semester. Students also attend a weekly two-hour class with required reading, research and oral and written assignments related to their internship and the profession of art therapy.
Prerequisites: COR 2, ENG 110 or W cornerstone, ART 240, 342, 344, and 345.
$50 course fee.

ART 495 3 GRAPHIC DESIGN INTERNSHIP SEMINAR 4 cr
The internship seminar will interview with a variety of graphic design companies in order to place into a graphic design internship position for 10 hours per week throughout the semester. The seminar component offers an overview of professional organizations and specializations, and addresses specific issues including ethics and copyright law; responsibility to client, public and industry; the importance of giving back to the community; and the technical skills required in order to be successful professionals. Students will also develop action plans for personal growth, professional development, and networking opportunities based on the following questions: Who am I and who can I become? What are the needs and opportunities of the world? What is my role in building a more just and compassionate world? (F/S)
Prerequisites: COR 2, ART 310, and Junior standing. $30 course fee.
BIO 151 ESU GENERAL BIOLOGY: CELL BIOLOGY & ECOLOGY 4 cr
The first of a two-semester sequence exploring basic biological concepts organized around the theme of life's flow. Concepts include the nature of science, ecology, cellular biology, levels of organization, and energy capture and transfer within cells and communities. Current world challenges, events, and issues associated with the biological topics addressed will be discussed. Lecture, discussion and laboratory.
(FT/FS)
Prerequisites: Placement into ENG 110; placement into MATH 101, Math 114A or higher is required; completion of or concurrent enrollment in MATH 101, Math 114A, or equivalent is recommended; students cannot receive credit for both BIO 151 and BIO 153 or for both BIO 151 and BIO 181.

BIO 181 ESU HONORS GENERAL BIOLOGY: CELL BIOLOGY & ECOLOGY 4 cr
Honors General Biology: Cell Biology & Ecology is the first semester of a two-semester biology sequence. Concepts include the nature of cell biology, cell energy capture and transfer, and ecology. Completion of this course will enable students to better understand how science works. The course is grounded in the philosophy and process of scientific inquiry and highlights historical events that have shaped past and current biological thought and practice. The biological problems and issues that challenge us today will be discussed. In that context, the course will examine: stem cell research, climate change, human population growth, and the basic principles of sustainability.
The course includes lectures, discussions, field trips, and laboratory experiences.
(FT/FS)
Prerequisites: Placement into ENG 110; placement into MATH 101, Math 114A or higher is required; completion of MATH 101, Math 114A, or equivalent is recommended; students cannot receive credit for both BIO 151 and BIO 153 or for both BIO 151 and BIO 181.

BIO 182 INFORMATION FLOW IN LIVING SYSTEMS - HONORS 4 cr
Honors Biology: Information Flow in Living Systems is the second semester in the honors biology sequence. It explores the development, concepts, and application of our current understanding of genetics and evolution. Following completion of this course, students will better understand how science works, how DNA enables inheritance and controls the activities of cells and organisms, how species change over time, and how biology as a discipline plays a significant role in our lives. The course includes: lectures, discussions, and laboratory experiences that are tightly linked as well as discussion of relevant current biological events and exploration of the history of biological thought.
(FT/FS)
Prerequisites: Successful completion (CD or higher) of BIO 151 or BIO 181; successful completion of an initial math cornerstone course (M tag) or placement into Math 114B, Math 231, or higher; students cannot receive credit for both BIO 152 and BIO 155 or for both BIO 152 and BIO 182.

BIO 155 SU HUMAN CELL BIOLOGY & GENETICS 4 cr
This is a one-semester exploration of the biological chemistry of the human cell organized around the unifying theme of the relationship of cellular molecules to the functional biology of a cell. Topics include the nature of science, biochemistry of water, proteins, lipids, carbohydrates, and nucleic acids; cellular structures, energy transformations in the cell, mitochondria, meiosis, relationship between genotype and phenotype, transmission genetics and cancer. The material is covered in a combination of lecture, discussion and laboratory. A semester long project in the laboratory will be used to allow students to engage in scientific inquiry. This course is the second semester of the chemistry-biology sequence for Nursing majors.
Prerequisites: Placement into ENG 110; completion of CHEM 110 or CHEM 120; placement into MATH 101, Math 114A or higher is required; completion of or concurrent enrollment in MATH 101, Math 114A, or equivalent is recommended; students cannot receive credit for both BIO 155 and any of the following: BIO 151, BIO 152, BIO 181, or BIO 182.

BIO 210 ANATOMY & PHYSIOLOGY I 4 cr
This course is the study of structure and function of the cells, tissues, skin, skeletal, muscular, and nervous systems of the human body. It has three lectures and one two-hour lab per week.
Prerequisites: None.

BIO 211 ANATOMY & PHYSIOLOGY II 4 cr
This course is the study of structure and function of the endocrine, digestive, respiratory, cardiovascular, lymphatic, urinary, and reproductive systems of the human body. It has three lectures and one two-hour lab per week.
Prerequisites: Successful completion (CD or higher) of BIO 210; consent of instructor.

BIO 220 V INTRO HUMAN BIOMECHANICS 3 cr
Biomechanics is a field which uses mechanical analyses to investigate biological problems. Biomechanics involves combining what we know about the anatomy and physiology of the body, and physics to investigate problems. It is an increasingly popular field of study, as it has applications in health, prosthetic design, ergonomics, athletics, and computer gaming. Students who complete this course will study the methods that are currently used in investigating human biomechanical problems. The course will cover the relevant biomechanics of joint movement and the current scientific literature for students currently doing undergraduate research. It includes discussions of scientific ethics, problem solving, experimental design, biostatistics, written and oral presentation, and the current biological literature for students currently doing independent research.
Prerequisites: Successful completion (CD or higher) of BIO 210; consent of instructor.

BIO 252 INTRODUCTION TO BIOLOGY RESEARCH II 3 cr
This is an optional second semester of our introduction to the scientific process, which provides a continuing framework for undergraduate research. Students discuss strategies for reading and writing scientific articles, experiments, and practice experimental design and biostatistics. The work of the class on these

BIO 208 NUTRITION 2 cr
Prerequisites: Successful completion (CD or higher) of BIO 151, completion of or enrollment in BIO 152, ENG 110 or W cornerstone.

BIO 275 DENDROLOGY 2 cr
Prerequisites: Successful completion (CD or higher) of BIO 210; consent of instructor.

BIO 292 BIOLOGY EXCURSIONS 2 cr
Prerequisites: None.

BIO 312 MICROBIOLOGY 4 cr
Prerequisites: Successful completion (CD or higher) of CHEM 111 or CHEM 121 or BIO 155 or BIOL252 or BIOL253 or consent of the instructor.

BIO 333 ECOLOGICAL HISTORY OF CIVILIZATION 3 cr
Prerequisites: Successful completion (CD or higher) of CHEM 61 or CHEM 62 or PHYS 125 or PHYS 126 or consent of the instructor.

BIO 201 BIOTECHNOLOGY 2 cr
Prerequisites: Successful completion (CD or higher) of CHEM 110 or CHEM 120; placement into MATH 101, Math 114A or higher is required; completion of or concurrent enrollment in MATH 101, Math 114A, or equivalent is recommended; students cannot receive credit for both BIO 201 and any of the following: BIO 151, BIO 152, BIO 181, or BIO 182.

BIO 250 ENVIRONMENTAL BIOLOGY 3 cr
Prerequisites: None.

BIO 251 INTRODUCTION TO BIOLOGY RESEARCH I 3 cr
Prerequisites: None.
follow the sweep of human history through the origins of agriculture and the rise of civilizations to the modern industrial condition. Focusing on biological and ecological processes and the human decisions that have led to the present, this course also explores the challenges faced by a growing and increasingly globalized human population as we move toward the future. Cross-listed with ENVS 333. (F)

Prerequisites: BIO 151 or consent of instructor.

BIO 351 ORGANISMAL BOTANY 4 cr
Explores advanced topics in botany, including surveys of the major plant groups, plant anatomy and physiology, plant ecology, and human uses of plants; also includes an introduction to fungi. The instructional activities designed for this course enable students to engage in the scientific process. Laboratory investigations, small group discussions, and writing assignments play a central role in instruction. Lecture topics are tightly linked to laboratory experiences.

Prerequisites: Successful completion (CD or higher) of BIO 151 and 152 or BIO 181 and 182.

BIO 352 ORGANISMAL ZOOLOGY 4 cr
This course is a broad survey of the study of animals. Organismal Zoology includes a survey of the major animal phyla, exploration of animal development, and investigation of selected topics in animal physiology and behavior. As an integrated lecture and laboratory course, students apply what they learn about the general principles of zoology to scientific investigations. Lectures, laboratory work, small group discussions, and writing assignments are tightly connected in this course intended for students who are majoring in the natural sciences.

Prerequisites: Successful completion (CD or higher) of BIO 151-152, BIO 312, or equivalent.

BIO 369A-Z  ZEG SPECIAL TOPICS: GALAPAGOS 4 cr
This course focuses on the biology and people of Ecuador. Particular attention will be given to the Galapagos Islands. The principles of ecology, sustainability, and the challenges of maintaining a living laboratory within the confines of a national park will be the context for the discussion of social, biological, and political issues. The course will challenge students to explore and to critically reflect upon their personal values, beliefs, spiritualities and worldviews in the context of decision making. Students will critically examine the global issue of human interaction with ecological communities. The course includes two weeks of travel to Ecuador.

BIO 401 GENETICS 3 cr
Genetics is the study of heredity. The gene, the basic functional unit of heredity, is the focal point of this course. The course includes the fundamentals of genetics and function, gene expression and control, classical genetics including both eukaryotes and prokaryotes, and concludes with the genetic analysis of populations. The primary course goal is to enhance and to develop students understanding and application of core genetic principles throughout problem solving.

Prerequisites: Successful completion (CD or higher) of BIO 152 or BIO 182 or BIO 155; completion of MATH 111 or MATH 114A, and completion of CHEM 110 or CHEM 120 or consent of instructor.

BIO 402 CELL AND MOLECULAR BIOLOGY 4 cr
Cell and Molecular Biology studies how life works at the cellular level. Topics include cell structure and function, the flow of energy in cells, the flow of genetic information in cells, regulation of cell function, and interactions of cells with their environment. Lecture and laboratory.

Prerequisites: Successful completion (CD or higher) of BIO 151 and 152 or BIO 181 and 182; completion of one year of college chemistry.

BIO 406 MEDICINAL MICROBIOLOGY 4 cr
Although the vast majority of microbes are non-pathogenic, many are capable of causing disease in other organisms including humans. This course emphasizes 1) host-microbe interactions between bacterial or viral pathogens and the human host; and 2) the molecular and genetic contributions of both host and microbe in establishment of infection. Topics that will be covered include microbial pathogenesis, microbial genetics, host susceptibility, and mechanisms of antimicrobial control, both immunological and chemical. The course is a combination of lecture, laboratory, and journal club discussions. (S, odd years)

Prerequisite: Successful completion (CD or higher) of BIO 312 or consent of instructor; BIO 401 recommended.

BIO 408 IMMUNOLOGY 4 cr
This course is an examination of general properties and principles of immune responses and serves as an introduction to molecular and cellular immunology. Topics covered include antigen and antibody structure and function, effector mechanisms, complement, major histocompatibility complexes, B- and T-cell receptors, antibody formation and immunity, and regulation of the immune response. Special topics include immunosuppression, immunodeficiency, transplantation, immunotherapy, and autoimmunity. (S, even years)

Prerequisite: Successful completion (CD or higher) of BIO 312 or consent of instructor.

BIO 410 PATHOLOGY 1 cr
This course is the study of human disease. The clinical signs and symptoms along with the therapeutic considerations of human diseases will be addressed. (F)

Prerequisites: Successful completion (CD or higher) of BIO 210 and BIO 211; or consent of instructor.

BIO 415 EXERCISE PHYSIOLOGY 4 cr
Exercise physiology is the science of how the body responds and adapts to exercise. Topics include a study of exercise physiology and metabolism theory, application to fitness, and the development of training regimens. (F, odd years)

Prerequisites: Successful completion (CD or higher) of BIO 211; completion of CHEM 111 or CHEM 121.

BIO 425 COMPARATIVE ANIMAL PHYSIOLOGY 3 cr
The study of animal function, focusing on the mechanisms that allow different kinds of animals to survive and thrive within their home environments. This course is intended for the broad spectrum of life-science majors who are interested in how animals work, how they interact with the world outside of their bodies, and how extraordinary adaptations have enabled some species to thrive in diverse environments. (S, even years)

Prerequisites: Successful completion (CD or higher) of BIO 151-152, BIO 181-182, or equivalent; successful completion (CD or higher) of or concurrent enrollment in BIO 252.

BIO 430 S ANIMAL BEHAVIOR 4 cr
The study of animal behavior from an evolutionary perspective. Lectures, labs, and discussions use both theory and experiment to understand how and why animals (including humans) do what they do. Topics include animal communication, mating behavior, parental care, foraging, habitat selection, and social behavior. (S, odd years)

Prerequisites: Successful completion of BIO 152 or consent of instructor.

BIO 445 Y BIOLOGICAL PSYCHOLOGY 4 cr
This course examines the relationship between the functions of the central nervous system and behavior. Topics include basic structure and function of brain cells, and the physiological mechanisms of sensory perception, motor coordination, sleep, memory, language, aggression, anxiety, schizophrenia, and depression. Cross-listed with PSY 445. (F/S)

Prerequisites: BIO 151 or BIO 155 or BIO 181.

BIO 450 E ECOLOGY 4 cr
No species exists in isolation; life on Earth depends on interconnections between individual organisms and their environment. This course explores this interdependence by considering ecological principles as they pertain to individual organisms, populations, communities, ecosystems, and the biosphere. The course includes an introduction to the scientific method and regulation of the human role in global ecological systems. Many topics are explored through field-based research in local natural communities. Lecture, discussion, and laboratory.

Prerequisites: BIO 151/152 or BIO 181/182.

BIO 469 SPECIAL TOPICS IN BIOLOGY VAR cr
This course is an advanced study of topics of special current interest in biology and related fields. Seminar/discussion or lecture format.

Prerequisites: Consent of instructor.

BIO 479 INDEPENDENT STUDY - BIOLOGY VAR cr
The study of selected topics in biology under the direction of a faculty member in the department. (F/S)

BIO 480 3K BIOLOGY SEMINAR 2 cr
Edgewood's Biology major emphasizes the contributions of broadly-educated biologists to a just, and compassionate world. Biology Seminar is a forum in which our advanced students use a scientific talk on undergraduate research to display their expertise in biology, demonstrate their understanding of the scientific process and its application, and articulate a personal philosophy regarding their role in the scientific community. All members of the course also take an active role in the planning and execution of a research symposium that is a critical part of scientific community as they discuss and evaluate the work of their peers.

Prerequisites: COR 2, BIO 251, O tag, Junior status, or consent of the instructor.

BIO 489 FIELD/LABORATORY RESEARCH 1 cr
Field / Laboratory Research offers students the opportunity to engage in biological research. Prior to enrollment, students develop a proposal that includes the question they would like to investigate as well as the hypothesis to be tested.

Prerequisites: Successful completion of BIO 251, approved proposal, and consent of instructor.

Business (BUS)

BUS 120 INTRODUCTION TO BUSINESS 2 cr
Conducting business embraces many disciplines. This course will explore several areas such as marketing, management, and entrepreneurship and how they all work together when engaging in socially responsible commerce. Anyone interested in how business activities are carried out should take this course.

Prerequisites: None.

BUS 279 INDEPENDENT STUDY - BUSINESS VAR cr
Topics and credits arranged.

BUS 280 FINANCIAL ACCOUNTING 3 cr
This course explores the role of financial accounting in measuring and communicating business activities to external users. Information is measured through the application of the double entry system of accounting to financial transactions that impacts a company’s resources and claims to those resources. Fundamental principles of financial accounting are explored as they relate to accounting systems, internal control, asset, liability and equity accounts. The impact of these transactions on the financial statements, the primary means of communication of information to external users is explored, as well as the preparation of financial statements and ratios of these financial statements. The course also includes an introduction to Intuit QuickBooks small business accounting software. (F/S)

Prerequisites: MATH 121.

BUS 281 MANAGERIAL ACCOUNTING 3 cr
This course defines the role of management accounting in producing information that is relevant in a fast-paced, competitive environment for internal decision makers within business organizations. Alternative methods for the computation of costs for products and services will be explored including job order costing, process costing, activity-based costing and standard costing. The behavior of costs will be analyzed using cost-volume-profit analysis. Cost information will be utilized for budgetary planning and controlling, capital investment decisions, pricing, variance analysis and decision making activities in organizations. (F/S)
Prerequisites: BUS 280, MATH 122.

BUS 301 MARKETING PRINCIPLES 3 cr
This is an introductory course to survey the principles of marketing. Concepts relating to product, price, promotion, and distribution as well as of the sources of marketing information will be studied. (F/S)
Prerequisites: This course can be taken concurrently with pre-business course ECON 255, but not before.

BUS 302 ORGANIZATIONAL BEHAVIOR 3 cr
This course examines human behavior in work organizations, as well as effective means to manage that behavior in a way that contributes to both organizational effectiveness and human satisfaction. Topics include: team development, communication, leadership, motivation, problem solving, and ethical decision making.
Prerequisites: This course can be taken concurrently with pre-business course ECON 255, but not before.

BUS 303 CORPORATE FINANCE 3 cr
This course is an introduction to the financial management of firms and investments. Topics include: Forms of business, taxes, cash flows, financial analysis of firms, the financial system, business planning, Corporate Governance, interest rate theory, time-value of money, valuation & characteristics of financial securities, and financial risk & return. (F/S)
Prerequisites: Successful completion of pre-business courses and MATH 122.

BUS 304 U BUSINESS LAW I 3 cr
This course introduces students to the court system, the legal process, contract formation and performance, remedies, agency relationships, sales, product liability, and the Uniform Commercial Code. Provide students with (1) an understanding of how the law affects business operations, (2) an understanding of the principle of “stare decisis” and the ability to apply the rule of precedent to case studies, (3) skills to use legal language correctly and think critically about legal issues, and (4) a thorough understanding of basic contract law principles.
Prerequisites: Successful completion of pre-business courses.

BUS 305 OPERATIONS MANAGEMENT 3 cr
Operations in an industrial or service enterprise must work as a system to be efficient and competitive. Students will learn how operations management topics such as inventory management topics, project management, forecasting, capacity planning, scheduling, facility design and quality are interrelated. Quantitative methods are taught as a current ethical issue, and (4) a thorough understanding of basic contract law principles.
Prerequisites: Successful completion of pre-business courses.

BUS 306 PROFESSIONAL COMMUNICATIONS 3 cr
This course focuses on written and oral communication in a business environment. In both individual and group settings students will plan, write, and deliver routine, goodwill, persuasive, and bad-news messages. They will complete business reports and proposals, plan and give oral presentations, write resumes and cover letters and engage in the interview process. The students will better understand the business communication environment and processes communicate more effectively in teams, master listening and non-verbal communication and be able to communicate inter-culturally.
Prerequisites: Successful completion of pre-business courses and BUS 301 and 302.

BUS 306 KX BUSINESS COMMUNICATIONS 4 cr
This course focuses on written and oral communication in a business environment. In both individual and group settings students will plan, write, and deliver routine, goodwill, persuasive, and bad-news messages. They will complete business reports and proposals, plan and give oral presentations, write resumes and cover letters and engage in the interview process. The students will better understand the business communication environment and processes communicate more effectively in teams, master listening and non-verbal communication and be able to communicate inter-culturally.
Prerequisites: ENG 110 or W Cornerstone; completion of the O Tg or concurrent enrollment in an O Tg course; BUS 301, 302; completion of 4 VARR credits.

BUS 307 VOLUNTEER INCOME TAX ASSISTANCE I 5 cr
The first of a two-semester, academic and experiential series, BUS 307 introduces students to different types of tax systems while presenting diverse perspectives on what makes up a fair and just tax system. This course will explore how culture plays a role in the development of tax systems both in the US and internationally. We will also discuss how government uses taxes to influence behavior and promote social goals.
During this 8-week session, you will also complete the Department of Revenue certification required to volunteer at the IRS-sponsored Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) sites during the spring semester. VITA provides free tax service to clients in need, generally low-income, elderly, and disabled individuals.
Prerequisites: Successful completion of pre-business courses and COR 1 or equivalent option to second and third year students or sophomore and above transfers.

BUS 308 2 VOLUNTEER INCOME TAX ASSISTANCE II 4 cr
Course includes participation in IRS-sponsored Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) Program giving students an opportunity to provide free tax service to clients in need, generally low-income, handicapped and/or the elderly. The course will challenge the student to develop a philosophy on what constitutes a just and compassionate tax system and to understand what the social goals are for a tax system. 50 volunteer hours through VITA is required spring semester for 2 credits; 100 volunteer hours through VITA is required for 3 credits. (S)
Prerequisites: BUS 307.

BUS 340 MANAGEMENT OF ORGANIZATIONS 3 cr
Designed to give the student a thorough understanding of the roles, as social and goal-directed entities, perform in a dynamic environment. In addition, special emphasis is placed on the role of management in successfully managing organizations to meet a variety of stakeholder goals. Topics include organizational culture, diversity, organizational conflict, organizational politics, and organizational change. (F)
Prerequisites: Successful completion of pre-business courses and BUS 302 and 305.

BUS 350 PRINCIPLES OF INSURANCE 3 cr
This course is an introduction to the financial management of firms, including insurance contracts and entities assuming risk.
Specific types of insurance are discussed, including property and liability (automotive, homeowners, renters, business and workers' compensation), life insurance, annuities, estate planning, health and governmental insurance. Course is offered pass/fail. (Cross-listed with BUS 771)
Prerequisites: Successful completion of pre-business courses.

BUS 379 INDEPENDENT STUDY - BUSINESS VAR cr
Topics and credits arranged.
Prerequisites: Consent of instructor.

BUS 380 INTERMEDIATE ACCOUNTING I 3 cr
This course is an in-depth study of the theoretical foundations of financial accounting and reporting at the intermediate level. Topics include the accounting conceptual framework, the accounting information system, advanced financial statement preparation (balance sheet, income statement, and statement of cash flows), time value of money concepts, accounting for cash, receivables, inventories, property, plant, and equipment, and intangible assets. International accounting convergence issues are covered for main topics. The course includes an introduction to Sage Peachtree accounting software. Application of topics through written case analyses is required.
Prerequisites: Successful completion of pre-business courses and BUS 280 or concurrent registration.

BUS 381 INTERMEDIATE ACCOUNTING II 3 cr
A continuation of Intermediate Accounting I. Topics covered include accounting for current and non-current liabilities, contingencies and equity accounts; accounting for leases, investments, income taxes and pensions, dilutive securities and earnings per share; accounting changes, disclosure in financial reporting and revenue recognition. International accounting convergence issues are covered for main topics. The course includes an introduction to Sage Peachtree accounting software. Application of topics through written case analyses is required.
Prerequisites: BUS 380, MATH 121, 122, ENG 110, CS 150, or consent of instructor.

BUS 385 COST ACCOUNTING 3 cr
The fundamentals of cost accounting, covering job order, process and activity based costing. It emphasizes current practices in cost control through reports to management.
Prerequisites: Successful completion of pre-business courses and BUS 281.

BUS 411 INTERMEDIATE CORPORATE FINANCE 3 cr
This course is a continuation of BUS 303 Corporate Finance. Topics include: Capital Budgeting, Long-Term Financing, Working Capital Management, Corporate Restructuring, and International Finance.
Prerequisites: BUS 303 and ECON 256.

BUS 412 INVESTMENTS 3 cr
Stocks, bonds, derivatives, portfolio theory and other aspects of investment analysis. (F)
Prerequisites: BUS 303 and ECON 256.

BUS 414 MONEY, BANKING, MARKETS 3 cr
This course covers the evolution of money, the development of banking institutions, the theory and implementation of monetary policy, and recent developments in international monetary affairs. A final section focuses on international banking, the Eurocurrency market and the international monetary system. May be cross-listed with ECON 460 and/or BUS 772.
Prerequisites: Successful completion of pre-business courses.

BUS 430 HUMAN RESOURCE MANAGEMENT 3 cr
Increasingly, companies are shifting human resource management responsibilities to supervisors and managers. This course focuses on the manager's role in human resource planning, job analysis and design, recruitment and selection, performance management, examines within a larger context of the organization's strategic direction and legal environment.
Prerequisites: BUS 302 and BUS 306 or concurrent registration.

BUS 431 MARKETING STRATEGY 3 cr
This course focuses on strategic marketing decisions using case studies and covering current topics in marketing management.
Prerequisites: BUS 301.

BUS 432 CONSUMER BEHAVIOR 3 cr
Analysis of how consumers process information, form attitudes, and make decisions, and how consumer behavior is affected by cultural factors and interpersonal influences.
Prerequisites: BUS 301.

BUS 433 ADVERTISING AND PROMOTION STRATEGY 3 cr
This course covers the elements of the promotional mix, including the communication process, creative advertising strategies, media planning and buying strategies, direct marketing and interactive media, sales promotion strategies, the role of personal selling in sales promotions, measuring advertising and promotional effectiveness, and social, ethical and regulatory issues in advertising and promotion strategies.
Prerequisites: BUS 301.

BUS 434 MARKET RESEARCH 3 cr
This course includes qualitative and quantitative research methods, with an emphasis on quantitative survey-based research applications.
Prerequisites: BUS 301.
BUS 483 ACCOUNTING SYSTEMS 3 cr
This course covers current information technology. Topics include accounting information systems, flow charts, internal controls, advanced database techniques and technical aspects of information system selection, and developing business requirements. (F)
Prerequisites: BUS 381 or concurrent registration and BUS 483 strongly recommended.

BUS 485 INCOME TAX ACCOUNTING I 3 cr
Income Tax Accounting I Tax laws and regulations related to individual taxpayers and the principles of taxation common to all taxpayers (ie. Individuals, partnerships, and corporations). (F)
Prerequisites: BUS 281.

BUS 485 INCOME TAX ACCOUNTING II 3 cr
Income Tax Accounting II Tax laws and regulations for corporations and exempt organizations; tax administration and research. (S)
Prerequisites: BUS 485.

BUS 499 BUSINESS STRATEGY 3 cr
This interdisciplinary capstone course provides student with the opportunity to integrate the multiple components of their business education and to practice the critical thinking, communication, managerial, and entrepreneurial skills necessary for developing sustainable, ethical organizations. First, students examine “Who am I?” through reflections about their personal experiences and their personal and professional goals. Second, students develop a better understanding of “the needs and opportunities of the world” through a service-learning project that improves social well-being. Third, students explore their “role in building a just and compassionate world” by studying, integrating, and applying key business concepts in the creation of a comprehensive business plan for a sustainable ethical organization that meets consumer needs. Students will participate in field trips, hear from guest speakers, and be coached and mentored by business professionals and faculty to enhance their learning and personal development. At the end of the course, students will present their business plans to the Edgewood College community. (F/S)
Prerequisites: Business major and second-semester senior standing.

CHEM 110 S INTRO TO CHEMISTRY 4 cr
An exploration of chemistry with special emphasis on concepts relevant to biological chemistry and the health sciences. Topics include atomic structure, chemical bonding, simple chemical reactions, and stoichiometry. Laboratory experiments serve to clarify and build upon lecture concepts while emphasizing laboratory techniques and safety. CHEM 110 S is a prerequisite for CHEM 111 S, but the two semester sequence is not a prerequisite for any other chemistry course at Edgewood College.
Prerequisites: Placement into ENG 101 and placement into MATH 101 or equivalent proficiency in problem-solving.

CHEM 111 S INTRO ORGANIC CHEMISTRY/ BIOCHEMISTRY 4 cr
An exploration of chemistry with special emphasis on concepts relevant to biological chemistry and the health sciences. CHEM 111 S explores the relationships between the structure of organic compounds and their physical and chemical properties, then continues with an overview of concepts in biological chemistry, including the structure and metabolism of carbohydrates, proteins, lipids, and nucleic acids. Laboratory experiments serve to clarify and build upon lecture concepts while emphasizing laboratory techniques and safety. This course is not a prerequisite for any other chemistry course at Edgewood College.
Prerequisites: Grade of “C” or better in CHEM 110; placement into ENG 101; placement into MATH 101 or equivalent proficiency in problem-solving.

CHEM 115 V CHEMISTRY OF EARTH SOURCES & SOCIETY 3 cr
The general goal of this course is to explore the chemistry, technology, politics, economics, and environmental impacts of hydrocarbons, nuclear energy, and electrochemical energy. A foundation in the areas of organic chemistry, physical organic chemistry, and environmental science will be provided. This course will have a significant writing portion, where students will be expected to follow rubrics for writing a good position paper, along with those for papers that are purely factual based as well.
Prerequisites: CHEM 106, CHEM 110 or CHEM 120

CHEM 120 S GENERAL CHEMISTRY I 4 cr
The first semester of a two-semester sequence of a first-year college chemistry course. The course treats concepts such as structure and properties of matter, electronic structure of atoms and compounds, chemical bonding, chemical reactions, thermochemistry, gas laws, and acid-base chemistry. Laboratory exercises provide hands-on experience with the concepts and experimental techniques of chemistry with emphasis on inquiry, green chemistry, safety, and protocol. A laboratory conduct is integrated into the course. Three lectures plus one four-hour laboratory/discussion section per week.
Prerequisites: Placement in ENG 110 and completion of MATH 114A or placement into MATH 114B, MATH 231 or higher.

CHEM 121 S GENERAL CHEMISTRY II 4 cr
A second semester of a two-semester sequence of a first-year college chemistry course. The course treats basic concepts such as properties of solutions, chemical equilibrium, chemical thermodynamics, kinetics, electrochemistry, and nuclear chemistry. Laboratory exercises providing hands-on experience with the concepts and experimental techniques of chemistry with emphasis on inquiry, green chemistry, safety, and proper laboratory conduct are integrated into the course. Three lectures plus one four-hour laboratory/discussion section per week.
Prerequisites: CHEM 120 or CHEM 110 with a grade of B or better for the instructor and completion of MATH 114A or placement into MATH 114B, MATH 231 or higher. CHEM 110 with a grade of B or better may be substituted for CHEM 120.

CHEM 130 S CHEMISTRY & FORENSIC INVESTIGATIONS 4 cr
This is a second semester course in Chemistry with an emphasis on Forensic Applications. Topics will include the scientific method as it applies to crime scenes, basic concepts of electromagnetic radiation, radiative properties, a basic survey of organic None.mclature, basic chemistry of poisons, and the basic chemistry of biological molecules. These topics will be examined as applied to issues such as arson investigation, determination of time of death, nuclear terrorism, DNA analysis, and drug chemistry. Laboratory experiments serve to clarify and build upon lecture concepts, while including basic forensic techniques and principles of laboratory safety.
Prerequisites: CHEM 106, 110, 120, or consent of the instructor.

CHEM 321 ORGANIC CHEMISTRY I 4 cr
A two-semester sequence in the study of the structure (electronic and geometric), properties, and reactions of compounds of carbon. Topics include the structure and physical properties of organic compounds, stereochemistry, reactions and their mechanisms, and structure-reactivity relationships. Lab experiments emphasize lecture concepts while introducing modern spectroscopic techniques such as crystalization, distillation, chromatography, and spectroscopic methods of compound characterization (with emphasis on nuclear magnetic resonance and infrared spectroscopy).
Prerequisites: CHEM 121 with a minimum grade of C.

CHEM 323 ORGANIC CHEMISTRY II 4 cr
A two-semester sequence in the study of the structure (electronic and geometric), properties, and reactions of compounds of carbon. Topics include the structure and physical properties of organic compounds, stereochemistry, reactions and their mechanisms, and structure-reactivity relationships. Lab experiments emphasize lecture concepts while introducing methods in organic synthesis and illustrating techniques such as crystalization, distillation, chromatography, and spectroscopic methods of compound characterization (with emphasis on nuclear magnetic resonance and infrared spectroscopy).
Prerequisites: Concurrent registration in CHEM 331, 333 is required.
Prerequisites: CHEM 121 with a minimum grade of C.

CHEM 340 BIOCHEMISTRY 3 cr
A study of the chemistry of biological systems. Topics include cell constituents, chemical reactions involved in carbohydrate, protein,
CHEM 431 X ADVANCED ORGANIC CHEMISTRY 3 cr
Advanced Organic Chemistry is an exploration of advanced concepts in organic chemistry such as chemical structure, properties of reactive intermediates, reaction mechanisms, kinetics, spectroscopic techniques, and synthetic methods. Topics will be explored by discussion of examples from the primary chemical literature; concepts will vary somewhat based upon student interest. A special emphasis will be placed on the development of scientific writing skills.
Three discussions per week.
Prerequisites: CHEM 323, ENG 110.

CHEM 451 ADVANCED ANALYTICAL CHEMISTRY 4 cr
Advanced theory and practice in analytical chemistry. Considerable time will be spent discussing the theoretical basis of modern chemical instrumentation. Three lectures per week. Offered in alternate years as demand arises.
Prerequisites: CHEM 351, 361, 370.

CHEM 469 SPECIAL TOPICS IN CHEMISTRY VAR cr
Advanced study of topics of special current interest in chemistry and related fields. Seminar/discussion format.
Prerequisites: Consent of instructor.

CHEM 471 INORGANIC CHEMISTRY II 2 cr
A survey of inorganic reaction mechanisms, materials, organometallic, and solid state chemistry.
Prerequisites: CHEM 371.

CHEM 479 INDEPENDENT STUDY - CHEMISTRY VAR cr
Independent study and practice in advanced laboratory research conducted under the direction of a faculty member.
Prerequisites: Consent of instructor.

CHEM 480 K CHEMISTRY SEMINAR 1 cr
A seminar for upper-level chemistry majors to practice scientific communication skills and participate in discussion of topics in current research with fellow students and faculty. Students present a topic from the primary chemical literature. One seminar-format meeting per week.
Prerequisites: Four semesters of chemistry.

CHEM 489 UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCH VAR cr
Opportunity for students to engage in research collaboratively with one or more faculty or with researchers from other agencies. Note: This course may be taken multiple times.
Prerequisites: Consent of instructor.

Chinese (CHIN)

CHIN 101 I FIRST SEMESTER CHINESE 4 cr
As the first half of a two-semester sequence, Chinese 101 is designed to introduce students to basic communication skills of Mandarin Chinese (simplified), including reading, writing, speaking, and listening comprehension, presented in a culturally authentic context. Themes include kinship, family relationships, daily life, and the Chinese language and culture.
Prerequisites: CHIN 201 or equivalent language placement test.

CHIN 201 GL THIRD SEMESTER CHINESE 4 cr
As a second year Chinese class, this course helps students develop at the intermediate-level communication skills of Mandarin Chinese (Putonghua, Simplified), including reading, writing, speaking, and listening comprehension, presented in a culturally authentic context. Throughout the semester students will learn and practice these skills through various instructional means designed through a communicative and integrative pedagogical approach.
Prerequisites: CHIN 101 or equivalent.

CHIN 202 GL FOURTH SEMESTER CHINESE 4 cr
As a second-year Chinese class, this course helps students develop at the advanced-high level communication skills of Mandarin Chinese (Putonghua, Simplified), including reading, writing, speaking, and listening comprehension, presented in a culturally authentic context. Throughout the semester students will learn and practice these skills through various instructional means designed through a communicative and integrative pedagogical approach.
Prerequisites: CHIN 201 or equivalent language placement test.

CHN 342 CAPITAL PUNISHMENT 4 cr
A historical study of capital punishment in the United States from the 1600s to the present. A close examination of the five methods of execution. An overview of wrongful deaths and high profile capital cases. Revist issues on: Execution of youth for heinous crimes; submission of DNA evidence in capital cases; and the U.S.
COMMS 100  O  INTRODUCTION TO COMMUNICATION 3 cr
This course will introduce students to concepts in interpersonal, organizational, public and mediated communication, and will focus primarily on developing applied communication competencies in the following areas: personal relationships, conflict management, careers, small groups, public presentations, basic media literacy and civic engagement.
Prerequisites: None.

COMMS 101 SPEECH 3 cr
A fundamentals course that focuses on public speaking with some attention to group presentation. The course emphasizes communication theory and ethical practice as to how to organize an argument for effective persuasion and expression. The goal of the course is to help students find their own voices in order to better use their public speaking skills.
Prerequisites: None.

COMMS 201 COMMUNICATION AND CIVILIZATION 3 cr
Provides students with the history of the discipline and the importance of communication in the development of civilization. The class covers the contributions of rhetoric and communications theory from early Greek times to the present, and offers vital insight to past and future contributions of Communication Studies.
Prerequisites: None.

COMMS 218B INTERCOLLEGE & ACADEMIC ACTIVITIES 1 cr
Participation in one of the following intercollegiate speech events debate, original oratory, extemporaneous speaking, oral interpretation of poetry, prose, humorous drama, or serious drama. One to two credits per semester, may be repeated up to a maximum of four credits.
Prerequisites: None.

COMMS 218C INTERCOLLEGE & ACADEMIC ACTIVITIES 1 cr
(One credit per semester, may be repeated up to a maximum of four credits.)
Participation in one of the following intercollegiate speech events debate, original oratory, extemporaneous speaking, oral interpretation of poetry, prose, humorous drama, or serious drama.
Prerequisites: None.

COMMS 220  PRINTER'S PROOF 3 cr
A practical course providing experience in the graphic arts.
Prerequisites: None.

COMMS 225 ADVANCED APPLIED COMMUNICATION 2 cr
A practicum course providing advanced guided experience in applied communication.
Prerequisites: None.

COMMS 228 A TELEVISION CRITICISM 3 cr
A television criticism course covering the history of broadcast, satellite and cable television with content analysis of program genres and media research on TV effects, including viewing violence, news and political coverage, advertising and effects of TV on children concerning violence and advertising. This class also covers public health issues, including obesity and its links to TV viewing. This class has a strong emphasis on media literacy and how this media industry works.
Prerequisites: None.

COMMS 230 2K  CIVIC ENGAGEMENT AND THE COMMUN GOOD 3 cr
Through classroom work and volunteering for the Boys and Girls Club of Dane County, students will learn the essential role of communication in the organization's internal functioning and in its relation to the larger community. Among other activities, students will develop a significant public message (oral presentation, brochure, or web inclusion) about the agency. The total volunteer commitment will be 15 hours per student. Students will need to be available to spend at least 2 hours per visit during the hours of 9:00am to 5:00pm, weekdays. This time commitment does not include about 20 minutes each way to the Taft St. Location. Students will be assigned to assist with a variety of communication-related roles.
Prerequisites: CIR 101 or equivalent; open to students in their second or third year, or sophomore and above transfers; completion of the O tag or concurrent enrollment in an O tag course.

COMMS 240 INTRO TO INTERPERSONAL COMMUNICATION 3 cr
Helps students develop a strong theoretical base needed to become an expert in communication. By surveying a wide variety of communication concepts, theories, and research concerning communication in interpersonal contexts, students learn to build positive, productive relationships.
Prerequisites: None.

COMMS 241 J  INTRODUCTION TO ORGANIZATIONAL COMMUNICATIONS 3 cr
Explores the communication that originates from and within profit and non-profit organizations. A survey of concepts, theories, and research helps the student to apply communication knowledge to the professional environment and prepare for a successful career.
Prerequisites: None.

COMMS 243 INTRODUCTION TO MEDIA STUDIES 3 cr
Explores the structure, history, functions, potentials, and impact of mass and mediated communication in the U.S., with a focus on how culture and mass media influence each other (F/S)
Prerequisites: None.

COMMS 245  SPEECH FOR TEACHERS 3 cr
Practical study of oral communications problems and methods especially adapted to the teacher's situation. Emphasis on modes of classroom presentation, counseling, interviewing, and self-evaluation.
Prerequisites: None.

COMMS 250 RELATIONAL COMMUNICATION 3 cr
Theory and practice of relational communication, with emphasis on strategic and ethical uses of communication to build relationships interpersonally, in families, and in groups.
Prerequisites: None.

COMMS 260  X  WRITING FOR THE MEDIA 3 cr
This course introduces students to writing in a professional environment and to the forms of writing for the mass media (including news and feature stories for print and broadcast, advertising copy, writing for the Web, and web content for public relations). The class is heavily practice-based, with the majority of the final grade coming from weekly writing assignments and in-class writing workshops. The main course objective is to enable students to develop the ability to write clearly, concisely, and appropriately for a variety of media settings.
Prerequisites: ENG 110 or W Corequisites.

COMMS 310 ADVANCED COMMUNICATION THEORY 3 cr
In depth study of the genesis and development of key issues in contemporary communication theory and research.
Prerequisites: None.

COMMS 311 QUALITATIVE COMMUNICATION RESEARCH METHODS 3 cr
This course aims to help students gain an essential view of qualitative inquiry within communication contexts. This course entails the following specific objectives to examine the theoretical traditions of qualitative methods in the field of communication; to understand various approaches to qualitative inquiry such as interviewing, focus groups, and ethnography; to critique written qualitative research in communication journals and identify ways to improve it; and to develop skills and techniques to design a qualitative research project, including collecting and analyzing qualitative data and writing up qualitative findings.
Prerequisites: None.

COMMS 312 X U ARGUMENT AND CONTROVERSY 3 cr
This study of argumentation and controversy is designed to cultivate concepts and abilities which are practically important to the use of reasoned discourse in public contexts which involve disagreement, doubt, and/or opposition. The course aims at developing a competence in the conduct of arguments calling for policy decision both in isolation and within public contexts. It seeks to enhance a student's ability to analyze, criticize, produce, and report arguments, the course also explores functions of argumentation in democratic societies. The study of argumentation focuses on two levels of concepts and abilities: (1) at a macro-level argumentation involves the overall calculations and responsibilities of advocates, e.g., the positions they occupy, the issues they address, the cases they deploy and the burdens of proof they undertake; and (2) at a micro-level the finer structure of argumentation involve study of the kinds of reasons advocates use, evidence and its tests, questions and cross-examination, etc.
Prerequisites: Completion of the O tag or concurrent enrollment in an O tag course; completion of PHIL 101.

COMMS 333 QUANTITATIVE COMMUNICATION RESEARCH METHODS 3 cr
Provides the student with the tools to better comprehend qualitative social science and organizational communication research. The class covers the basics of scientific inquiry, how to collect/analyze data for communication research and teaches students how to use the fundamental statistical analysis software for creating their own communication research projects.
Prerequisites: None.
COMMS 314 PERSUASION, PROMOTION AND ADVERTISING 3 cr
This course investigates persuasive communication with a special focus on advertising and promotion. Students are introduced to theories of persuasion and the practical application of persuasive communication methods.
Prerequisites: None.

COMMS 316 MASS MEDIA AND COMMUNICATION 3 cr
Provides comparative and historical analysis of the power of mass communication and the media. Topics include societal, economical, political, legal and ethical impacts of mass communication and the role of the media. Special attention is given to the influence of the mass media on cultural diversity and information distribution.
Prerequisites: None.

COMMS 317 D INTERCULTURAL COMMUNICATION 3 cr
This course is the study of how individuals perceive and react to cultural rules, and how those perceptions and reactions affect the ways they communicate with one another. The general goals of the class are for students to develop understanding of the role that identity plays in intercultural communication, develop understanding of how cultural rules affect communication, learn how cultures differ from each other and how they come together and coexist, and develop competence in communicating with people of various cultures in the United States and beyond.
Prerequisites: None.

COMMS 318 ADVANCED ORGANIZATIONAL COMMUNICATION 3 cr
Gives students hands on experience in analyzing and auditing the communication within and disseminating from organizations. Beyond increasing students' research theory-based knowledge of how to best organize and deliver effective communication essential for organizational success, efforts will be made to assess the communication of local organizations.
Prerequisites: COMMS 241 or consent of instructor.

COMMS 319 2 MASS COMMUNICATION CAMPAIGNS: COMMUNICATION FOR THE PUBLIC GOOD 3 cr
This course asks students to investigate how communication campaigns can help improve the quality of life for diverse individuals and populations in the Madison community and beyond. Working in teams, students will develop the knowledge, understanding, and skills necessary to plan, design, and carry out a mass communication campaign based on principles of social marketing for a real-world client, a nonprofit organization in the Madison area. The issue addressed in this campaign will depend on the needs of the nonprofit organization, but whatever the issue, students will carefully consider relevant aspects of diversity including culture, gender, socioeconomic status, and more. Prerequisites: COR 1 or equivalent; open to students in their second or third year, or sophomore and above transfers; background in media communication (possibly from COMMS 245, 260), or graphic design courses, is suggested but not required.

COMMS 320 GROUP DISCUSSION AND TEAM LEADERSHIP 3 cr
Theory and practice of effective participation in and leadership of groups, committees, and public discussion; application to problem solving, information-sharing and team leadership.
Prerequisites: None.

COMMS 325 IQ GENDER, CULTURE AND COMMUNICATION 3 cr
In this course we will examine how gender is communicated within cultural and institutional settings (how we come to know what it is to be a woman or a man), the multiple ways humans communicate within and across gender lines (how we express ourselves as gendered individuals and why we do it many different ways), and the relationship of the two. We will also look at how feminists’ theories illuminate gender issues in communication.
Prerequisites: None.

COMMS 329 BK INTRODUCTION TO RADIO BROADCASTING 3 cr
This course looks at the impact of radio within American culture and mass media. Students will complete several projects, both in groups and individually, to showcase their knowledge of radio history, genres, news writing, marketing, advertising, and radio production. Students will work on the fundamentals of writing and public speaking for radio. However, these skills are applicable to all areas of public communication. To increase confidence in writing and oral communication, we will work on writing and speaking skills with a focus on specific radio audiences. Students will acquire strategies for organizing, gathering and evaluating information; to do this we will be able to hear and appeal to an audience. This course concludes with a final project, a 30-minute radio program.
Prerequisites: None.

COMMS 330 INTRODUCTION TO VIDEO PRODUCTION 3 cr
Students learn to conceptualize, develop, produce and edit in basic television genre. Students are required to produce at least one short segment with TV content.
Prerequisites: Membership in WYOU Community TV and completion of camera recording and editing workshops.

COMMS 332 ADVANCED VIDEO PRODUCTION 3 cr
Complex story production and editing of segments exploring ethical issues and ethical reasoning in depth.
Prerequisites: None.

COMMS 334 DOCUMENTARY VIDEO PRODUCTION 3 cr
Basic documentary production styles and issues, how to conceptualize and create journalistically sound documentaries. Students will produce a 30 minute video documentary.
Prerequisites: COMMS 316 and 332.

COMMS 337 COMMUNICATIONS TEACHING PRACTICUM VAR cr
Gives the student an opportunity to experience the classroom from the other side of the desk. This course additionally serves as a great experience builder to preparing for the role of a graduate teaching assistant in grad school. Duties will include assisting with teaching, grading, and student support.
Prerequisites: Student must earn a grade of X in the course in which they will assist.

COMMS 339 INDEPENDENT STUDY - COMMUNICATION STUDIES VAR cr
Independent Study of selected topics in Communication Arts developed by the student with the approval and direction of the instructor.
Prerequisites: Consent of instructor.

COMMS 340 SPECIAL TOPICS IN COMMUNICATION STUDIES 3 cr
A variable topics seminar that treats specialized areas of communication study, e.g., health communications, communication, communication and the environment, persuasion, and marginalized communities.
Prerequisites: None.

COMMS 340A TOPICS: HEALTH COMMUNICATION 3 cr
Prerequisites: None.

COMMS 340B TOPICS: AFRO-AMERICAN COMMUNICATION 3 cr
This course explores African-American language, culture and communication with in-depth and retical interpretations within a social and historical context. Cross-listed with ETHS 430B.
Prerequisites: None.

COMMS 340C TOPICS: GENDER COMMUNICATION ISSUES AT HOME, WORK, AND IN PUBLIC 3 cr
Study of differences and similarities in gender communication with regard to the family, the workplace, and public settings. Issues in gender communication will be approached from a variety of scholarly perspectives; the seminar will focus on conceptual analysis from a pragmatic perspective.
Prerequisites: None.

COMMS 348D TOPICS: UNSPINNING CAMPAIGN Rhetoric 3 cr
Characteristic of political campaigns is the “spinning” of factual information. Candidates and campaigns employ a variety of techniques including bending “facts,” mischaracterizing the words of others, and ignoring or denying crucial evidence to create support for their value and/or policy positions. Guided by previous communication research, students will identify important assertions of fact in the campaigns of state and local candidates in the 2010 elections and seek to verify such assertions by consulting relevant literature and experts. If the candidates’ assertions are not supported, the candidates themselves will be asked for clarification. The study will be conducted within the context of general campaign communication and will pursue such questions as “What political realities encourage ‘spin’?” “What is the ethical importance of veracity in political speech?” “What is the role of the media in perpetuating “spin” or “fact checking” assertions made in political campaigns?” Cross-listed with HI 404.
Prerequisites: None.

COMMS 430 R HOW TALK WORKS: PRAGMATICs OF COMMUNICATION 3 cr
Topics seminar focuses on the strategic design of human communication. Draws on advances in the philosophy of language and in communication theory to illuminate various communication practices, e.g., testifying, gossiping, proposing, advising, accusing, praising, story-telling, etc. ($)
Prerequisites: None.

COMMS 440 TOPICS: SENIOR CAPSTONE 3 cr
Senior capstone in communication studies seeks to prepare graduating students for life after Edgewood. This class helps students reflect upon and prepare for their next career step, develope resumes/curriculum vitae, practice communication-theory-based interviewing skills, and explore avenues for locating career and graduate school opportunities as well as opportunities for developing a rich and fulfilling life outside the professional realm through civic engagement. The course also guides students in reflecting on Edgewood's COR questions in the context of their chosen field.
Prerequisites: None.

COMMS 440 C OMUNICATION INTERNSHIP VAR cr
Required of Communication Studies majors. The Communication Studies Program will make efforts to locate internships for students; however, in cannot guarantee availability. Internship experience should be relevant to the student’s area of emphasis and career goals.
Prerequisites: None.

COMMS 449 C INDEPENDENT STUDY - COMMUNICATION STUDIES 1 cr
Independent Study of selected topics in Communication Studies developed by the student with the approval and direction of the instructor.
Prerequisites: Consent of instructor.

COMMS 449 C SENIOR PROJECT 1 cr
Prerequisites: None.
COR 101  UNDERSTANDING WISCONSIN CULTURE OF ALCOHOL USE & ABUSE 3 cr

Alcohol provides an opportunity to: (1) explore personal beliefs and values around alcohol use and (2) understand connections to the unique Wisconsin alcohol culture. Areas of exploration include: study the Wisconsin cultural perspectives on alcohol use; study the biological impacts of alcohol use; reflect on personal, family and community experiences of alcohol use, and act through making deliberate, conscious personal choices on alcohol use. In this class you should expect to participate in several excursions into the community outside of, and in addition to, class time (primarily nights and weekends). Transportation is arranged.

Prerequisites: This course is for first semester freshmen or freshmen transfer students.

COR 102 1 DIVERSE LANDSCAPES IN US CULTURE 4 cr

This course examines from a sociopolitical perspective the ramifications of a multicultural population within a given setting, paying special attention to the complex relationships between landscapes and the diverse communities who inhabit these spaces. Students will examine their relationships to these communities and the relationships within, paying attention to the ways race, class, gender and sexuality shape these settings. Emphasis will be placed on the research method of ethnography, with each student learning how to write an ethnography centered on a specific setting. The course will take special note of all interactions within the setting.

COR 103  UNDERSTANDING & ADVOCATING FOR INDIVIDUALS WITH DISABILITIES 3 cr

This course is designed to enrich students' understanding and appreciation of students with cognitive disabilities (Learning Disability; Down Syndrome; Autism Spectrum, etc.). The course will provide an overview of the thirteen categories of disability with the focus on the disabilities most identified in a college setting. We will explore students' identification and understanding of the disabilities, their perceptions/misperceptions of people with a disability, their beliefs, values and personal feelings regarding the rights of people with disabilities and their role in building a more just and compassionate world by advocating for people with a disability in their classrooms, dorm and community at large. This course requires mentoring a student from the Cutting Edge Program outside of class time.

COR 104  IQ GENDER AND CAREING 4 cr

Feminist perspectives of caring and care-giving will be explored. The textbook, "who am I? and who can I become?" will be explored by deconstructing the meaning of "caring", how it has been defined, and by whom (i.e., the influence of culture, race/ethnicity, class). The question "What are the needs and opportunities of the world?" will be discussed by looking at the following: how technology has influenced caring behaviors, and how gender roles are "assigned" to infants and children. We will look at the role of caregivers in ethnocentric and multicultural world? will be answered by looking at how caring and care-giving behaviors (especially in care-giving professions) are practiced in our culture, communities, and around the world. This course will consume 10 class hours.

COR 105 1 HUMOR: ALWAYS A LAUGHING MATTER? 3 cr

We will look at the verbal and nonverbal symbols used in humor from a variety of perspectives. You will have a chance to share the humor you enjoy and speculate on how it reflects your identity. We'll also take a broader societal and historical view of humor. Has our understanding of humor evolved through the history of western civilization? Has it always just been entertainment or has it played a role in interpersonal relations, health, communication, politics and /or as a reflection of culture? Can we detect ways in which the use of humor might be adapted for group and cultural use? This course requires at least one off-campus field trip on a weekend.

COR 107 1 DETHINKING THE BORDER: U.S. IMMIGRATION 3 cr

Through an exploration of a range of immigrant expressions (songs, narratives, fiction, documentaries, interviews) this course will examine the role of Latino immigrants in the shaping of the US. Against the backdrop of an increasingly multicultural US, this class will consider the breadth and depth of cultural history and experience that make up the US, even as we examine the ways in which immigrants (both historically and today) have come under attack. Through the traditional US immigrant narrative focuses on those immigrants who came into Ellis Island, in the shadow of the Statue of Liberty, the course will look more closely at the US/Mexican border (understand both as a physical barrier between the two countries, but also a psychological reality) and the huge role of Mexican immigrants in shaping the US, not only in the traditional "borders" of California and the Southwest, but across the country. Students will consider issues of recognition and citizenship, both in their own family histories, as well as in the communities they belong to. Using the Dominican Student, students will have the opportunity to study both their own place in the larger immigrant history that has shaped the United States, as well as the historical and current experiences of immigrants to the US. Their study will be accompanied by reflection throughout the course of the implications of the COR 1 generator, the course will come to terms with their role as actors in the immigrant debates taking place both locally and nationally. Community-based experiences outside of class time may be expected several times throughout the semester.

COR 200 2 DIVERSITY IN RACE AND DIVERSITY 3 cr

This course is a salon-style forum for students to unpack and explore the narratives of race in society and the ongoing challenges of building inclusive communities. Students will have sustained, direct, relevant and in-depth dialogues with racial justice activists, individuals engaged in organizations doing inclusive community organizing, social issue advocates, and people working on inclusive reforms in government, education, business and industry, media and other civil group. This course has expectations for outside of class community engagement.

Prerequisites: COR 1 or equivalent; open to second or third year students or sophomore and above transfers.

COR 254 1 RESEARCH, REFLECTION & ACTION 3 cr

This course allows students to explore community change questions such as how groups work collectively to encourage change, create a collective vision, build relationships, sustain energy over time, address barriers and celebrate successes. Students will learn about institutional and community-based approaches to change. They will examine the cultural assumptions and community identity underlying change efforts. Participation in a day long community-based experience required in addition to class time.

Prerequisites: COR 1 or equivalent; open to second or third year students or sophomore and above transfers.

COR 260 2 RESTORATIVE COMMUNITY: INTRO TO RESTORATIVE JUSTICE 3 cr

Students will explore the concept of restorative justice such as the three dimensions of harm when a crime is committed and the peacemaking circle as a tool to transform brokenness into a place of real healing. They will learn how to create a restorative justice circle with community leaders at various sites throughout the Madison area.

Prerequisites: COR 1 or equivalent; open to second or third year students or sophomore and above transfers.

COR 255 2 INTEGRATION, DISABILITY & ENGAGED CITIZENS 3 cr

This course offers students an opportunity to explore community change questions such as how groups work collectively to encourage change, create a collective vision, build relationships, sustain energy over time, address barriers and celebrate successes. Students will learn about institutional and community-based approaches to change. They will examine the cultural assumptions and community identity underlying change efforts. Participation in a day long community-based experience required in addition to class time.

Prerequisites: COR 1 or equivalent; open to second or third year students or sophomore and above transfers.

COR 256 2 INTEGRATION, DISABILITY & ENGAGED CITIZENS 3 cr

This course will guide students the ability to be a part of the only program in Wisconsin that offers a degree with more severe disabilities in higher education. While they learn more about disability in our society and the barriers they populate for many in our community, they will be learning about how to conceive conscious, build community, incorporate the process into a community-based setting, and create positive employment settings. This class has expectations for outside of class community engagement.

Prerequisites: COR 1 or equivalent; open to second or third year students or sophomore and above transfers.
like interests and together they will explore becoming engaged citizens. Both will learn by reflecting on the nature of volunteering and the as powerful change and growth experience in their lives. This class has expectations for outside of class community engagement.

Prerequisites: COR 1 or equivalent; open to second or third year students or sophomore and above transfers.

COR 295 2 CARING FOR OURSELVES, THE WORLD 3 cr

This 2 credit seminar has been designed as an opportunity to explore the connections between our life work as helping professionals, development as leaders in these careers, and building resilience through self-care and mindfulness. Using the lens of the COR 2 essential questions (Who am I and who could I become? What are the needs and opportunities of the world? What is my role in building a just and compassionate world?), there will pose such questions as: What are the relationships between self and community; and between personal activities and public service? What responsibilities exist in these relationships? How do social forces (e.g., poverty, racism, and sexism) shape these roles and inform one’s responsibilities? Through reading, discussion, and service activities, students will reflect upon community experiences, how these experiences influence their personal and public worlds, and their personal values in relation to these spheres, while identifying and examining their own value systems as they are situated in the values systems of other contexts, including those of their service sites and the Dominican tradition. Class members must have a concurrent field placement within their majors, and content will be based in part of the experiences of students in these placements.

COR 304 2X PERFORMING SOCIAL JUSTICE 4 cr

In this class students will think through the role of community in pursuing social justice through performative approaches, with the goal of crafting and carrying out innovative and effective social action. This class will bring together students of diverse social justice traditions, with small performance action projects, supported by reading, writing, and discussion, as they learn about human issues, histories of structural inequalities, activist theater, and social justice theories to justify activism. The class devotes some of that time to clarifying students’ passions and values, trying out innovative approaches to social issues and linking the critical skills necessary to create do-able and meaningful work in the second half of the course. This class has expectations for outside of class community engagement.

COR 307 2X READING WRITING RUNNING - RACE FOR THE CURE 4 cr

Reading, Writing, and Running studies the advocacy run/walk in modern America and the history of the Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure. This course integrates physical training for the race with the study of breast cancer advocacy. While training for the Race, students simultaneously explore their personal relationship to the disease, the larger social conversation on breast cancer, running and advocacy; they will write personal narratives, academic analyses, and become advocates for breast cancer research as part of building a more just world to advocate. To do this, they will organize a Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure Edgewood team, write for and participate in the organization’s goals, and support each other as they experience the race. This course requires an on-campus setting for the Race for the Cure. This class has expectations for outside of class community engagement.

COR 310 2 CIVIC LEADERSHIP 3 cr

This course is offered as an academic seminar to support the study, reflection, and action of students already serving in leadership roles in community organizations (non-profits, political or advocacy organizations) or campus organizations with a specific focus on addressing community issues (SGA, Alternative Breaks, Woods Edge, etc.). Students will learn about different models of community involvement and use their own experience working on a community issue to examine how these models relate to and support their practical experiences. In addition, students will examine and explore how leadership roles inform social change. Requires concurrent leadership/ community engagement experience. Consent of instructor required.

COR 351 2 LIFETIME LEGACIES: LIFE REVIEW II 2 cr

This course is the second in a two-part series that studies dying, death and bereavement. Special attention is given to the stresses that are inevitably part of a terminal illness and how these stress the people involved – the dying patient, the family and friends, health care professionals, and the volunteers. Students will complete two life reviews – one for their own lives and one for an older adult in the community. Students will complete a community-based learning project including the prison hospice program in Wausau. Students will volunteer at places like detox, the VA, Madison Senior Center and Attic Angels. Working with older adults, students will explore the meaning of community and the processes individuals go through during the end of life. This course requires a 25 hour volunteer requirement over two semesters, as part of the course.

Prerequisites: COR 251.

COR 380 2CD SEMINAR: IMMIGRANT NARRATIVES 4 cr

An integrative seminar in ethnic studies, literary studies, and community-based learning, this course investigates, through multidisciplinary lenses, the issues of migration, border, and identities in the United States in the 20th and 21st centuries. Focusing on immigrant narratives of various genres, such as fiction, film, autobiography, narrative, by women and men of diverse ethnic and racial identities, and incorporating classroom inquiry and community engagement, we will explore the following questions:

What are the major themes and issues of immigrant narratives?

What does it mean to cross borders, and what motivates and causes border crossings? What are the possibilities and problems of border crossings? In what ways do immigrant and diasporic subjects challenge or negotiate boundaries that seek to oppress, exile or constrain?

How do the forces of race, ethnicity, gender and class intersect in the construction of immigrant or diasporic identities? In what ways do immigrant narratives challenge or accommodate the US national discourse of immigrant integration and progress? How does the study of migration, border, and identities shape our understanding of our own histories and identity constructions?

Prerequisites: ENG 110 or W cornerstone.

CS 101 1 INFORMATION, COMPUTERS & THE WEB 3 cr

This course introduces the ways in which information, computers and the Web come together as part of our digital world. Students explore the societal impact of digital resources, how the Web is constructed and access and complete a series of exploratory activities that employ commonly used applications (such as search engines, word processing and presentation software). Emphasis is placed on the ethical use of information and practical applications for life in college and work.

Prerequisites: None.

CS 105 1 DIGITAL LIFE THROUGH MULTIMEDIA 3 cr

Multimedia has emerged as a common thread with which to connect individuals to the digital world. This course uses various multimedia technologies to explore everyday life, the societal impact of digitally produced resources and how the Web is exploited by both individuals and organizations. Emphasis is placed on how multimedia is used for life in college and the world of work.

Prerequisites: None.

This course makes use of library and other instructional resources, including school instructional media programs; students will gain experience in evaluating and using instructional materials and technological resources. Special attention will be given to the concepts of digital citizenship, use of Web 2.0 tools and the ways in which technological standards form the basis for selection of educational tools for pedagogical use.
Prerequisites: ED 200, 201, or concurrent enrollment.

ED 303 X TEACHING AND LEARNING I 3 cr
The first of a two-course sequence to introduce and critically explore models and theories of curriculum, teaching, and assessment. The class will introduce interdisciplinary methods to consider educational issues and tensions in these areas including the relationships between schooling, educational access and equity, and society. Requires formal and informal writing, including reflections on course readings, films, and discussions; peer reviews of written work; and the use of different genres to critically explore tensions in education. Course meets Wisconsin DPI conflict resolution requirement. Primary emphasis on Wisconsin Teacher Standards 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8.
Prerequisites: ENG 110, Preliminary Entry, sophomore standing, ED 200, 201.

ED 304 TEACHING AND LEARNING II 4 cr
The second of a two-course sequence, this course further explores the meaning of curriculum design using an array of fundamental teaching and assessment tools. The aim of this course is to build on the tools and techniques of the previous course and practice designing curriculum for differentiated learning environments, taking account of such things as the impact of readiness level and cultural or other differences in order to meet the needs of all learners in the classroom. Students will be expected to create simulated and real curriculum projects and to ‘test’ these at the practicum site. Course meets Wisconsin DPI conflict resolution requirement. This course will have a primary emphasis on Wisconsin Teacher Standards 3, 4, 5, 7, and 7 and will involve practicum.
Prerequisites: Aspiring Transition, ED 303.

ED 306 EXCEPTIONAL CHILDREN AND YOUTH 3 cr
Addresses the nature of learners who are members of special populations. Examines disabilities and exceptionalities through demographic and characteristic lenses, as well as incidence rates and etiology. Best practice methodologies conclude all analyses. This course will meet both the Wisconsin Teacher Standards 3, 4, 6 and 7 and will involve fieldwork.
Prerequisites: Preliminary Entry level, sophomore standing, ED 200, 201, and 210, 215 or 220.

ED 307 K ENGLISH LANGUAGE LEARNERS 3 cr
This course will provide an historic framework for understanding the social issues and educational barriers facing the teaching of students who are learning English in the mainstream classroom. It’s designed to nurture educational equity for English language learners in the classroom and in the wider school community by addressing the theories of second language acquisition, implications for curriculum and assessment, and research in sociolinguistics relevant to mainstream teacher practices. This course emphasizes the art and science of spoken word, use of language, and oral communication as fundamentally important to the lives of humans. Students will acquire enhanced competence and confidence in language communication, while simultaneously acquiring varying structures for language use and language performance. Appropriate techniques for working with the parents/guardians and families of immigrant and refugee ELL students will also be explored. This course will have a primary emphasis on Wisconsin Teacher Standards 3, 7, and 8 and will involve fieldwork.
Prerequisites: completion of the OS tag or concurrent enrollment in an OS tag course; ED 200, 201 and ED 303 or ED 330.

ED 308 1 WELLNESS IN EDUCATION 3 cr
This course provides interdisciplinary knowledge and skills to integrate concepts of health, nutrition and physical education into the elementary school curriculum. Instruction in developmentally appropriate programs for physical fitness and health promotion will build understanding of personal and community health issues in schools today.
Prerequisites: ED 210, 215, or 220; Child Life major.

ED 324 3 THE HELPING RELATIONSHIP 3 cr
The role of the professional in helping relationships; family- professional partnerships emphasized. Includes skills and methods of communication, personal support, and facilitation; personal assessment of skills needed in helping relationships; including child life, special education, social work, nursing, counseling, and teaching. Cross-listed with PST 324.
Prerequisites: ED 210, 215 and/or 220, or PST 345.

ED 330 4 TEACHING AND LEARNING 4 cr
This course introduces and critically explores models and theories of curriculum, teaching, and assessment. The class will use multi- disciplinary methods to consider educational issues and tensions in these areas including differentiation and the relationships between schools, educational access and equity, and society. Students will engage in formal and informal writing including reflections on course readings, films, and discussions; peer review of written work; and the use of different genres to critically explore tensions in education. ED 421 ORGANIZATION & ADMINISTRATION
EARLY CHILDHOOD PROGRAM 2 cr
The historical framework of early childhood program development and administration as it relates to special education will be discussed. Emphasis will be placed on using published research of successful programs and practices in school systems. Involvement of parents and coordination of community resources will be addressed, and a strong focus will be on staff development and accountability procedures. Legislation, licensing rules, and procedures will culminate the course with a final review of our dedication to serve children and families. Actual site visits will be incorporated into the class schedule. Prerequisite is required.
Prerequisites: ED 419, 420.

ED 422 CURRICULAR INTEGRATION OF ARTS ELEMENTARY 3 cr
This course is based on the principle that integrating art within math, science, social studies, and language arts provides a chance to encounter these fields in ways where imagination creativity, and design play a significant and motivating role. Such art integration is understood as vital for elementary students in experiencing the curriculum as an opening to possibility. Multiple mediums will be explored such as music, drama, poetry, sculpture, puppetry, and painting, but the focus of the class will be on how artistic activity can significantly enhance the student experience within the elementary curriculum.
Prerequisites: ART 106, MUS 141, and Emergent Professional Transition required or approval of the School of Education.

ED 423 METHODS OF SOCIAL STUDIES 3 cr
This course discusses the interrelationships of social studies in elementary and middle level classrooms, and focusing on curriculum and methodology which promote sociological literacy with historical perspective, global interdependence and intergenerational responsibility. A practicum is required.
Prerequisites: Emergent Professional Transition or approval of School of Education.

ED 424 METHODS IN TEACHING YOUNG CHILDREN 4 cr
This course discusses the philosophical and historical foundations of early education as they influence methods of teaching. Early childhood development and basic psychological needs will be discussed in relationship to curriculum planning and methodology. Curriculum planning, methods, and actual development of thematic units and activities; methods of child directed themes according to Reggio Emilia are included; guidance methods including positive practice, non-violence and peace education; classroom settings, recordkeeping, lesson plans, and parent involvement. A practicum is required.
Prerequisites: ED 306 Aspiring Professional Transition or approval of School of Education.

ED 425 METHODS: READING/LANGUAGE ART 4 cr
Use a developmental and integrative approach to consider the four skills of communication: reading, writing, speaking, and listening. Current methods of instruction and curriculum materials for teaching reading and language arts including phonics are explored, implemented, and evaluated. Emphasis is placed on reading, written and oral expression as a part of the psychological/ intellectual processes of growth. Students engage in planning and creating activities, materials, lessons, and units for the elementary and middle level classroom. A practicum in a science setting is required.
Prerequisites: Emergent Professional Transition required or approval of School of Education.

ED 426 METHODS OF TEACHING SCIENCE AND ENVIRONMENTAL EDUCATION 3 cr
For students with approved prior experience, this course explores tools and methods to engage students in scientific and environmental education in the elementary and middle school classrooms. Provides the beginning elementary and middle school teacher with tools to effectively design, organize and implement science instruction in the elementary and middle school. The course includes the study of learning theory, curriculum materials, pedagogy, and methodology specific to the teaching of science and environmental education. A practicum in a science setting is required.
Prerequisites: Concurrent enrollment in Introduction to Natural Science 104 or consent of instructor. Aspiring Professional Transition and Math 101 required or approval of School of Education.

ED 427B METHODS: SCIENCE AND ENVIRONMENTAL ED II 2 cr
This course explores tools of interrelationships between science and environmental education in elementary and middle level classrooms. It is the intent of this course to provide the beginning science teacher with tools to effectively design, organize and implement science instruction in the elementary and middle school. The course includes the study of learning theory, curriculum materials, pedagogy, and methodology specific to the teaching of science and environmental education. A practicum in a science setting is required.
Prerequisites: Concurrent enrollment in Introduction to Natural Science 104 or consent of instructor. Aspiring Professional Transition and Math 101 required or approval of School of Education.

ED 428 METHODS: TEACHING MATHEMATICS 3 cr
Curriculum and instruction in mathematics for elementary and middle level classrooms including appropriate research and practice in curriculum development, teaching methods, instructional materials, and evaluation techniques for the developmental needs of elementary and middle level pupils.
Prerequisites: Emergent Professional Transition and Math 101, 102, and 103 with grades of C or higher, or approval of the School of Education.

Prerequisites: Concurrent enrollment in Introduction to Natural Science 104 or consent of instructor. Aspiring Professional Transition and Math 101 required or approval of School of Education.

ED 438 CURRICULUM & PROGRAMS: INFANT & YOUNG CHILD - DIFFERENTLY ABLE 5 cr
Prerequisites: Emergent Professional Transition or approval of School of Education.

ED 443 CURRICULUM & PROGRAMS: EARLY CHILDHOOD - EARLY ADOLESCENCE 3 cr
Prerequisites: Concurrent enrollment in Introduction to Natural Science 104/105 or consent of instructor. Aspiring Professional Transition and Math 102 required or approval of School of Education.

ED 445 CORRECTIVE READING 2 cr
Prerequisites: Concurrent enrollment in Introduction to Natural Science 104/105 or consent of instructor. Aspiring Professional Transition and Math 102 required or approval of School of Education.

ED 453 METHOD TEACHING ART & DESIGN: EARLY CHILDHOOD - EARLY ADOLESCENCE 3 cr
Prerequisites: Concurrent enrollment in Introduction to Natural Science 104/105 or consent of instructor. Aspiring Professional Transition and Math 102 required or approval of School of Education.

ED 454 BUSINESS METHODS I 4 cr
Prerequisites: Concurrent enrollment in Introduction to Natural Science 104/105 or consent of instructor. Aspiring Professional Transition and Math 102 required or approval of School of Education.

ED 455 BUSINESS METHODS II 3 cr
Prerequisites: Concurrent enrollment in Introduction to Natural Science 104/105 or consent of instructor. Aspiring Professional Transition and Math 102 required or approval of School of Education.
ED 456 METHODS OF TEACHING MUSIC K-8 2 cr
This course is the study of methods and materials for effective work in K-8 settings, including conceptual and philosophical grounding in general music and performance curricula. Practicum included.
Prerequisites: Emergent Professional Transition required or approval of School of Education.

ED 457 METHODS OF TEACHING MUSIC 6-12 2 cr
The study of methods and materials for effective work in 6-12 settings, including conceptual and philosophical grounding in general and performance curricula. Practicum included.
Prerequisites: Emergent Professional Transition required or approval of School of Education.

ED 458 METHOD TEACHING ART: EARLY ADOLESCENCE - ADOLESCENCE 2 cr
Assessment strategies, methods, and materials for teaching and learning art and design in early adolescence through adolescence. Includes a practicum. Must be taken in sequence with ART 466. Cross-listed with ART 468.
Prerequisites: Emergent Professional transition or approval of Art Department and School of Education. History; 459M: Mathematics; 459P: Theatre Arts; 459Q: Oral Interpretation; 459S: Science; 459T: Religious Studies; 459U: Computer Science

ED 459M METHODS: MATH IN SECONDARY SCHOOLS VAR cr
Theory and practice of methodologies. Required for all students seeking Math teaching licensure.
Prerequisites: None.

ED 459P METHODS: THEATRE ARTS: EARLY CHILDHOOD - ADOLESCENCE VAR cr
Theory and practice of methodologies. Required for all students seeking Theatre teaching licensure.
Prerequisites: None.

ED 459Q METHODS: ORAL INTERPRETATION: EARLY CHILDHOOD - ADOLESCENCE VAR cr
Theory and practice of methodologies. Required for all students seeking Theatre teaching licensure.
Prerequisites: None.

ENG 110 W  COLLEGE WRITING 4 cr
This first year course integrates critical reading and writing skills. Course topics will vary, but every section will emphasize academic writing. Students will develop competence in finding and using source materials, and in writing research papers. Individual conferences, peer reading, and revision are some of the essential elements in this process-oriented approach to college writing.
Prerequisites: None.

ENG 111A  FAIRY TALES AS CULTURAL NARRATIVES 4 cr
From the Brothers Grimm to Shrek, this seminar will trace how fairy tales have changed over time and the roles they have played, and how they continue to influence our lives. Some of the specific themes students will address will include the concept of mythological archetypes, cultural distinctions among tales, and the ways that stories change over time as well as the ways that stories create change, gender roles and class structures in fairy tales, and the differences between narrative and film versions of tales.
Prerequisites: Completion of the W tag or concurrent enrollment in a W tag course; this course is for first semester freshmen or transfer students.

ENG 111B  LIFE WRITING 4 cr
This course examines “life writing” not only as a literature genre, but as a tool for exploring one’s own culture, experience and beliefs. Through reading and discussing selected examples of life writing, ranging from conventional autobiographies and memoirs to autobiographical fiction, journals and graphic novels, students will practice skills of literary analysis and interpretation. They will seek out others’ stories, gathering oral histories from members of their families and communities. Finally, students will apply these skills to construct their own life stories, writing personal narratives that articulate their changing identities and perceptions of the world.
Prerequisites: Completion of the W tag or concurrent enrollment in a W tag course; this course is for first semester freshmen or transfer students.

ENG 111C  LIFE WRITING 4 cr
This course will focus on the contemporary graphic novel (a fancy name for novel length comic books) as both a literary genre and as a contemporary cultural product. We will examine the historical context of these works together with the literary and aesthetic devices they employ. Close, active reading will be an integral part of our classroom work. We will identify and become familiar with the different artistic/graphic techniques and literary devices utilized in the texts. An exploration of contemporary (post-1945) graphic novels will serve as a gateway to meaningful examinations of the values, beliefs, and experiences of those in the world around us.
Prerequisites: Completion of the W tag or concurrent enrollment in a W tag course; this course is for first semester freshmen or transfer students.

ENG 111D  TALES OF HUMAN NATURE 4 cr
This course invites students to reflect on the definitions and values of personhood may differ according to a person’s heritage (and claimed group identities). This class seeks to redefine the “classic” Bildungsroman, taking into account portrayals of the diverse and multifaceted novels of today. The course is intended as a gateway to meaningful examinations of the values, beliefs, and experiences of those in the world around us.
Prerequisites: Completion of the W tag or concurrent enrollment in a W tag course; this course is for first semester freshmen or transfer students.

ENG 111E  ECO-FICTION 4 cr
This course explores a variety of representations of human existence in an interdisciplinary way using the approaches of literary studies and philosophy. The course is intended as a stimulation and motivation to continue looking at, understanding, and interpreting human nature in some of its many depictions. We will be reading fairy tales, Gothic novels, Modern/Contemporary Literature and place the readings in the context of Existential thinking. Furthermore, students will be applying our discussions and thoughts through interviews and projects in the community.
Prerequisites: Completion of the W tag or concurrent enrollment in a W tag course; this course is for first semester freshmen or transfer students.

Prerequisites: Completion of the W tag or concurrent enrollment in a W tag course; this course is for first semester freshmen or transfer students.

ENG 111G  COMING OF AGE IN AMERICA: THE MULTICULTURAL EXPERIENCE IN CONTEMPORARY FICTION AND FILM 4 cr
The Bildungsroman, or coming-of-age novel, has a long and distinguished history in American letters. Some critics have even seen the process of grappling with incipient adulthood a topic intrinsically suited to “American” themes of rebellion, individuality, and modernity. From Huckleberry Finn to T.S. Eliot, the argument has held true. But contemporary literature takes on the question of coming of age from diverse racial and ethnic perspectives. The rites of passage, cultural expectations, even the very definitions of adulthood and values of personhood may differ according to a person’s heritage (and claimed group identities). This class seeks to redefine the “classic” Bildungsroman, taking into account portrayals of the diverse and multifaceted novels of today. The course is intended as a gateway to meaningful examinations of the values, beliefs, and experiences of those in the world around us.
Prerequisites: Completion of the W tag or concurrent enrollment in a W tag course; this course is for first semester freshmen or transfer students.

ENG 201  INTRODUCTION TO JOURNALISM 4 cr
A practical introduction to news-gathering and reporting, with attention given to the principles and ethics of journalism. Students will contribute articles to the college newspaper.
Prerequisites: ENG 110.

ENG 202  JOURNALISM PRACTICUM 2 cr
Organization, direction and evaluation of applied experience in journalism with emphasis on publishing news stories and features.
Prerequisites: ENG 201 or permission of instructor.
Gain a sense of the historical development of this literary form. Students will continue to develop the writing skills emphasized in ENG 110. Prerequisites: ENG 110 or W cornerstone.

This course examines a cross section of English and American poetry from the late 16th century to the present day. Students will learn the specialized vocabulary appropriate to the discussion of poetry and will develop the analytical and critical thinking skills necessary to understanding and appreciating it. Toward that goal, we will consider poems - those "well-crafted and appealing artifacts of human wisdom," as William Chace puts it - that challenge expectations and provoke us to grapple with the moral and psychological insights they provide. Prerequisites: ENG 110 or W cornerstone.

Students read short stories, poems, or both by established writers and/or accomplished student writers and write their own short stories, poems, or both. The course aims to develop the student's critical reading skills and encourage the student's own creativity. Prerequisites: ENG 110 or W cornerstone.

Supplies students with the critical tools to analyze, evaluate and interpret literature. This course examines a cross section of English and American poetry from the late 16th century to the present day. Students will learn the specialized vocabulary appropriate to the discussion of poetry and will develop the analytical and critical thinking skills necessary to understanding and appreciating it. Toward that goal, we will consider poems - those "well-crafted and appealing artifacts of human wisdom," as William Chace puts it - that challenge expectations and provoke us to grapple with the moral and psychological insights they provide. Prerequisites: ENG 110 or W cornerstone.

This course is an exploration of the genre of science fiction, which is increasingly popular in both mainstream culture and academic study. Themes such as artificial intelligence, evolutionary change, confrontations with the Other, and ecological responsibility will emerge in our investigation of science fiction. It will quickly become clear that science fiction is about more than galaxies that are far, far away. We will also probe some of the most important issues of our time: technology, gender, globalization, sexuality, multiculturalism, and how to live in peace. Students will write extensively about course materials both inside and outside of class, offer a presentation on an example of science fiction that is not on the syllabus, complete two take-home essay exams, and develop a project paper. Prerequisites: ENG 110 or W cornerstone.

This course is designed to introduce to students contemporary multi-ethnic American literature through the graphic novel as an increasingly significant literary genre for academic inquiry. We will read a number of significant graphic novels by Native American, African American, Latina/o American, and Asian American graphic novelists and will explore such major issues as identity, culture, history, memory, community, race, gender, sexuality, and class. Students will gain knowledge of diverse multi-ethnic experiences and various literary expressions through the genre of the graphic novel. We will develop critical thinking, reading, and writing skills to interpret literary texts. Cross-listed with ETHS 250 CDX. Prerequisites: ENG 110 or W cornerstone.

This course will include an examination of the origins of science fiction and the crime literature genre in a broader historical perspective, drawing on British and American texts and theories. Through the reading of a variety of novels and short stories, as well as viewing of films, the course aims to highlight the ability of the students to engage in analytical and critical thinking, voice coherent argumentation, explore, examine, reason and write academic essays as well as other forms of written expression. The investigation of human issues is relevant to all literature courses; science fiction and crime literature is particularly relevant in its enunciation into human nature for better and worse. This course will focus on the particular Scandinavian response to the above-mentioned questions as portrayed in two popular culture genres and create a global perspective by comparing Scandinavian world views, as expressed in the genres, to those experienced by the students in contemporary USA. Prerequisites: ENG 110 or W cornerstone.
ENG 250G | CX | TOPIC: AMERICAN RENAISSANCE & CONTEXTS 1840-70 4 cr This course will examine the period of vibrant American literary production in the middle of the nineteenth century known as the “American Renaissance.” We will look at how a quickly growing middle-class readership emerged just as writers sought to find a singular voice to bring European literary traditions to bear on distinctly American cultural and political issues such as the nature of American democracy. This course will also consider how the idea of the “American Renaissance” was established and later critiqued.

Prerequisites: ENG 110.

ENG 250X | CX | TOPIC IN LIT: NOIR IN FILM & FICTION 4 cr This course is an introduction to a culture studies approach to popular texts, which literary and other theory is used to study the great themes and issues of culture and civilization. Noir is deeply entangled with gender and race issues in both film and fiction. Students will learn to periodize films and texts into modernist, postmodern, noir, and neo-noir. Students will also learn to translate film into text and apply literary criticism and other theory as we do from our postmodern viewpoint. Overall students will emerge with an educated appreciation of a genre that starts off as uniquely pulp American, then becomes defined by the American cultural and political issues such as the nature of American democracy. This course will also consider how the idea of the “American Renaissance” was established and later critiqued.

Prerequisites: ENG 110.

ENG 250N | CX | TOPIC: ETHNIC LITERATURES 4 cr This course provides a sampling of literatures from different parts of the world. We will focus on several significant Western and non-Western novels of the 20th century and will explore a number of major literary, social and cultural issues through these texts, such as the role of the artist in the modern world; colonialism, decolonization and race; intellectuals and contemporary diaspora; tradition and modernity, sexuality and gender; culturally and gender-specific aesthetic and literary expressions, and the various intersections and interrelations of these issues. We will study these texts from different continents and cultures to examine the role of the individual in modern and contemporary human experiences in a global context.

Prerequisites: ENG 110 or W cornerstone.

ENG 250J | CX | TOPIC IN LIT: NOIR IN FILM & FICTION 4 cr This course is intended to cover classics of world literature in various critical perspectives and theories, including New Criticism, feminism, and deconstruction, exploring them through selected secondary readings and case studies. Students will develop an understanding of the critical frameworks that provide the assumptions, strategies, and governing questions for the practice of interpreting and analyzing the literary and artistic expressions of modern and contemporary human experiences in a global context.

Prerequisites: ENG 110 or W cornerstone.

ENG 260 | TOPICS IN ETHNIC LITERATURES 4 cr This course is designed to address the literary contributions of various ethnicities. Topics will be sub-numbered 260A, 260B, etc.

Prerequisites: None.

ENG 260A | CDX | LIT TOPIC: AMERICAN SLAVE NARRATIVES 4 cr During the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries, slaves of African origin composed a series of autobiographies that revised literary genres to finally give voice to experiences shared by millions forced into bondage over several centuries. As first-person stories with great political and historical significance, slave narratives reflect the inherent disjunction between the American ideal of equality and its continued use of brutal forced servitude. The development of the slave narrative as a literary genre provides a unique perspective on American cultural and political history while acknowledging voices long exiled from the American canon.

Prerequisites: ENG 110 or W cornerstone.

ENG 260K | CX | INTRODUCTION TO WORLD LITERATURE 4 cr This course provides a sampling of literatures from different parts of the world. We will focus on several significant Western and non-Western novels of the 20th century and will explore a number of major literary, social and cultural issues through these texts, such as the role of the artist in the modern world; colonialism, decolonization and race; intellectuals and contemporary diaspora; tradition and modernity, sexuality and gender; culturally and gender-specific aesthetic and literary expressions, and the various intersections and interrelations of these issues. We will study these texts from different continents and cultures to examine the role of the individual in modern and contemporary human experiences in a global context.

Prerequisites: ENG 110 or W cornerstone.

ENG 260Q | M | GX | WORLD LIT: STUDIES IN THE EPIC 4 cr This course is intended to cover classics of world literature in translation, specifically the epic genre. The course may cover Homer's Odyssey, Vergil's Aeneid, Ovid's Metamorphoses, and Dante's Inferno, and will also include fundamentals of literary interpretation.

Prerequisites: ENG 110 or W cornerstone.

ENG 266 | CX | MYTHOLOGY 4 cr A study of myths and their influence on literature and the arts. Works may include the Odyssey, the Aeneid, and the Metamorphoses. Hunter Thompson will be given to the way the presentation of myths changes over time.

Prerequisites: ENG 110 or W cornerstone.

ENG 270A | CX | ADVANCED WRITING 4 cr Writing for specific audiences and purposes. Topics may include professional organizational writing, academic/scholarly writing, or environmental writing.

Prerequisites: None.

ENG 270B | CX | MAGAZINE WRITING 4 cr A workshop course in writing feature articles and longer investigative pieces for magazines and newspapers. Students will read and discuss articles chosen from the best magazine stories of the previous year and brainstorm their own pieces.

Prerequisites: ENG 270 or consent of instructor.

ENG 271 | L | LANGUAGE SOCIETY AND THE INDIVIDUAL 4 cr Students will investigate the different varieties of English and what they mean to the people who speak them. They will reflect on our cultural and political issues such as the nature of American democracy. This course will also consider how the idea of the “American Renaissance” was established and later critiqued.

Prerequisites: ENG 110 or W cornerstone.

ENG 277 | L | MINORITIES IN THE AMERICAN EXPERIENCE 4 cr This course is designed to address the literary contributions of various ethnicities. Topics will be sub-numbered 277A, 277B, etc.

Prerequisites: None.

ENG 278 | THE NEW DOCUMENTARY 4 cr Students will view selected documentaries that reflect the rising status and influence of documentaries in popular film and contemporary society, respectively. Films will be chosen for their social and/or political significance and aesthetic qualities. The socio-political context will be examined through supplemental materials, and the purpose, intended effect, and impact of the films will be examined. Students will learn about the new documentary genre, various documentary film techniques and respond critically to their aesthetics.

Prerequisites: None.

ENG 280 | CX | INTRO TO LITERARY STUDIES 4 cr As a gateway course for the English major, this class provides students with the critical tools to negotiate upper-division coursework. It will define English and its subfields as scholarly disciplines; review fundamentals of literary interpretation; and establish a timeline of literary periods and movements. Further, the course will examine various critical perspectives and theories, including New Criticism, New Historicism, queer and gender studies, psychoanalytic criticism, feminism, and deconstruction, exploring them through selected secondary readings and case studies. Students will develop an understanding of the critical frameworks that provide the assumptions, strategies, and governing questions for the practice of interpreting and analyzing the literary and artistic expressions of modern and contemporary human experiences in a global context.

Prerequisites: ENG 110 or W cornerstone.

ENG 301 | ADVANCED WRITING 4 cr A workshop course in writing feature articles and longer investigative pieces for magazines and newspapers. Students will read and discuss articles chosen from the best magazine stories of the previous year and brainstorm their own pieces.

Prerequisites: ENG 270 or consent of instructor.

ENG 303 | INTRO TO THE STUDY OF LANGUAGE 4 cr Challenges commonly held assumptions about language through an exploration of how we use and perceive our primary medium of communication. Topics include language learning, dialects, language change, language and the brain, conversational interactions, and the basic areas of linguistics: sound, meaning, word building, and word order.

Prerequisites: None.

ENG 304 | GRAMMAR FOR TEACHERS 2 cr Provides a solid base in grammar and the best practices for teaching grammar. Topics include parts of speech, punctuation, phrasal grammar, dialects and education, and cognitive grammar.

Prerequisites: None.

ENG 305 | BX | FICTION WRITING 4 cr This is a writer’s workshop for students interested in writing short fiction. The student’s own original stories will be analyzed and discussed in both peer-review groups and an all-class workshop setting. In addition to writing stories of their own, students will be expected to write short critical responses to all work by their peers. Students will also read and analyze stories by both contemporary and historic writers. Students will explore theories and methods of artistic production, interpretation, and criticism, with the aim of improving their own writing.

Prerequisites: ENG 205 or equivalent course.

ENG 306 | POETRY WRITING 4 cr A workshop course in the writing and critique of poems.

Prerequisites: ENG 205 or consent of instructor.

ENG 308 | BX | ADVANCED WRITING WORKSHOP: WRITING FOR COMMUNITY 4 cr In this course, students will design and produce a major project for a community organization. The project will be writing-based and may include documents in a variety of media. Students will work closely with their community partners, both on the project itself and through at least 20 hours of volunteer work. The course will include document format and design, editing skills, and audience analysis, and will require learning to use basic computer applications such as Adobe InDesign, Photoshop, and MS Expressions Web. Students will also study a set of basic texts on individual ethics and the role of the individual in the community, and will be expected to integrate these readings into formal and informal reflections on their own values, their place in the community, and their role in building a more just and compassionate world.

Prerequisites: COR 1 or equivalent; open to students in their second or third year, or sophomore and above transfers; ENG 110 or W cornerstone.

ENG 309 | THE NEW JOURNALISM 4 cr A study of the transforming movement of the sixties that continues and develops, having given birth to the new non-fictional novel, including truer-than-fiction journalism, using an immersion reporting style that borrows narrative techniques from the traditional novel. Readings include works by such writers as Truman Capote, Norman Mailer, Hunter Thompson, and Tom Wolfe.

Prerequisites: Previous 300 level course or consent of instructor.

ENG 312 | TOPICS IN JOURNALISM 4 cr Topics in journalism, varying by semester. Offerings might include environmental journalism, minority journalism, countercultural journalism, and advocacy journalism, including studies of how subcultures and marginalized interests discourse through media with the constantly changing mainstream in American culture.

Prerequisites: ENG 201 or consent of the instructor.

All possible versions of the course will require attention to how literature represents, reinforces, and/or attempts to subvert social roles associated to gender and sexuality.
Prerequisites: ENG 110.

ENG 327A QM WOMAN IN THE NINETEENTH CENTURY 4 cr
This course examines the social and political roles of women as reflected in literature and by and about women from the late eighteenth through early twentieth centuries.
Prerequisites: ENG 110.

ENG 330 SHAKESPEARE 4 cr
A study of some major tragedies, comedies, and histories introducing students not only to the texts of the plays, but also to the theater, acting traditions, and cultural conditions of the Elizabethan era. The class will focus on the ways in which the Harry Potter books have been perceived and different versions which were revised (often drastically) by his editor, Gordon Lish (“Captain Fiction”). An examination of these drafts will be especially interesting for writing majors and any students interested in the process of revision and editing. We will also read stories by Carver’s acknowledged influences (Anton Chkhikvishvili, Ernest Hemingway, Flannery O’Connor) and his contemporaries in a realist mode (John Cheever, Ann Beattie, Tobias Wolff, Richard Ford).
Prerequisites: ENG 110 or W cornerstone.

ENG 331B CX LITERARY FIGURES: SHAKESPEARE 4 cr
Reading and writing about Shakespeare’s plays.
Prerequisites: ENG 110.

ENG 333 G ENGLISH AS A GLOBAL LANGUAGE 4 cr
One facet of globalization is linguistic globalization, and the increasing prominence of English as the lingua franca of the world is as full of benefits and dangers as it is globalization itself. We will explore the historical context and cultural foundation of the global spread of English as well as the cultural legacy of the language in both English and non-English speaking countries. This will include an examination of the growing prominence of English in different regions of the world including South America, Africa, and Southeast Asia in terms of English varieties or “Globish” as well as the impact English has had on the native languages, national attitudes toward the English language, cultural resistance, economic mobility, and the likelihood that one’s second language will be English to the exclusion of others. We will also study specific settings requiring a common language, such as aviation and travel.
Prerequisites: None.

ENG 338 CX MEDIEVAL LITERATURE 4 cr
A selection of works from British literature before 1485. The course may include Beowulf and Old English poetry, Chaucer, the Gawain-poet, Malory, and a variety of other European works. It will also emphasize social and cultural contexts, historical development, and material and economic context.

ENV – ENVS

ENVS 206 3 EV NATURAL COMMUNITIES 3 cr
An exploration of Wisconsin's wetlands, lakes and streams, prairies, savannas, and forests. In field trips and labs, we practice identifying local plants and animal species and some of the science behind understanding of these biological communities, and support collaborative efforts to preserve our natural heritage. Cross-listed with ENVS 206b. (F/S/S)
Prerequisites: None.

ENVS 275 3 DENDROLOGY 3 cr
The identification of the wild and cultivated woody plants growing in the Great Lakes region. Emphasis is on observation of plant characteristics permitting easy identification, in addition to understanding the ecological and evolutionary relationships of modern civilization, if not our survival as a species, we will examine grassroot movements in different cultures aimed at addressing crises at both the local and global levels, with particular focus on

Environmental Studies (ENVS)

ENVS 101 1 ESR 1 PRINCIPLES OF ETHICS 1 cr
This course introduces the Dominican Liberal Arts tradition: building a more just and compassionate world through the integration of spirituality, study and service, in a community searching for truth. Through grappling with ecological concerns, students discover connections between their own spiritualities and what they are learning about the environment through various disciplines and their active collaboration in making the world a better place. We join Dominicans and others exploring “Is there a way to reverse global warming?” “Who suffers or benefits most from the way things are?” “What is ‘green’ living?” “What will motivate people to reduce our own carbon footprint?” Cross-listed with RS 101 1 ER. (F)
Prerequisites: This course is for first semester freshmen or freshmen transfers.

ENVS 107 3 PHILOSOPHIES OF EARTH 3 cr
What is our relationship to our earth home What is our relationship to our earth home and all the beings who share it? This course and all the beings who share it? This course studies the foundations of western and studies the foundations of western and non-western philosophies in order to examine this and other ecological and cosmological this and other ecological and cosmological questions. Current issues in environmental questions. Current issues in environmental questions. (S)
Prerequisites: PHIL 101.

ENVS 110 3 EPU ENVIRONMENTAL ETHICS 3 cr
What ways of thinking help us participate responsibly in the web of life on earth? This course will help us recognize the interdependence of human and the natural environment and the ways in which these principles of ecological sustainability are essential to building a just and compassionate world. Our course will be built around case studies, other readings, and the chapters of the text. Through the case studies, we will apply critical thinking theory to real life examples and develop an understanding of how these situations affect individuals, the local and larger communities and analyze the situations from the core ethical arguments of utilitarian ethics, virtue ethics, and Kantian ethics as well as the ecological ethical frameworks of light green ethics, dark green ethics, biocentrism, and ecocentrism. We will then identify and argue our personal environmental ethic. This course will help you develop your ability to think philosophically: to think critically about several philosophical traditions in ethics and to apply your abilities and understandings to environmental issues. Cross-listed with PHIL 110. (F)
Prerequisites: This course is for first semester freshmen or freshmen transfers. Other readings, developing project proposals, learning and using research techniques, and putting together student projects. Students will help one another with their projects and will receive direct feedback from the instructor regularly.
Prerequisites: COR 2, ENG 110 and 280.

ENVS 201 3 LIVING SUSTAINABLY IN DOMINICAN STUDY 3 cr
The first of a two-semester, Living & Learning Community which integrates the study and practice of eco-spiritualities and application of the principles of sustainability. Open to students from every religious and spiritual tradition, this LLC integrates the features of the Dominican Student Community: Contemplation, Study, and Mission. The first semester includes weekly seminars, regular gatherings for contemplative rituals and eco-celebrations as well as community meetings to deal with the practicalities of living as sustainably as possible. Students will participate in an “Environmental Justice Retreat” in the first week of the semester and prepare research papers and public presentations for early December. Cross-listed with RS 201. (F)
Prerequisites: COR 1 or equivalent required of students in their second or third year; Students apply in March for admission to the "Sustainable Living and Learning "Studium" in Dominican Hall and register in April for RS 201.

ENVS 202 3 E EARTH-POLITICAL PERSPECTIVES ON ENVIRONMENT 3 cr
In the minds of many scientists and policymakers, there are ultimately no issue of greater importance than sorting out humankind’s relationship to the deteriorating natural environment that sustains all life on earth. In this course, we shall explore how a diverse array of competing political perspectives view this relationship in terms of both the sources of and solutions to the ecological crisis. In investigating these different paradigms and how each constructs the issues, we will come to better understand how these views shape public policy, economic movements, public opinion, and even international relations. Cross-listed with PS 201.
Prerequisites: None.

ENVS 224 3 DRAWING IN NATURE 3 cr
An experiential hands-on course in the study of art and ecology that provides students with the opportunity to draw outdoors and creatively experience the diversity of the Wisconsin landscape. Students will also explore historic and contemporary visual art with concern for global and local environmental issues.
Prerequisites: None.

ENVS 225 3 ENVIRONMENTAL BIOLOGY 3 cr
Humans are intimately connected to the natural world. We not only depend on the environment for our existence and well-being, we are part of the environment and our actions can affect it profoundly. This course explores the connections between humans and our environment by exploring the interrelationships of plants and animals and applying them to the major environmental issues currently faced by humanity. Cross-listed with BIO 250. (F/S/S)

ENVS 216 3 ENVIRONMENTAL GEOLOGY 3 cr
Environmental geology focuses on the interaction between humans and ecological processes that shape Earth’s environment. An emphasis is placed upon both how integral earth processes are to human survival and the fact that humans are an integral part of a complex and interactive system called the Earth System. The study of Environmental Geology brings important knowledge and information to the search for solutions to many of the problems facing humanity today. Challenges such as expanding population growth, resource distribution and use, energy and water availability and earth processes (especially flooding, earthquakes, volcanic eruptions, landslides, etc.) that pose serious risks to life and property are addressed. Possible solutions are explored that work within ecological realties and prioritize the ability to meet the needs of the current population without reducing the options available to future generations.
Prerequisites: None.

ENVS 333 E ECOLOGICAL HISTORY OF CIVILIZATION 3 cr
A global examination of the evolutionary and biological foundations underlying diverse ethnic societies and diverse cultures observed in the modern world. Beginning with human evolution, this course will follow the sweep of human history through the origins of agriculture and the rise of civilization to the modern industrial condition. Focusing on biological and ecological processes and the human decisions that have led to the present, this course also explores the challenges faced by a growing and increasingly globalized human population as we move toward the future. Cross-listed with BIO 333. (F)

Prerequisites: BIOL 151 or consent of instructor.

ENVS 332 ENVIRONMENTAL POLICIES 4 cr
Major issues in environmental policy, including public lands, wildlife, pollution and energy, as well as the role of governmental institutions, interest groups and the public in formulating environmental policy. Offered in alternate years. Cross-listed with ENVS 352. (F)

Prerequisites: None.

ENVS 331 POLICIES OF SPRAWL: LAND USE & TRANSPORTATION POLICY 2 cr
Since World War II, American society has undergone a revolution in the way we live and get around. The suburb is now where most Americans live and is how most get around. Ever-growing development of housing suburban malls at the edges of metropolitan areas, known as suburban sprawl, is increasingly becoming a major local political issue all over the country. This course examines the environmental and social consequences of suburban sprawl and the patterns of mobility associated with it. In doing so, we will closely explore the role of public policies at the local, state, and federal levels in creating, supporting and now questioning this entire system. Cross-listed with ENVS 353. (F)

Prerequisites: None.

ENVS 460 SPECIAL TOPICS: PERMACULTURE DESIGN 2 cr
An intensive 8-week exploration of permaculture design principles and applications, students will learn how thoughtfully planned projects can enhance both people and nature by careful use of resources based on nature’s design. Students will complete a design project.

Prerequisites: Consent of the instructor.

ENVS 469A TOPICS: PERMACULTURE DESIGN 2 cr
An intensive 8-week exploration of permaculture design principles and applications, students will learn how thoughtfully planned projects can enhance both people and nature by careful use of resources based on nature’s design. Students will complete a design project.

ENVS 469B TOPICS: SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT 4 cr
This course provides the foundation for the Sustainability Leadership Program. We introduce major approaches to and measures of sustainability (e.g., ecological design, permaculture, bioremediation, life-cycle costing, triple bottom line, natural capitalism, ecological footprint, bioregionalism, The Natural Step, Transition movement). Students will examine relationships among economic development, and social justice; and apply systems thinking and sustainability principles to specific issues. We also use existing models and team projects to examine how personal values, goals, and communication styles influence our roles as change agents; and we practice a variety of methods (e.g., Socratic Inquiry, Appreciative Inquiry, World Café, Open Space, group decision-making on sustainability issues. This is a mostly residential course designed to create a community of reflective learners, each other in becoming effective as social entrepreneurs and sustainability change agents.

Prerequisites: Admissions into Sustainability Leadership Program or consent of the instructor.

ENVS 469C TOPICS: ECOLOGICAL SUSTAINABILITY 4 cr

ENVS - ETHS

ETHS 204 DH SOCIAL MOVEMENTS IN AMERICAN HISTORY 4 cr
The course examines the processes of social change in U.S. history from the period of Native American and European contact to the 1980s. Emphasis will be placed on analyzing the causes and consequences of “right” movements in American history. Cross-listed with HIST 204 DH.

Prerequisites: None.

ETHS 222 GI INTRO TO CULTURAL ANTHROPOLOGY 4 cr
This course provides an introduction to the nature and diversity of human society and culture through an examination of specific cross-cultural cases. It includes a comparative study of social, political and economic organization, patterns of religious and aesthetic orientations, gender issues, relations with the natural environment, as well as the process of sociocultural persistence and change. Special consideration will be given to the circumstances faced by contemporary small-scale societies. Cross-listed with ANTH 222 GI.

Prerequisites: None.

ETHS 242 CDX LITERATURE OF AMERICAN MINORITIES 4 cr
This course provides an introduction to literatures of ethnic minorities in the U.S., including Native American, African-American, Hispanic-American, and Asian-American literatures. We will read a number of significant 20th-century texts that have shaped ethnic minority traditions and have become part and parcel of American literature. We will explore such major issues as identity, culture, history, race, gender, sexuality, and class. We will examine how these texts present specific ethnic experiences via diverse literary means and innovations and by doing so contribute to American literature and culture. Cross-listed with ENVS 242 CDX. (S)

Prerequisites: ETHS 110 or W coursework.

ETHS 250 THEMES AND ISSUES IN ETHNIC STUDIES VAR cr
A study of historically marginalized racial and ethnic groups in the U.S. through the exploration of various topics, such as ethnic autobiography, leaders, narratives, the Civil Rights movement, Chicano art, or the graphic novel.

Prerequisites: None.

ETHS 250B CDX THEMES: AMERICAN SLAVE NARRATIVES 4 cr
During the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries, slaves of African origin comprised a set of literate and literate and semi-literate individuals that revised literary genres to finally give voice to experiences shared by millions forced into bondage over several centuries. As first-person stories with great political and historical significance, slave narratives reflect the inherent disjunction between the American ideal of equality and its continued use of brutal forms of servitude. The development of the slave narrative as a literary genre provides a unique perspective on American cultural and political history while acknowledging voices long exiled from the American canon.

Prerequisites: ETHS 110 or W coursework.
ETHS 264 Bilingual Education in the USA 3 cr
This course provides an introduction to bilingualism and bilingual education in the United States. It covers the history of bilingual education, the sociolinguistic aspects of bilingualism and bicultural education, and the development of bilingual education programs. Special attention is given to the social construction of racial categories, issues of whiteness, and multicultural identity. Cross-listed with SOC 309 D2.

Prerequisites: None.

ETHS 309 Race & Ethnicity 4 cr
This course engages students in an analysis of historical and contemporary experiences of race and ethnicity in the United States as influenced by changing migration trends and economic developments. Special emphasis is given to the social construction of racial categories, issues of whiteness, and multicultural identity. Cross-listed with SOC 309 D3.

Prerequisites: Consent of the instructor.

ETHS 317 Intercultural Communication 3 cr
This course is the study of how individuals perceive and react to cultural rules, and how these perceptions and reactions affect the ways they communicate with one another. The general goal of the course is for students to develop understanding of the role that identity plays in intercultural communication, develop understanding of how cultural rules affect communication, and learn how cultures differ from each other and how they come together and coexist and develop competence in communication with people of various cultures in the United States and beyond.

Prerequisites: None.

ETHS 325A CDQ Asian American Writers This course offers a study of selected works of various genres (e.g., fiction, drama, memoir, and film) by Asian American women and men of diverse ethnicities. Emphasizing the intersections of race, class, gender, and sexuality, and informed by critical race theory and ethnic studies, the course will explore the following main questions: What are the major themes and issues in Asian American literature and literary studies? What textual strategies do Asian American writers employ to represent Asian American cultural identity? Prerequisites: ENG 110 and sophomore standing.

ETHS 479 INDEPENDENT STUDY
An in-depth exploration of an ethnic studies topic in an area not provided in the current course offerings. Ethnic Studies Program approval and supervisiorial requirements. Prerequisite: Consent of Instructor.

Prerequisites: Consent of Instructor.

ETHS 480 INTEGRATIVE SEMINAR IN ETHNIC STUDIES 1 cr
The seminar integrates advanced research and community-based learning, focusing on selected themes or issues in ethnic studies. Synthesizing the goals of the major and minor, the course applies integrative approaches to the development of multicultural understanding. For two-session topics, students must complete both semesters to satisfy the ETHS 480 requirement. Cross-listed with 300-400 level COR courses approved by Ethnic Studies. (FW/SSS)

Prerequisites: Junior standing or consent of the instructor.

ETHS 480A 2CD INTEGRATIVE SEMINAR: IMMIGRANT NARRATIVES 4 cr
An integrative seminar in ethnic studies, literary studies, and community-based learning, this course investigates, through multidisciplinary lenses, the issues of migration, border, and identities in the United States in the 20th and 21st centuries. Focusing on immigrant narratives of various genres, such as film, fiction, autobiography, and oral narrative, by women and men of diverse ethnic and racial ancestors, and integrating classroom inquiry and community engagement, we will explore the following questions: What are the major themes and issues in immigrant narratives? What does it mean to cross borders, and what motivates and causes border crossings? What are the possibilities and problems of border crossings? In what ways do immigration and diasporic subjects challenge or negotiate boundaries that seek to oppress, exclude or constrain? How do the forces of race, ethnicity, gender, and class intersect in the construction of immigrant or diasporic identities? In what ways do immigrant narratives challenge or accommodate the US national discourse of immigrant identity? How does the study of migration, border, and identities shape our understanding of our own histories and identity constructions? What is our role in building communities committed to cultural pluralism and social justice? Cross-listed with COR 380 2CD.

ETHS 480B 2DP INTEGRATIVE SEMINAR: PHILOSOPHY OF MLK JR 4 cr
This course discusses a shared inquiry into the nonviolent philosophy of M.L.K, Jr. and its relevance both in the Civil Rights Movement and in diverse communities in the U.S. and beyond. Students will study and discuss Dr. King's writings, reflect on their own potential for helping build the "Beloved Community" and engage in relevant service learning projects. Prerequisite: Consent of Instructor.

ETHS 480D 2GR INTEGRATIVE SEMINAR: THE CHALLENGE OF ISLAM 1 cr
The events of 9/11 and other recent radical Muslim terrorist activities worldwide have caused both a growing interest in understanding Islam and an increased animosity toward the faith accompanied by stereotyping and profiling individuals. The presupposition of this course is that the "challenge of Islam" cannot be addressed without understanding Islam's scriptures, values, history, culture, and attitudes toward politics. The challenge can present itself either as an issue to Muslims or one to non-Muslims. All students will complete an experiential component with members of the Muslim community of Madison through individual conversational partners and through dialogue with guest presenters in class. Cross-listed with RS 356 2GR.

ETHS 480E INTEGRATIVE SEMINAR: BRIDGING BORDERS: US/MEXICAN IMMIGRATION 1 3 cr
This course focuses on borders and bridges between the neighboring people of Mexico and the US. We will examine the root causes of Mexican immigration, the rhetoric, cultural practices and public policies that have built physical and symbolic walls between the two countries. We will also learn about the educational and social activist work of "bridging" organizations in the U.S. that have attempted to promote understanding and tolerance and advocate for the human rights of immigrants. Using these bridging models as well as those of Francophone peoples, we will consider how do the study of migration, border, and identities shape our understanding of our own histories and identity constructions? What is our role in building communities committed to cultural pluralism and social justice? Cross-listed with COR 307 3D.

Prerequisites: Any G tag course, COR.

ETHS 480F 2DG INTEGRATIVE SEMINAR: BRIDGING BORDERS: US/MEXICAN IMMIGRATION 2 1 cr
A continuation of ETHS 480E, this Winterim session will involve travel to Veracruz, Mexico. Students must complete both ETHS 480E and 480F in order to meet the requirements for ETHS 480. Cross-listed with SOC 377.

ETHS 481G 4GU CONTEMPORARY GLOBAL FEMINISMS 4 cr
What issues are important to women in different parts of the world? How do these issues relate to one another? What makes an issue “feminist” or not? How do we conceive of feminism in the context of our borders, whether those borders are geographic, political, or personal? What strategies can we employ to understand women lives and concerns in different cultures, locations, and projects such as transnational, diaspora, and migration? Is it possible to actively support feminist causes across the globe without imposing dangerous sets of limiting assumptions? This course is an exploration of the methods, concepts, and experiences of feminism as it is practiced all over the world in different ways. The historical development and cultural mappings of feminisms since the second wave will be our main concern, but we will maintain specificity by focusing on particular locations, and on locational concerns. Three large units will make up the course: feminism and race at the end of the second wave and into the present; postcolonial critiques of feminism and issues of religion, rights, and class in various locations throughout the world; and transnational feminism. Prerequisite: Consent of Instructor. Cross-listed with HIST 480A.

Prerequisites: ENG 110 and W 480.

ETHS 480H INTEGRATIVE SEMINAR: LIBERATION THEOLOGY DIMANCING OF RACISM 2 cr
This course offers an opportunity to identify and develop your personal spirituality through the study of Black Liberation Theology and dismantling racism. You will integrate insights from the philosophy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr, the theologies of Black & Womanist Theologians, and the literary works of African-American authors and poets in reflecting on your own struggle to dismantle racism and help build "the beloved community" envisioned by Dr. King. This is a two-semester sequence course; students must enroll in both the fall and spring sessions in order to meet the ETHS 480 requirement. Cross-listed with RS 309.

Prerequisites: COR 1; junior standing preferred.

ETHS 480I 2DR INTEGRATIVE SEMINAR: LIBERATION THEOLOGY DIMANCING OF RACISM 2 cr
This course is a continuation of ETHS 480H. Students must enroll in both ETHS 480H and 480I in order to meet the ETHS 480 requirement. Cross-listed with RS 309.

Prerequisites: ETHS 480H.

ETHS 489 INTEGRATIVE SEMINAR IN ETHNIC STUDIES 4 cr
This course is a capstone experience for students who have attempted to promote understanding and tolerance and advocate for the human rights of immigrants. Using these bridging models as well as those of Francophone peoples, we will consider how do the study of migration, border, and identities shape our understanding of our own histories and identity constructions? What is our role in building communities committed to cultural pluralism and social justice? Cross-listed with ETHS 313 D.

Prerequisites: Instructor consent.

Prerequisites: GS 290.

GS 350 LONG-TERM STUDY ABROAD: COR 2 1 cr
This two-part course is designed for students who have applied to a study abroad program 5 weeks or longer. To receive the COR 2 and G tags, students must participate in pre-departure meetings in the semester prior to study abroad. Prerequisites for students working with an underserved population:

Prerequisites: GS 350.

GS 351 2G LONG-TERM STUDY ABROAD: COR 2 2 cr
This two-part course is designed for students who have applied to a study abroad program 5 weeks or longer. To receive the COR 2 and G tags, students must participate in pre-departure meetings in the semester prior to study abroad. Prerequisites for students working with an underserved population:

Prerequisites: GS 350.

GS 370 LONDON: THEATER AND ART HISTORY 2 cr
This interdisciplinary and experiential course consists of two parts, the first conducted in weekly meetings during the Fall semester and the second in London, England during the Winterim term. The first part of the course will offer an introduction to the study of theater and art history; and to the social, cultural, and artistic history of London. Course participants will engage in readings and research relating to some aspect of our planned experience. This research will be presented to the rest of the class when we are in London. The two-week study tour to London will provide the opportunity to study culture, theater, and art history in one of the world’s premier cities.

Prerequisites: GS 350, submitted application for a study abroad program.

HI 305 HUMAN ISSUES SEM I 2 cr
This seminar is the first of a two-semester interdisciplinary experiential sequence. Topics are listed in the current Timetable. See HI 405.

Prerequisites: Junior or senior standing.

HI 306 HUMAN ISSUES SEMINAR I 2 cr
First of a two-semester interdisciplinary experiential sequence. Topics are listed in the current Timetable. See HI 406.

HI 307 HI SEMINAR I: VITA 1 cr
This course is the first of a two-semester, academic and experiential series, HI 307 introduces students to different types of tax systems while presenting diverse perspectives on what makes up a fair and just tax system. This course will explore how culture plays a role in the development of tax systems both in the US and internationally. We will also discuss how government uses taxes to influence behavior and promote social goals. During this 8 week session, you will also complete the Department of Revenue certification required to volunteer at the IRS sponsored Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) sites during the spring semester. VITA provides free tax service to clients in need, generally low-income, handicapped and/or the elderly. Cross-listed with BUS 307.

Prerequisites: None.

HI 308 HUMAN ISSUES SEMINAR II: VITA 2 cr
Course includes participation in IRS sponsored Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) Program giving students an opportunity to provide free tax service to clients in need, generally low-income, handicapped and/or the elderly. The course will challenge the student to develop a philosophy on what constitutes a just and compassionate tax system and to understand what the social goals are for a tax system. 50 volunteer hours through VITA is required spring semester for 2 credits; 100 volunteer hours through VITA is required for 3 credits.

Prerequisites: COR I, HI 307.

HI 404 TOPICS IN HUMAN ISSUES VAR cr
This course is a one-semester seminar on a selected topic, which fulfills the Human Issues requirement. This course may be cross-listed with specific academic department. Specific topics are listed in the current timetable.

Prerequisites: Junior or senior standing. Specific offerings may have additional prerequisites.

HI 405 HUMAN ISSUES SEMINAR II 2 cr
Continuation of HI 305. Second of a required two-semester interdisciplinary sequence involving readings, discussion, and reports of studies by seminar members.

Prerequisites: HI 305.

HI 406 HUMAN ISSUES SEMINAR II 1 cr
Continuation of HI 306. Second of a required two-semester interdisciplinary sequence involving readings, discussion, and reports of studies by seminar members.

Prerequisites: HI 306.

<td>Students will learn and apply basic knowledge and skills for working directly with individuals and families (i.e., micro practice). Special attention will be given to the competencies of case management and interviewing, emphasizing communication skills and management of the helping relationship. The generalist perspective from social work will be used in a context of multiculturalism. Professional values and ethics will be employed as guiding principles to micro-practice skills and decisions. In a practice course students should be prepared to take an active role in “hands-on” learning using demonstrations, dyads and small group-work. X-listed with PST 301. Prerequisites: None.</td>

Prerequisites: LAS 380.

Mathematics (MATH)

MATH 098  MATHEMATICAL CONNECTIONS 3 cr
A course in quantitative reasoning that examines the arithmetic of real numbers, geometry, measurement, and algebra using applications and problem solving techniques. This emphasis is placed on exploring these mathematical concepts within the context of global issues.

Prerequisites: None.

MATH 099  MATH WORKSHOP 2 cr
Continuation of Mathematical Connections. Must be taken the semester after MATH 98.

Prerequisites: Consent of instructor.

MATH 101  INTRO TO PROBLEM SOLVING 3 cr
An introduction to problem solving and mathematical thinking; the focus of this course is on the process of mathematics rather than specific techniques or content. Students will engage in mathematical problem solving in a variety of contexts and learn a number of broadly applicable ways of approaching new problems. This course satisfies the M tag General Education requirement.

Prerequisites: Successful score on placement examination or passing grade in MATH 98.

MATH 114A  PRECALCULUS A: ALGEBRA 3 cr
This course prepares for calculus. Topics include: thorough overview of algebraic properties of linear, quadratic, polynomial, rational, exponential and logarithmic functions and their graphs. This course is offered in two different formats: an accelerated 10-week version -- and -- a standard semester-long version. Combined with Pre-calculus B: Trigonometry, during the last five weeks of a semester, the two courses comprise a complete overview of algebra and trigonometry required for calculus. This course satisfies the M tag General Education requirement.

Prerequisites: SAT score of 570 or above on the Math section of the SAT or placement score on the Mathematics Placement Exam (MPE) of 4 or above.

MATH 114B  PRECALCULUS B: TRIGONOMETRY 3 cr
Trigonometry preparation necessary for success in calculus. Topics include: thorough overview of trigonometric functions and their inverses, including identities, graphs, and applications. This course is delivered in an accelerated format, during the last five weeks of the semester. Combined with Pre-calculus A: Accelerated College Algebra, the two courses comprise a complete overview of algebra and trigonometry required for calculus.

Prerequisites: MATH 114A or placement.

MATH 121  M STATISTICS 3 cr
This course is an introduction to statistics which will include data, basic probability, sampling methods, measures of central tendency and dispersion, correlation analysis, and hypothesis testing. This course satisfies the M tag General Education requirement.

Prerequisites: Successful score on placement examination or passing grade in MATH 98.

MATH 122  FINITE MATHEMATICS 3 cr
An introduction to finite mathematics, including linear systems, linear programming, mathematics of finance, probability, and other related topics. This course is designed primarily for business majors. This course does not satisfy the College general education requirement.

Prerequisites: MATH 114A with a grade of C or above.

MATH 231  M CALCULUS I 4 cr
A calculus-based introduction to probability. Topics include: basic probability, discrete and continuous random variables, graphs, and use of probability to make decisions. This course satisfies the M tag General Education requirement.

Prerequisites: MATH 222 with a grade of C or above.

MATH 232  M CALCULUS II 4 cr
An introduction to differential and integral calculus and plane analytic geometry. Derivatives are developed for algebraic functions, logarithmic and exponential functions for various bases, and trigonometric functions and their inverses. The Riemann integral and the first form of the Fundamental Theorem of Calculus are introduced. Definite integrals and anti-derivatives are developed for basic algebraic, exponential, logarithmic, and trigonometric functions. Applications of key concepts are integrated throughout the course. This course satisfies the M tag General Education requirement.

Prerequisites: Successful completion of MATH 114B with a grade of C or above.

MATH 301  U PROBLEM SOLVING & PROOF 3 cr
This course is designed as a gateway to upper-level mathematics courses. The emphasis is on creative problem solving strategies, structure, logical thought, presentation of proofs, and written communication of mathematical ideas. It is designed to ease the transition from algebra and calculus to more theoretical courses such as abstract algebra, geometry and real analysis.

Prerequisites: MATH 231.

MATH 331  DIFFERENTIAL EQUATIONS 3 cr
A calculus-based introduction to probability. Topics include: basic probability, discrete and continuous random variables, graphs, and use of probability to make decisions. This course satisfies the M tag General Education requirement.

Prerequisites: MATH 232 or consent of instructor.

MATH 341  LINEAR ALGEBRA 3 cr
Applications of calculus to topics in the physical world which are modeled well by differential equations. Topics include first order equations, second order and higher linear equations, series solutions, a brief introduction to numerical methods and partial differential equations as time permits.

Prerequisites: MATH 232; MATH 233 highly recommended.

MATH 342  ABSTRACT ALGEBRA I 4 cr
An introduction to the theory of rings, fields, and related algebraic structures. Topics include: groups, rings, and fields; polynomial rings; and vector spaces over fields.

Prerequisites: MATH 331.

MATH 351  PROBABILITY 3 cr
A calculus-based introduction to probability. Topics include: basic probability, discrete and continuous random variables, graphs, and use of probability to make decisions. This course satisfies the M tag General Education requirement.

Prerequisites: MATH 232 or consent of instructor.

MATH 379  INDEPENDENT STUDY - MATHEMATICS 1-3 cr
Independent study of selected topics in mathematics developed by the student with the approval and direction of the instructor.

Prerequisites: Consent of instructor.

MATH 431  REAL ANALYSIS 4 cr
A calculus-based introduction to probability. Topics include: basic probability, discrete and continuous random variables, graphs, and use of probability to make decisions. This course satisfies the M tag General Education requirement.

Prerequisites: MATH 232 or consent of instructor.

MATH 432  COMPLEX ANALYSIS 4 cr
This course continues the study of analysis shifting from the real numbers to complex numbers. Topics include functions of a complex variable, differentiation, integration, residues, and conformal mappings.

Prerequisites: MATH 331, 332. MATH 431 recommended.

MATH 441  ABSTRACT ALGEBRA II 4 cr
This course covers the study of algebra and is focused mainly on group theory, with an introduction to the concepts of rings, fields, and modules. The topics covered include group theory, ring theory, field theory, module theory, and Galois theory.

Prerequisites: MATH 341. MATH 441 recommended.

MATH 451  EXPLORATIONS IN MIDDLE/SECONDARY SCHOOL MATH 4 cr
This course is an introduction to the theory of rings, fields, and related algebraic structures. Topics include: groups, rings, and fields; polynomial rings; and vector spaces over fields.

Prerequisites: MATH 331.

MATH 452  ABSTRACT ALGEBRA II 4 cr
This course covers the study of algebra and is focused mainly on group theory, with an introduction to the concepts of rings, fields, and modules. The topics covered include group theory, ring theory, field theory, module theory, and Galois theory.

Prerequisites: MATH 341. MATH 441 recommended.

MATH 453  EXPLORATIONS IN MIDDLE/SECONDARY SCHOOL MATH 4 cr
This course is an introduction to the theory of rings, fields, and related algebraic structures. Topics include: groups, rings, and fields; polynomial rings; and vector spaces over fields.

Prerequisites: MATH 331.

MATH 454  EXPLORATIONS IN MIDDLE/SECONDARY SCHOOL MATH 4 cr
This course is an introduction to the theory of rings, fields, and related algebraic structures. Topics include: groups, rings, and fields; polynomial rings; and vector spaces over fields.

Prerequisites: MATH 331.
MATH - MUS

MATH 459 TEACHING OF MATH IN SECONDARY SCHOOLS 3 cr
This course is designed to provide an integrative study of curriculum and instruction in mathematics for middle/secondary level classrooms including appropriate research and practice in learning theories, curriculum development, teaching methods, instructional materials, evaluation and assessment at the middle/secondary level. Emphasis will be placed on the NCTM Principles and Standards for School Mathematics and the Common Core State Standards for Mathematics. Cross-listed with ED 459M.
Prerequisites: Praxis I and II and completion of the Emergent Professional Transition.

MATH 461 GEOMETRY 4 cr
An introduction to geometry. Topics include postulate development of Euclidean and non-Euclidean geometry, introduction of other geometries: projective, finite, vector, and transformational, historical development of geometry.
Prerequisites: MATH 301.

MATH 462 TOPOLOGY 4 cr
This course focuses on properties of spaces invariant under homeomorphisms. Topics include continuity, homeomorphisms, connectedness, compactness, manifolds, the classification of closed, compact surfaces, the Euler characteristic, the fundamental group, and knot theory. 15 of odd numbered years.
Prerequisites: MATH 301; 463 recommended.

MATH 479 INDEPENDENT STUDY, MATHEMATICS VAR cr
Independent study and research of selected topics in mathematics developed by the student with the approval and direction of the instructor.
Prerequisites: Consent of instructor.

MATH 485 X MATHEMATICS SEMINAR 3 cr
This course discusses selected topics in mathematics, mathematics education, and applications of mathematics to related fields. With mentoring supervision, student will investigate significant mathematics independently and present findings in oral and written form at a variety of levels and to varying audiences. Student will investigate how topics are situated in the history and development of mathematics as a liberal art, and in the world, and reflect upon the relevance of their own scholarship to their professional goals and values. (F)
Prerequisites: ENG 110 or W Cornerstone. Completion of COR 2 or declares major in Mathematics or Mathematics Teaching, and minor in liberal arts, and in the world; and reflect upon the relevance of their own

Music (MUS)

MUS 000 PERFORMANCE CLASS VAR cr
A requirement for music majors that consists of attendance at a designated number of performance classes each semester. Music majors must pass six semesters, minors three semesters. All students registered in the Theory/Aural Skills sequence Mus 143 through 244, and Mus 344/345 must register for Mus 000 each semester.
Prerequisites: None.

MUS 101 B PIANO CLASS 2 cr
This course is for students with no previous keyboard experience. Students will learn the basics of the keyboard, rhythms, sight-reading, technique, scales, patterns, intervals, piano repertoire from diverse styles and time periods, and the ways in which music comes together as a whole.
Prerequisites: None.

MUS 102 B CLASS PIANO 2 cr
This course is for students who have had previous keyboard experience. Students will continue the development of their sight-reading skills, technical ability, performance of repertoire from diverse styles and time periods, and their understanding of the ways in which music comes together as a whole.
Prerequisites: MUS 101 or consent of instructor.

MUS 103 KEYBOARD SKILLS FOR MAJORS VAR cr
This course will address the skills needed to pass the piano proficiency exam as well as prepare the student to succeed at the next level of private piano instruction, Mus 201.
Prerequisites: None.

MUS 104 PIANO PROFICIENCY 1 cr
All music majors must pass a piano proficiency before graduation. Mus 104 will be the course under which a grade will be entered once the student has completed this piano proficiency requirement.
Prerequisites: MUS 103.

MUS 106 B BEGINNING CLASS GUITAR 2 cr
The purpose of this course is to give students a broad experience with the guitar that touches on a variety of styles, techniques and roles. Students will apply basic elements of music (rhythm, harmony, texture, and melody) to the instrument. They will use both picking and strumming techniques and demonstrate them in performance. They will also listen to diverse styles of music (Classical, Blues, Flamenco, Rock) and play elementary works from those traditions.
Prerequisites: None.

MUS 107 CLASS GUITAR 2 cr
For students that have previous guitar experience and wish to expand their knowledge before beginning private guitar lessons. Students learn technique, scales and rhythms to become more proficient on the guitar.
Prerequisites: None.

MUS 111A BG WEST AFRICAN DRUMMING ENSEMBLE 2 cr
A performance-based drumming class with an emphasis on the role of drumming in a variety of West African cultures and the transformation of such styles in cultures throughout the world.
Prerequisites: None.

MUS 111B BG MIDDLE EASTERN DRUMMING AND CULTURE 2 cr
Students will learn and perform basic techniques on percussion instruments representing a variety of Middle Eastern cultures, and will use the musical experience as a lens through which to view sociocultural issues. ### NATS 101 H5 INTRO TO NATURAL SCIENCE - HONORS 4 cr
All About Water explores water. Water is everywhere: in our bodies, in our food, in our atmosphere and underfoot. We can't live without it! And because we can't live without it, we fight about it, we write legislation regarding it, we try to steal it from each other, and we have turned it into big business. Unfortunately, we have also polluted it and wasted it with little regard to its value to us as individuals and the biosphere as a whole. This course will challenge students to explore and to critically reflect upon their personal values, beliefs, and worldviews in the context of decision making. It utilizes an inquiry-based approach to investigate how we use and abuse water, the importance of informed decision making, and our personal responsibility to our world. Cross-listed with GEOS 101 (F). Prerequisites: This course is for first semester freshmen or freshmen transfer students.

NATS 104 H5 INTRO NATURAL SCIENCE - HONORS 4 cr

NATS 104 S INTRO TO NATURAL SCIENCE FOR ELEMENTARY EDUCATION 4 cr
This course is for Elementary Education majors only. The first of a two-semester sequence in the natural sciences which integrates basic principles in the physical and biological sciences. The course sequence focuses on a scientific view of the evolution of the physical universe from its origin to the development of living systems. The course sequence includes concepts in physical, earth, biological, and environmental sciences. The course is designed for students majoring in Elementary Education, and does not serve as a prerequisite for other courses in chemistry, biology, or geoscience, except by special permission of the instructors. The course focuses on three major elements of science as a discipline: 1) the nature and scope of science (science as a “way of knowing,” what science is and how it works; what makes science different from other disciplines), 2) the relationship between science and society (science and technology; the usefulness and limitations of science in society), and 3) the practice of science (hypothesis-testing and theory formation; experimental design; data collection and analysis). All three of these elements are approached.
using specific science content from different sciences, including biology, ecobiology, natural science, chemistry, physics, earth science, and astronomy. (S)

NATS 105 ES INTRO TO NATURAL SCIENCE 4 cr
This course is for Elementary Education majors only. The second semester of a two-semester sequence in the natural sciences which integrates basic principles in the physical and biological sciences. The course sequence focuses on a scientific view of the evolution of the physical universe from its origin to the development of living systems. This course is designed for students majoring in Elementary Education, and does not serve as a prerequisite for courses in chemistry, biology, or geoscience, except by special permission of the instructors. (ES)

Prerequisites: Placement into ENG 110; completion of MATH 102; supplementary work in science problem-solving is required if proficiency is not demonstrated; completion of NATS 104; concurrent enrollment in ED 427B.

NATS 108 ES REAL WORLD SCIENCE 4 cr
This is a course intended for non-science majors that explores the science behind real world issues and concerns. Topics covered include human health, nutrition, safety, radiation, space exploration, and natural disasters. The course is integrated and interdisciplinary, and includes basic principles of the physical and biological sciences. Concepts from astronomy, biology, chemistry, cosmology, geology, and physics are used throughout the course.

Prerequisites: ENG 110 placement.

NATS 109 ES MORE REAL WORLD SCIENCE 4 cr
This is a course intended for non-science majors that explores the science behind real world issues and concerns. Topics covered include human health, nutrition, safety, radiation, space exploration, and natural disasters. The course is integrated and interdisciplinary, and includes basic principles of the physical and biological sciences. Concepts from astronomy, biology, chemistry, cosmology, geology, and physics are used throughout the course.

Prerequisites: ENG 110 placement.

NATS 110 F5 HONORS NATURAL SCIENCE I 4 cr
Prerequisites: None.

NATS 111 F5 HONORS NATURAL SCIENCE II 4 cr
Prerequisites: None.

NATS 250 PV HISTORY & PHILOSOPHY OF SCIENCE 3 cr
This course provides an introduction to the nature of scientific knowledge, the process and products of scientific inquiry, and the philosophical implications of science and its development. Introduces students to philosophical ways of thinking and arguing within the natural sciences and seeks to develop an appreciation of the scientific enterprise. In addition, the course addresses the history of science, the role of scientific revolutions, the motivations of scientists, and the exploration of the natural world as a human activity.

Prerequisites: PHIIL 101; or consent of instructor.

NATS 292 BIOLOGY EXCERPTS 3 cr
Science learning experiences occur in the classroom, in the laboratory, and in the field. In this experience-based course, students discover and study the study of notable scientific revolutions, the motivations of scientists, and the exploration of the natural world as a human activity.

Prerequisites: PHIL 101; or consent of instructor.

NATS 292 BIOLOGY EXCERPTS 3 cr
Science learning experiences occur in the classroom, in the laboratory, and in the field. In this experience-based course, students discover and study the study of notable scientific revolutions, the motivations of scientists, and the exploration of the natural world as a human activity.

Prerequisites: PHIL 101; or consent of instructor.

NATS 294 2 SCIENCE IN ACTION 3 cr
This course is for students who are interested in how science can be communicated to the community at large. Students will examine the roles of the scientists and science educators in society. Topics for discussion will include: ethical and controversial issues in science, the various ways scientific knowledge is conveyed to the public, and how the general public uses science in their lives. Students will have the opportunity to share their experience with science with the local community, and engage community members in science outreach activities. Through intensive community engagement, students will develop a sense of the role scientists and science educators play in the community at large.

NATS 459 TEACHING SCIENCE IN MIDDLE/SECONDARY 3 cr
This course is the study of the theory and practice for teaching science in the middle and secondary schools. It provides tools a beginning teacher needs to effectively make decisions, use materials, and teach science at the secondary level. Practicum required. (F)

NATS 519 4 PROFESSIONAL NURSE: ADULT HEALTH 4 cr
Nursing care addressing the management of psychosocial and physiological care of hospitalized adults is discussed within a framework of acute illness. Integration of behavioral science, pathophysiology, and pharmacology into nursing care is emphasized along with concepts related to wellness and health promotion while living with a chronic illness. (F/S)

Prerequisites: NRS/RNRS 310, 311, 312, NRS/RNRS 315; Concurrent registration with: NRS/RNRS 341, NRS/RNRS 390; or prerequisite or concurrent PSY 345.

NRS 315 CARING: ADULT HEALTH NURSING LAB 1 cr
This course will help participants to become culturally competent, long-term learners, and active citizens in our global world. The clinical component will enhance assessment skills, cultural competency, and develop critical thinking. The education component will provide real life teaching experiences for students working with an underserved population.

Prerequisites: COR 1 or equivalent, sophonome standing.

NRS 399 3 COLLABORATIVE PRACTICE-LONG TERM 4 cr
Managing nursing care with individuals and families experiencing complex, long-term health problems. Development of interprofessional collaborative skills; collaborative planning, and leadership skills are emphasized. (F/S)

Prerequisites: NRS/RNRS 310, 311, 312, 315, BIO 410; Concurrent registration with: NRS/RNRS 340, prerequisite or concurrent PSY 345.

NRS 442 PROFESSIONAL NURSING: OLDER ADULT 2 cr
The complex interaction of acute and chronic health conditions experienced by older adults is addressed within the context of health promotion, health maintenance and health restoration. Provision of necessary care is examined using principles of interdisciplinary team management.

Prerequisites: NRS/RNRS 310, NRS/RNRS 311, NRS/RNRS 312, NRS/RNRS 390; Concurrent registration with: NRS/RNRS 340, NRS/RNRS 390.

NRS 390 RESEARCH IN PROFESSIONAL NURSING 3 cr
Introduction to methods of inquiry including interpretive and empirical approaches. Basic statistical measurements are studied in
NRS 430 HOLISTIC APPROACHES TO HEALING 3 cr
This course examines the relationship of the body, mind, and spirit within the field of health, healing, and nursing. A variety of complementary therapies will be discussed and demonstrated including conscious breathing, meditation, body-centered therapy, guided imagery, therapeutic massage, homoeopathy, Chinese medicine, movement therapy, energy medicine, and therapeutic nutrition. Course is open to non-nursing majors.
Prerequisites: None.

NRS 440 ADULT HEALTH: ADVANCED CONCEPTS IN ACUTE CARE 2 cr
Theory course addressing nursing care of adults in high acuity settings and experiencing multisystem illness. Integration and application of biological sciences is emphasized to advance baccalaureate generalist nursing knowledge.
Prerequisites: NRS/RNRS 340, NRS/RNRS 341, NRS/RNRS 390; Concurrent registration with: NRS/RNRS 440, NRS/RNRS 460.
$90 course fee.

NRS 460 PROFESSIONAL NURSING: HEALTH OF COMMUNITIES 4 cr
Nursing concepts are integrated with those of public health science to promote the health of aggregates in the community. The role of nursing in affecting health care policy, finance and regulatory environments is examined.
Prerequisites: NRS/RNRS 340, NRS/RNRS 341, NRS/RNRS 390; Concurrent registration with: NRS/RNRS 410, NRS/RNRS 411; Concurrent registration with: NRS/RNRS 440, NRS/RNRS 460.
$90 course fee.

NRS 461 NURSING CARE WITH AGGREGATES 4 cr
Clinical course addressing the nursing care of culturally diverse families, aggregates, and communities. Nursing skills in health assessment, education, and health promotion are extended to include groups in communities. Developing and maintaining community partnerships is emphasized.
Prerequisites: NRS/RNRS 410, NRS/RNRS 411, NRS/RNRS 412; Concurrent registration with: NRS/RNRS 440, NRS/RNRS 460.
$90 course fee.

NRS 470 STRATEGIES FOR SUCCESS 1 cr
Independent study and in-class study designed for senior level students to promote success for first-time state board licensure examinees, looking at test taking strategies and study techniques.
Prerequisites: Senior standing and consent of the instructor.
$90 course fee.

NRS 479 INDEPENDENT STUDY - NURSING 1 cr
Prerequisites: Consent of instructor.

NRS 500 UNDERGRADUATE STUDENT LEADERSHIP 4 cr
The purpose of this course is to provide students with the knowledge and skills necessary to become effective leaders in the profession of nursing. The course will be divided into three parts: awareness of leadership concepts, exploration of leadership style, and application of leadership tools.

This course will help us recognize the interdependence of human society and the natural environment and the ways in which principles of ecological sustainability are essential to building a just and compassionate world. Our course will begin with developing an understanding of the multidisciplinary context of environmental ethics, and then we will explore fundamental worldviews of our relationship with and responsibility to the natural world. We will then look at specific areas of concern and case studies where you will be given the chance to examine an issue from different philosophical perspectives.

This course will develop your ability to think philosophically; to understand several philosophical traditions in ethics; and to apply your abilities and understandings to environmental issues. Cross-listed with ENVY 110.

Prerequisites: PHIL 101.

PHIL 250 PV HISTORY & PHILOSOPHY OF SCIENCE 3 cr
History and Philosophy of Science is an introduction to the nature of scientific knowledge, the philosophical implications of science, development of science as we know it today, along with some of the processes and products of scientific inquiry. In addition, the course addresses the history of science through the study of notable scientific revolutions and the exploration of the natural world as a human activity.

The goals of the course include: introducing students to philosophical ways of thinking and arguing within the natural sciences and student development of a philosophical appreciation of the scientific enterprise. Cross-listed with NATS 250.

Prerequisites: PHIL 101 or consent of instructor.

PHIL 305 PHILOSOPHICAL THEMES VAR cr
Exploration of such topics as the human use of leisure and work, technology, mass media and the arts, cross-cultural philosophical issues.

Prerequisites: PHIL 101.

PHIL 306 GP PHILOSOPHY OF PEACE WITH JUSTICE 4 cr
Philosophy of justice explores 5 key philosophies, the just war theory, nationalism, Gandhian Nonviolence, “Holy War”, and global governance and the UN. The course normally includes a service-learning project and a travel seminar to NTC to visit the UN and various peace organizations.

Prerequisites: PHIL 101.

PHIL 307 ZDP THE PHIL. OF MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. 4 cr
This course is a shared inquiry into the nonviolent philosophy of M.L. King and his relevance both in the Civil Rights movement and in diverse communities in the U.S. and beyond. Students will study and discuss Dr. King’s writings, reflect on their own potential for helping build the ”Beloved Community,” and engage in relevant service learning projects such as Amnesty International, the United Nations Association, and Fair Trade issues. If funds are available, we may travel to the Civil Rights Museum in Memphis. Cross-listed with HI 404A & EThS 307.

Prerequisites: COR 1 or equivalent; open to second or third year students or sophomore and above transfers; completion of the T Tag or concurrent enrollment in a T Tag course.

PHIL 400 METAPHYSICS 3 cr
This course examines questions concerning ultimate reality and the purpose of existence. Perspectives from various eras, cultures and philosophical traditions will be examined.

Prerequisites: PHIL 101 and one T Tag course.

PHIL 401 SELECTED PHILOSOPHERS VAR cr
In-depth concentration on one or two philosophers, selected in response to student interest.

Prerequisites: PHIL 101 and one T Tag course.

PHIL 479 INDEPENDENT STUDY - PHILOSOPHY VAR cr
Research in a philosophical theme related to a student’s major field.

Required of philosophy minors.

Prerequisites: PHIL 101 and one T Tag course.

PHYSICS (PHYS)

PHYS 130 S GENERAL PHYSICS I 4 cr
The first semester of a two-semester introductory physics sequence primarily designed for those who do not need a calculus-based course. The first semester includes principles of mechanics, heat, and sound and their applications. Three two-hour sessions per week. (FS)

Prerequisites: MATH 114A; MATH 114B or equivalent recommended.

PHYS 131 S GENERAL PHYSICS II 4 cr
The second semester of a two-semester introductory physics sequence primarily designed for those who do not need a calculus-based course. The second semester includes principles of electricity and magnetism, optics, and modern physics and their applications. Three two-hour sessions per week. (FS)

Prerequisites: PHYS 130, MATH 114A; MATH 114B or equivalent recommended.

PHYS 201 S COLLEGE PHYSICS I 4 cr
This course is the first of the two-semester calculus-based introductory physics sequence designed for pre-engineering, mathematics, and other science majors. It includes main principles of mechanics and their applications and is taught in integrated lecture-lab format in three two-hour sessions per week. The core of the curriculum is the study of motion with various levels of complexity. Some specific topics include: Kinematics in one and two dimensions, dynamics and Newton’s laws of motion, work, energy and conservation of energy, linear momentum and collisions, and rotational kinematics and dynamics.

Prerequisites: MATH 231 and concurrent registration or prior completion of MATH 232 or equivalent.

PHYS 202 S COLLEGE PHYSICS II 4 cr
This course is the second of the two-semester calculus-based introductory physics sequence designed for pre-engineering, mathematics, and other science majors. It is taught in three two-hour sessions per week in integrated lecture-lab format. This course mainly includes principles of electricity and magnetism and their applications.

Prerequisites: PHYS 201 or equivalent and concurrent registration in or prior completion of MATH 233.

PHYS 220 V INTRO HUMAN BIOMECHANICS 3 cr
Biomechanics is a field which uses mathematical analysis to investigate biological systems. Students will learn what is known about the anatomy and physiology of the body, and physics to investigate problems. It is an increasingly popular field of study, as it has applications in health, prosthetic design, ergonomics, athletics, and computer gaming. Students who complete this course will study the methods that are currently investigated in using biomechanical problems involving human systems. Examples will be drawn from such diverse fields as astrophysics, physics, chemistry, earth science, biology and mathematics.

Prerequisites: MATH 232 or equivalent or instructor consent.

PHYS 300 V METAPHYSICS 3 cr
In-depth concentration on one or two philosophers, selected in response to student interest.

Prerequisites: PHIL 101 and one T Tag course.

PHYS 400 METAPHYSICS 3 cr
In-depth concentration on one or two philosophers, selected in response to student interest.

Prerequisites: PHIL 101 and one T Tag course.

PHYS 401 SELECTED PHILOSOPHERS VAR cr
In-depth concentration on one or two philosophers, selected in response to student interest.

Prerequisites: PHIL 101 and one T Tag course.

PHYS 479 INDEPENDENT STUDY - PHYSICS VAR cr
Research in a philosophical theme related to a student’s major field.

Required of philosophy minors.

Prerequisites: PHIL 101 and one T Tag course.

PHYS 250 V SURVEY OF ASTRONOMY 4 cr
Modern exploration of the physical universe. Topics include the sky and celestial motions, our solar system, nebulae, galaxies, and cosmology with emphasis on origin and evolution.

Prerequisites: MATH 114A.

PHYS 300 MATH METHODS OF PHYSICS 3 cr
Mathematics is an integral part of the study of physics. This course will be examined in greater detail using the tools of calculus to examine physical problems from classical mechanics, electricity, and magnetism. Focus will be an interpretation of graphs, basic differential equations, and vector analysis of physical problems. Students will use the tools and language of mathematics to understand physics.

Prerequisites: PHYS 131 or 202, MATH 231, and concurrent registration or prior completion of MATH 232.

PHYS 310 PRINCIPLES OF MECHANICS 3 cr
Origin and development of classical mechanics; mathematical techniques, especially vector analysis; conservation laws and their relation to symmetry principles; brief introduction to orbit theory.

Prerequisites: PHYS 201 or 202, PHYS 250 and concurrent registration in or prior completion of MATH 331 highly recommended.

PHYS 320 ELECTROMAGNETISM 3 cr
Electromagnetic fields, capacitance and dielectrics, magnetostatics, electromagnetic induction, Maxwell’s equations.

Prerequisites: PHYS 310 and MATH 331.

PHYS 350 COMPUTING IN PHYSICS 3 cr
Introduces computing tools useful in solving scientific problems. Considers a variety of techniques of tackling scientific calculations such as spreadsheets, symbolic packages, and using any suitable programming language(s). Topics will include elementary theory of errors, solution of algebraic equations, roots of polynomials, differentiation and integration of functions, and Euler’s method. Examples will be drawn from such diverse fields as astronomy, physics, chemistry, earth science, biology and mathematics.

Prerequisites: MATH 232 or equivalent or instructor consent.

PHYS 360 MODERN PHYSICS 3 cr
Introduction to the mathematical methods and applications to atomic, solid state, and nuclear physics and chemistry. Three lectures per week. Cross-listed with CHEM 360.

Prerequisites: PHYS 2025 or equivalent; concurrent registration in or prior completion of PHYS 331 is highly recommended.

PHYS 361 THERMAL PHYSICS 3 cr
Introduction to the mathematical methods and applications to atomic, solid state, and nuclear physics and chemistry. Three lectures per week. Cross-listed with CHEM 361.

Prerequisites: CHEM 112/F5 and PHYS 2025 or instructor consent.

PHYS 379 INDEPENDENT STUDY - PHYSICS VAR cr
Independent study of selected topics in physics conducted by the student with the approval and supervision of the instructor.

Prerequisites: Consent of instructor.

PHYS 469 SPECIAL TOPICS IN PHYSICS VAR cr
Selections in advanced study of special current interest in physics and related fields. Seminar/discussion format.

Prerequisites: Consent of instructor.

PHYS 479 INDEPENDENT STUDY - PHYSICS VAR cr
Independent study of selected topics in physics conducted by the student with the approval and supervision of the instructor.

Prerequisites: Consent of instructor.

PHYS 489 UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCH VAR cr
Opportunities are available for students to engage in physics research, in conjunction with collaborative student-faculty research projects or with projects done with researchers from various governmental agencies.

Prerequisites: Consent of instructor.

Political Science (PS)

PS 201 E DEBATING THE EARTH: POLITICAL PERSPECTIVES ON ENVIRONMENT 4 cr
In this course, we shall explore how a diverse array of competing political perspectives view the relationship of humans to the natural environment in terms of both the sources of and the solutions to our current ecological crisis. In investigating these different paradigms and how each constructs the issues, we will come to better understand how these views shape public policy, political movements, public opinion, and even international relations. Cross-listed with ENVY 201.

Prerequisites: None.
Prerequisites: None.

PS 279 INDEPENDENT STUDY - POLITICAL SCIENCE VAR cr Consent of Instructor.

Prerequisites: Consent of instructor.

PS 301 POLITICAL IDEAS 4 cr

Explores the major political ideologies of the modern and contemporary era, as well as the political thinkers who played a role in developing and articulating such ideas. The role of these ideologies in shaping both historical and current events.

Prerequisites: None.

PS 342 AMERICAN FOREIGN POLICY 4 cr

Focuses on the United States and its relations with other nations, with emphasis upon the forces that determine contemporary American foreign policy. Cross-listed with HIST 342.

Prerequisites: None.

PS 343 CONSTITUTIONAL POLITICS 4 cr

Examines the political issues and conflicts that arise as society attempts to apply and interpret the US Constitution, especially as it regards civil rights and civil liberties. This would include such controversies as censorship, the rights of the accused, abortion, affirmative action, discrimination, privacy, and federalism. The roles played by the Supreme Court, the rest of the federal judiciary, state courts, Congress, the President, private interests, and public opinion. Notable past constitutional cases that helped shape current interpretations of the Constitution.

Prerequisites: None.

PS 350 PUBLIC POLICY PROCESS 2 cr

How policy decisions are made in the American political system. Attention will be paid to models of policymaking, the roles of specific actors in the policymaking realm, and the various stages of the policymaking process. Offered every three years.

Prerequisites: None.

PS 351 SELECTED ISSUES IN PUBLIC POLICY VAR cr

This course will explore the structure and conduct of politics cross-nationally and examine some of the commonalities and differences among politics and political systems around the world.

Prerequisites: None.

PS 352 EJ ENVIRONMENTAL POLITICS 4 cr

This course examines the political dynamics that underlie environmental policymaking in the United States. Major issues in environmental policy, including public lands, wildlife, pollution and energy will be examined, as well as the role of governmental institutions, interest groups and the public in formulating environmental policy. Cross-listed with ENV 352. (S of alternate years)

Prerequisites: None.

PS 353 EJ POLITICS OF SPRAWL: LAND USE & TRANSPORTATION POLICY 2 cr

This course examines the environmental and social consequences of suburban sprawl and the patterns of mobility associated with it. In doing so, we will closely explore the role of public policies at the local, state, and federal levels in creating, supporting and now questioning this entire system. Cross-listed with ENVS 353. (S of alternate years)

Prerequisites: None.

PS 354 EJ THE PRESIDENT & THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH 4 cr

The structure and nature of the Presidency and the executive branch. The history, political behavior and functions of the executive office and its relationships to Congress, the bureaucracy, the media, interest groups, and the American people; the theory and practice of public administration within the executive branch. (S of alternate years)

Prerequisites: None.

PS 355 EJ CONGRESS & LEGISLATIVE POLITICS 2 cr

The structure and behavior of legislative bodies, especially the U.S. Congress. In addition, theories of representation, the role of constituents, and the legislative's complex relationship to the other branches of government. (S of alternate years)

Prerequisites: None.

PS 356 EJ STATE AND LOCAL POLITICS 2 cr

The process of governing at the state and local levels here in Wisconsin and the unique problems that are associated with state and local government. Special emphasis is placed on intergovernmental relations and how these influence state and local politics. (S of alternate years)

Prerequisites: None.

PS 357 INDEPENDENT STUDY - POLITICAL SCIENCE VAR cr

A course that enables students to become involved with faculty doing empirical research on a wide variety of topics in political science. The major goal of this course is to provide students the field of political science with an understanding of development from conception through adolescence. Major topics include cognitive development, language development, political development, social development, and contexts of development. Two main questions guide the course: how do children develop the knowledge, skills, and personality characteristics that allow them to become successful adults and how do differences in children come about?

Prerequisites: None.

PS 359 INDEPENDENT STUDY - POLITICAL SCIENCE VAR cr

A different topic in psychology will be examined in each topic course.

Prerequisites: Consent of instructor.

PS 360 EJ POLITICAL PARTIES & INTEREST GROUPS 4 cr

This course looks at the nature and function of two types of political organizations which influence American government: political parties and interest groups. Their structure, roles and behavior will be examined as will the process of political action in general. (F every three years)

Prerequisites: None.

PS 361 EJ INTERNATIONAL LAW AND ORGANIZATIONS 4 cr

Examines selected problems in American government at the national, state, and federal levels in creating, supporting and now questioning this entire system. Cross-listed with ENVS 353. (S of alternate years)

Prerequisites: None.

PS 362 EJ POLITICAL SCIENCE AND THE MEDIA 2 cr

An examination of the role of mass media in political life, especially TV and radio. The course will survey theories and research in learning and memory and the implications of their implications in educational, therapeutic, and other applied behavior change settings. Topics included are classical and operant conditioning, cognitive behavioral theories and neurotransmitters, social learning, memory, other selected topics.

Prerequisites: PSY 101.

PS 363 EJ INDEPENDENT STUDY - POLITICAL SCIENCE VAR cr

A different topic in psychology will be examined in each topic course.

Prerequisites: Consent of instructor.

PS 364 EJ SEMINAR IN POLITICAL SCIENCE VAR cr

A seminar that explores specific contemporary issues in political science.

Prerequisites: None.
gendered behavior, including developing gender identity, myths and stereotypes associated with masculinity and femininity, issues related to gender differences in men and women, including sexuality, the family, health, mental health, cognition. Cross-listed with WS 287.

Prerequisites: None.

PSY 300 PSYCHOLOGY OF PERSONALITY 4 cr

This course is an introduction to major theories and empirical research in the field of personality psychology. Topics include the dynamics, structure, and assessment of personality, as well as personality development and change. Biological and socio-cultural influences on personality will be considered.

Prerequisites: PSY 101 J.

PSY 301 CASE MANAGEMENT 4 cr

Basic knowledge and skills for working directly with individuals and families (ie., micropractice). Special attention will be given to the competencies of case management and interviewing, emphasizing communication skills and management of the helping relationship.

The generalist perspective from social work will be used in a context of multiculturalism. Professional values and ethics will be employed as guiding principles to micropractice skills and decisions. In a practice course students should be prepared to take an active role in “hands-on” learning using demonstrations, dyads and small group-work. X-listed with HS 301.

Prerequisites: None.

PSY 310 PSYCHOLOGY OF INTIMATE RELATIONSHIPS 4 cr

Emphasizing the unique role of the individual in the context of intimate others, this course examines marriage and family life from theoretical, empirical and applied perspectives. Topics covered include definitions of intimacy, as well as the family as an institution and the dynamics of family life, families in cultural context, dating and mate selection, sexual intimacy, gender roles and power, communication and conflict resolution, premarital sex, gender, divorce, single parenting, and stepfamilies. Practical principles intended to maximize individual growth and strengthen marriages and family relationships will be considered.

Prerequisites: PSY 101 J.

PSY 315 PARENT-CHILD RELATIONSHIPS 4 cr

This course examines fundamental issues and special topics in parent- child relationships in a variety of contexts and across the life-span. We explore the transformation in this relationship starting with pregnancy and childbirth, and continuing through the years of early and middle childhood, adolescence, and emerging adulthood. While the primary goal of this course is to give students an understanding of the biological, social, and cultural characteristics which influence the parent-child relationship, we will also focus on the interpersonal influences of parents and children (the influence of parents on the development of their children as well as the influence of children on the adult development of their fathers and mothers). The text provides a broad, comprehensive survey of the current theory and empirical research on parenting and parenthood. During the course of the semester we will supplement this comprehensiveness with in-depth coverage of a smaller number of topics, including: adolescent delinquent behavior, the transition to and timing of parenthood, hardship, same-sex parenting, parenting children with special needs, and divorce; issues related to parenting will be challenged to integrate theory, research findings, and their own attitudes and experiences as they consider a variety of parenting issues relevant in an ever-changing society.

Prerequisites: Consent of the instructor.

PSY 340 ABNORMAL PSYCHOLOGY 4 cr

This course is a comprehensive survey of the current theory and empirical research on abnormal behavior and modes of treatment which logically followed from such explanations.

Prerequisites: PSY 101 J.

PSY 345 LIFESPAN DEVELOPMENT 4 cr

An integrative study of the processes and major influences throughout the human experience from the beginnings of life through aging. Learning, cognitive, self-actualization theories as well as the psychoanalytic tradition will be examined.

Prerequisites: PSY 101 J or consent of instructor.

PSY 349 SOCIAL PSYCHOLOGY 4 cr

This course is an overview of theories and research pertaining to the interaction and reciprocal influences between individuals and their societal context. It includes such topics as helping behavior, attribution, group processes, attitude change, racism, sexism, obedience/compliance, and aggression/violence (and others). Emphasis will be placed on both the major thinking in these areas and experimental investigation of these notions. Cross-listed with SOC 349.

Prerequisites: PSY 101 J or consent of instructor.

PSY 350 DRUG USE, ABUSE AND DEPENDENCE 4 cr

Overview of the ways that substance abuse impacts on individuals, families and society. Various models of abuse and addiction will be discussed, with an emphasis on the Biopsychosocial model. This model appraises how biological, genetic, developmental, psychological, environmental, historical and cultural factors all interact to explain substance use, abuse and dependence. Providing the required treatment and aftercare should be all part of one seamless process. Various assessment instruments, interviewing methods, and diagnostic tools will be reviewed. Included will be a full discussion of Prochaska and Miller's Stages of Change Model and Motivational Interviewing. A review of treatment options will include 12-step and other self-help groups, outpatient individual and group therapies, hospital based interventions and long-term residential treatment. Cognitive-behavioral, family systems, interpersonal and psychopharmacological approaches to treatment will all be explored.

Prerequisites: None.

PSY 359 SOCIAL SCIENCE STATISTICS 4 cr

An introduction to the techniques of descriptive and inferential statistics appropriate to the research methods and forms of analysis used in the social sciences; and to the use of microcomputer statistical programs. Cross-listed with SS 469.

Prerequisites: None.

PSY 375 RESEARCH METHODS IN PSYCHOLOGY 4 cr

This course is an introduction to research in psychology with an emphasis on understanding and learning to conduct research in various areas in psychology and becoming a critical consumer of psychological research. Each student will be required to design, carry out and analyze the results of an original research project.

Prerequisites: PSY 369.

PSY 379 INDEPENDENT STUDY - PSYCHOLOGY VAR cr

Prerequisites: Consent of instructor.

PSY 380 INTRODUCTION TO PSYCHOETHERAPIES 4 cr

This course is an introduction to the major therapy methods in use today. It gives a brief examination of the nature of mental health and dysfunctions from the organic, interpersonal and intra-psychic perspectives and a study of the theories and treatment methods of contemporary psychotherapies.

Prerequisites: PSY 101 J.

PSY 382 MULTICULTURAL COUNSELING 4 cr

This course is an overview of basic theories and techniques of multicultural counseling. Students discuss basic definitions of race, culture and ethnicity; issues of racism, stereotyping, power dynamics and discrimination; theories of racial identity development and their implications for the mental health community and family structures; and specific racial/ethnic groups in the United States; different theoretical perspectives of multicultural counseling and ethnic issues involved in working with multicultural clients. Cross-listed with ET/SIS 401B.

Prerequisites: PSY 101 J or consent of instructor.

PSY 385 TOPICS IN PSYCHOLOGY 4 cr

A different topic in psychology will be examined in each topic. Knowledge of previous coursework is required in order to provide students with advanced knowledge on the historical development, classification of the disorders, and the role of genetics and neuropsychology. We will also examine the role of gender (both male and female), class issues, culture, personality and developmental factors that can play a role in the development of mood disorders. Course texts will be a combination of theory and research, professional, popular psychology, and autobiographical approaches to mood disorders. A community project or practicum may be required.

Prerequisites: PSY 101F4.

PSY 385G TOPICS: DRUG ADDICTION 4 cr

Prerequisites: None.

PSY 386 PSYCHOLOGICAL ASSESSMENT 4 cr

An introduction to the techniques of the test construction and interpretation including issues related to reliability and validity. Issues related to test administration, scoring and reporting are explored, with emphasis on common use in psychological test. Attention is also given to emerging trends in the practical uses of tests.

Prerequisites: PSY 101 J.

PSY 387 PSYCHOLOGY OF HUMAN SEXUALITY 4 cr

Designed to give the students background and understanding of the contemporary issues in the field of psychology of human sexuality. Provides a theoretical and practical basis for those students who plan to go on for an advanced degree in the helping fields, also provides a broad perspective on sexuality and human relationships for those interested in a general psychology background.

Prerequisites: PSY 101 F4.

PSY 388 PERCEPTION, MEMORY AND COGNITION 4 cr

This course examines the related areas in psychology of perception, memory, and cognition. Will deal with a variety of topics in each of the three areas, including color, depth, and form perception, memory storage and retrieval, memory disorders, attention, mental imagery, and decision-making. An emphasis is given to the research methods used in the study of cognitive psychology and the brain physiology responsible for complex human behavior.

Prerequisites: PSY 1J.

PSY 389 MEN & MASCULINITIES 4 cr

This course is for both men and women about men issues. Men are powerfully affected by the experiences of growing up male and having people respond to them as male. The psychological, biological, social/cultural factors for both the historical influences on the contemporary male and masculine roles are explored. The implications for society, relationships, families, and boys and men themselves are examined. Topics include gender roles and stereotypes of masculinity and femininity, getting and stereotyping, boyhood, the privileges and perils of collegiate masculinity, portrayals of men and masculinities in the media, men's health issues, men's health issues, and discrimination; theories of racial identity development and their implications for the mental health community and family structures; and specific racial/ethnic groups in the United States; different theoretical perspectives of multicultural counseling and ethnic issues involved in working with multicultural clients. Cross-listed with ET/SIS 401B.

Prerequisites: PSY 101 J or consent of instructor.

PSY 390 GROUP PSYCHOTHERAPY 4 cr

Designed to provide students with knowledge in the theory and practice of group therapy; the course will explore basics in group selection and formation, therapeutic issues for group work, dealing with problems in process and participant behavior, and application with different populations.

Prerequisites: PSY 101 J.

PSY 430 ANIMAL BEHAVIOR 4 cr

The study of animal behavior from an ecological and evolutionary perspective: Lectures, laboratories, and discussions focus on general principles of behavior, as well as the design of experiments to test hypotheses about behavior. Topics include animal communication,
PSY 495A GUIDED EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING (GEL): PSYCHOLOGICAL COUNSELING VAR cr
Experiences involving psychology as a science or in psychology as a means to improving human welfare. Each psychology major is required to complete a minimum of one internship credit for graduation. A student may do multiple internships but a maximum of six internship credits can be counted toward the psychology major. Students with individual faculty members for internships. Sixty hours in an internship setting is required for each internship credit. Students will work in a setting offering psychological services. (F/S/S/S)
Prerequisites: None.

PSY 495B GEL INTERNSHIP: RESEARCH VAR cr
Experiences involving psychology as a science or in psychology as a means to improving human welfare. Each psychology major is required to obtain a minimum of one internship credit for graduation. A student may complete multiple internships but a maximum of six internship credits can be counted toward the psychology major. Students will contract with individual faculty members for internships. Students will work with individual faculty members on empirical research.
Prerequisites: Consent of instructor.

PSY 495C GEL INTERNSHIP: HUMAN SERVICES VAR cr
Students work in an agency under the supervision of a licensed social worker. This internship is taken by the Human Services Concentration and is administered by the Social Science Department.
Prerequisites: HS 400.

PSY 495D GEL INTERNSHIP: VARIETY VAR cr
Addresses the major concepts of the field including both theory and the application of Family Therapy. Practical applications and demonstrations given in class to foster the student's beginning skills as a therapist.
Prerequisites: PSY 101 J.

PSY 495G PROFESSIONAL SEMINAR/INTERNSHIP: SUBSTANCE ABUSE 4 cr
Work in a setting for the assessment and treatment of alcohol and other substance abuse. The internship participants will discuss their internship experiences specifically related to issues of case management and referral, assessment and treatment planning, record keeping, cultural diversity, relapse prevention, aftercare, patient and community education, and the ethical considerations facing professionals working in the field. The seniors and GEL internships are the clinical capstone within the Substance Abuse Counseling concentration.
Prerequisites: None.

PSY 496 CRIMINAL LAW AND CRIMINOLOGY V AR cr
An introduction to the study of corrections, crime prevention, and the criminal justice process. Topics include the history of crime and crime control, the structure of the criminal justice system, the legal system, private policing, and the study of delinquency and crime. Emphasis is on criminal law and substantive criminal justice decisions. Prerequisites: none.

PSY 498 CRITICAL THINKING V AR cr
This course enables students to develop the skills necessary to critically analyze and reflect on their own beliefs and actions. Topics include the nature of evidence, critical thinking in the natural and social sciences, and contemporary ethical issues. Prerequisites: none.

PSY 521 CRITICAL THINKING FOR PRACTICAL PURPOSES V AR cr
A study of the nature of evidence and the critical thinking process as they are used in psychological research. Prerequisites: all students.

PSY 537 CRITICAL THINKING IN PSYCHOLOGY V AR cr
A critical thinking course for non-majors that is designed to develop a student's cognitive abilities. The course is geared toward thinking about thinking, with emphasis on the nature and functions of critical thinking. Prerequisites: none.

PSY 597 CRITICAL THINKING IN PSYCHOLOGY V AR cr
The course is designed for non-majors that are interested in learning more about critical thinking and its applications. Prerequisites: none.

PSY 598 CRITICAL THINKING IN PSYCHOLOGY V AR cr
An introduction to the study of critical thinking and its applications. Topics include the nature of evidence and the critical thinking process as they are used in psychological research. Prerequisites: none.

PSY 599 CRITICAL THINKING IN PSYCHOLOGY V AR cr
An introduction to the study of critical thinking and its applications. Topics include the nature of evidence and the critical thinking process as they are used in psychological research. Prerequisites: none.

RELIGIOUS STUDIES (RS)
RS 101 1ER SPIRITUALITY & ECOLOGY 4 cr
While focusing on Eco-Spirituality and Environmental Justice, this COR 1 course introduces the Dominican Liberal Arts tradition: building a more just and compassionate world through the integration of spirituality, study and service, in a community searching for truth. Through grappling with ecological concerns, students discover connections between their own spiritualities and what they are learning about the environment through various disciplines and their active collaboration in making the world a better place. We join Dominicans and others exploring Is there a way to reverse global warming? Who suffers or benefits most from the way things are? What is 'green' living? What will motivate & empower us to reduce our own carbon footprint? What will it take to live in a more sustainable way? This course is for first semester freshmen or freshman transfer students.
Prerequisites: None.

RS 147 1ER SPIRITUALITY AND JUSTICE 4 cr
While focusing on spirituality, this course introduces the Dominican Liberal Arts tradition building a more just and compassionate world through the integration of spirituality, study and service, in a community searching for truth. Students examine the worldview, beliefs, values and practices that characterize the spiritualities of Jesus of Nazareth and others who have been inspired by his vision of justice throughout history. They will also have opportunities to observe and collaborate in local efforts and ritual celebrations advocating racial, ethnic, gender, economic and ecological justice. Finally, students articulate the characteristics of their own spiritualities and visions for building a more just and compassionate world.
Prerequisites: This course is for first semester freshmen or freshman transfer students.

RS 201 LIVING SUSTAINABLY IN DOMINICAN STUDIES 2 cr
The first of a two-semester, Living & Learning Community which integrates the study and practice of eco-spiritualities and application of the principles of sustainability. Open to students from every religious and spiritual tradition, this ILTC integrates the features of the Dominican Studies: Community, Contemplation, Study, and Mission. This contract with other individual electives requires students to gather together in contemplative rituals and eco-celebrations as well as community meetings to deal with the practicalities of living as sustainably as possible. Participants attend a “Constitution-Writing Retreat” the first week of the semester and prepare research papers and public presentations for early December.
Prerequisites: COR 1 or equivalent required of students in their second or third year; Students apply in March for admission to the "Sustainable Living and Learning "Studium" in Dominican Hall and register in April for RS 201.

RS 202 2ER LIVING SUSTAINABLY IN DOMINICAN STUDIES 2 cr
The second of a two-semester sequence associated with the Sustainable Living & Learning Community in Dominican Hall. Continuing the intensive study of eco-spiritualities and efforts to live sustainably during the Fall in RS 201, student partner with others in the wider community in a variety of sustainability efforts through research and practical assistance. In addition to weekly seminars, students summarize their learning, beliefs and actions for the annual Student Academic Showcase and write a COR 2 Statement to articulate their own spiritualities, beliefs and values. Note well. Students must take both RS 201 and RS 202 in order to fulfill requirements for the COR 2, E and R tags.

RS 210 RU JESUS & THE GOSPELS 4 cr
An exploration of the Gospels and selected documents created by the earliest Christians. Traditions drawn from historical/critical and narrative methodologies. After examining one of the Gospels in detail, we engage a selection of Jesus’ moral and ethical teachings and the impacts they have had on the literary world of Christianity. Rather than definitive answers, however, we seek relevant questions. We discover the power these documents have to draw us deeply into the historical, religious and cultural contexts with more clarity and precision.
Prerequisites: ENG 110, PHIL 101.

RS 218 CR IMAGES OF FAITH: STORY SCREEN SPIRIT 4 cr
An exploration of the theological, political, psychological and social narratives, the symbolic elements which landscape the religious imagination, and the ways these finds expression in scripture, autobiography, poetry, fiction, drama, and visual arts. This course explores the themes of grace, ritual and the process of human conversion as depicted in selected literary and cinematic narratives. Participants in the course will investigate the human capacity to hear and tell stories, and will read selected works of fiction and poetry and view PSY 445 V BIOLOGICAL PSYCHOLOGY 4 cr
This course examines the relationship between the functions of the central nervous system and behavior. Topics include brain structure and function of brain cells, and the physiological mechanisms of sensory perception, motor coordination, sleep, memory, language, aggression, anxiety, schizophrenia, and depression. Cross-listed with BIO 445.

RS 147 1ER SPIRITUALITY & ECOLOGY 4 cr
While focusing on Eco-Spirituality and Environmental Justice, this COR 1 course introduces the Dominican Liberal Arts tradition: building a more just and compassionate world through the integration of spirituality, study and service, in a community searching for truth. Through grappling with ecological concerns, students discover connections between their own spiritualities and what they are learning about the environment through various disciplines and their active collaboration in making the world a better place. We join Dominicans and others exploring Is there a way to reverse global warming? Who suffers or benefits most from the way things are? What is 'green' living? What will motivate & empower us to reduce our own carbon footprint? What will it take to live in a more sustainable way? This course is for first semester freshmen or freshman transfer students.
Prerequisites: None.

RS 201 LIVING SUSTAINABLY IN DOMINICAN STUDIES 2 cr
The first of a two-semester, Living & Learning Community which integrates the study and practice of eco-spiritualities and application of the principles of sustainability. Open to students from every religious and spiritual tradition, this ILTC integrates the features of the Dominican Studies: Community, Contemplation, Study, and Mission. This contract with other individual electives requires students to gather together in contemplative rituals and eco-celebrations as well as community meetings to deal with the practicalities of living as sustainably as possible. Participants attend a “Constitution-Writing Retreat” the first week of the semester and prepare research papers and public presentations for early December.
Prerequisites: COR 1 or equivalent required of students in their second or third year; Students apply in March for admission to the "Sustainable Living and Learning "Studium" in Dominican Hall and register in April for RS 201.

RS 202 2ER LIVING SUSTAINABLY IN DOMINICAN STUDIES 2 cr
The second of a two-semester sequence associated with the Sustainable Living & Learning Community in Dominican Hall. Continuing the intensive study of eco-spiritualities and efforts to live sustainably during the Fall in RS 201, student partner with others in the wider community in a variety of sustainability efforts through research and practical assistance. In addition to weekly seminars, students summarize their learning, beliefs and actions for the annual Student Academic Showcase and write a COR 2 Statement to articulate their own spiritualities, beliefs and values. Note well. Students must take both RS 201 and RS 202 in order to fulfill requirements for the COR 2, E and R tags.

RS 210 RU JESUS & THE GOSPELS 4 cr
An exploration of the Gospels and selected documents created by the earliest Christians. Traditions drawn from historical/critical and narrative methodologies. After examining one of the Gospels in detail, we engage a selection of Jesus’ moral and ethical teachings and the impacts they have had on the literary world of Christianity. Rather than definitive answers, however, we seek relevant questions. We discover the power these documents have to draw us deeply into the historical, religious and cultural contexts with more clarity and precision.
Prerequisites: ENG 110, PHIL 101.

RS 218 CR IMAGES OF FAITH: STORY SCREEN SPIRIT 4 cr
An exploration of the theological, political, psychological and social narratives, the symbolic elements which landscape the religious imagination, and the ways these finds expression in scripture, autobiography, poetry, fiction, drama, and visual arts. This course explores the themes of grace, ritual and the process of human conversion as depicted in selected literary and cinematic narratives. Participants in the course will investigate the human capacity to hear and tell stories, and will read selected works of fiction and poetry and view 244 | Undergraduate Catalogue films that highlight the role of ritual and narrative in human/religious transforming and self-understanding.

Prerequisites: T and W tags.

RS 220 JEWISH PERSPECTIVES ON THE BIBLE 2 cr Normally taught by a local Rabbi, this course introduces students to contemporary Jewish approaches to studying TANAK: the Torah, the Prophets and the Writings of the Hebrew Bible with a special emphasis on the relevance of the study of Tanak in Jewish life today. Prerequisites: None.

RS 225 GR RELIGION & SPIRITUAL TRADITIONS 4 cr An introduction to the nature, content, significance and function of religion within human experience as evidenced in the principal religious traditions of the world - indigenous and tribal, eastern and western, past and present. By considering their respective worldviews, beliefs, values, practices, institutions and cultural expressions, students learn to recognize similarities and differences, as well as what makes each tradition unique. In developing the ability to think both empathetically and critically about religious claims, students engage two ways of knowing: (1) an ordered knowledge concerning the origin, evolution, teachings and practices of select religious traditions; and (2) a panoramic sense of the meaning of religion, the complexities of religious experiences and their multiple expressions, and the consequent broadening of our own understanding of the world, of its peoples, and of ourselves.

Prerequisites: None.

RS 240 RU PERSONAL Morality & SOCIAL JUSTICE 4 cr An introduction to the theory and practice of Christian ethics in its personal, social and cultural dimensions. Personal identity, moral character and conscience development, and ethical values and choices are explored, and issues of social justice are investigated using case studies grouped around the themes of Catholic social teaching. Participants in the course will discover connections and contrasts between Christian ethical thought and their own perspectives on human persons and component of this work will be participatory and acting on them within the limits of personal, historical, social and cultural contexts.

Prerequisites: None.

RS 248 2R SPIRITUALITY IN THE 21ST CENTURY 4 cr Who am I? Where did I come from? Where am I going? What gives life meaning, purpose and direction? What part do I play in the world around me? This course invites students to explore answers to these questions, examine the world in which they live, and begin to discover the unique ways their deepest identities engage the needs of contemporary society. In light of the rich spiritual heritage of the Christian and Jewish traditions, students will reflect personally and theologically on Jesus of Nazareth and explore the implications of their own spiritualities for building a more just and compassionate world in the 21st century. Required for RS majors who have not taken RS 101 or RS 147.

Prerequisites: COR 1 or equivalent; open to second or third year students or sophomore and above transfers. Any “I” tag course, Any “W” tag course. Any “Y” tag course. SPAN 101 or equivalent recommended.

Prerequisites: None.

RS 265 RELIGIOUS TRADITIONS OF THE EAST 4 cr This course is a study of selected major religious traditions of South and East Asia with respect to their history, literature, and influence today.

Prerequisites: None.

RS 279 INDEPENDENT READING AND RESEARCH VAR cr Students choose a topic of interest in Religious Studies or select writings of a major theologian (e.g. Augustine, Aquinas, Luther, Tillich, Segundo, Retherber, Johnson, neo-Thomists, Feminists, Liberation Theology).

Prerequisites: Consent of instructor.

RS 303 SEMINAR IN RELIGION & PUBLIC LIFE I 2 cr This course is a first semester of a study of contemporary issues relating to religion and public life. Biblical notions of justice, papal encyclicals, pastoral letters of Bishops’ Conferences, and statements of the World Council of Churches provide a basis for discussion and participation in the area of social justice or public policy.

Prerequisites: None.

RS 307 2GR LIBERATION THEOLOGIES IN LATIN AMERICA 4 cr This COR 2 course begins and ends with “action in solidarity” with Latin American immigrants struggling for justice. Study includes an overview of the variety of Latin American Theologies of Liberation as they have found expression in the spiritualities (worldviews, beliefs, values, practices & lifestyles) and writings (essays, sermons, letters, theological treatises and poetry) of theologian/practitioners from each of the three generations of Latin American Liberationists. In each case, the historical, political, economic and ecclesial contexts of the lucha will be examined as students discover the intimate connection in their own lives between action, study/reflection, and spirituality in the praxis of liberation theory.

Prerequisites: COR 1 or equivalent; open to second or third year students or sophomore and above transfers. Any “I” tag course, Any “W” tag course. Any “Y” tag course. SPAN 101 or equivalent recommended.

RS 308 LIBERATION THEOLOGIES & THE DISMANTLING OF RACISM, I 2 cr This course is an opportunity to identify and develop your personal spirituality through the study of Black Liberation Theology and dismantling racism. You will integrate insights from the philosophy of Martin Luther King, Jr. and the theologies of Black and Womanist Theologians in reflecting on your own community-based engagement in the dismantling of racism and building “the beloved community” envisioned by Dr. King. This two-semester sequence meets once a day each week for two hours in both the Fall and Spring semesters and requires significant participation in community-based and/or service-learning. Both semesters are required to fulfill COR 2 or Ethics Studies 480.

Prerequisites: COR 1 or equivalent, Junior standing.

RS 309 2DR LIBERATION THEOLOGIES & THE DISMANTLING OF RACISM 2 cr Integrating insights from the first semester’s consideration of racism and white privilege, the philosophy of Martin Luther King, Jr. and the theologies of Black and Womanist Theologians, this semester focuses on what is being done to dismantle racism in your own field of study (major or minor), area of community involvement (volunteer or athletics), or career path. Students are required to participate in the annual White Privilege Conference (additional cost for travel and registration) OR a minimum of 20 hours of community-based anti-racism or healing racism service and multicultural trainings offered in the Madison area. Students report on their own efforts to dismantle racism, in the context of their annual Student Academic Research Grant. Each student completes a COR 2 Statement connecting learning beliefs and values on racism and building “the beloved community” envisioned by Dr. King.

Prerequisites: COR 1 or equivalent; open to second or third year students or sophomore and above transfers; RS 308.

RS 310 RU GOD & THE HEBREW BIBLE 4 cr The Hebrew Bible (aka The Old Testament), is not only foundational for much of Western civilization, it is also an intimate and compelling report of God’s relationship with the people of ancient Israel. This God is not a theological abstraction; but instead the Mystery of justice and mercy whose goal is to create a people who see these attributes as complementary rather than antithetical. Far more than a national epic—the Hebrew Bible is a prayer book for Christianity and Judaism, a wellspring of ancient Wisdom, and a fearless and perceptive analysis of the nature of human evil. Our initial goal is to read selected sections through lenses drawn from historical, theological, and narrative methodologies. Gradually we will expand from straightforward readings to a deeper engagement with the text as it forms human history. At the same time contemporary liturgical developments and theologies of Black and Womanist Theologians, this semester focuses on enhancing women’s place in the Jewish community. This course explores contemporary developments in feminist Jewish scholarship, feminist Jewish theology, and feminist Jewish activism. An essential component of this course is based service learning in partnership with Jewish women in Madison.

Prerequisites: COR 1 or equivalent; open to students in their second or third year, or sophomore and above transfers.

RS 324 2R XPLORING CHRISTIAN THOUGHT 4 cr An exploration of the basic concepts and themes of Christianity as taught by the churches, understood by contemporary theologians, and expressed in the lives of believers. Through intensive written assignments and the study of contextual theological models, the course provides opportunities to investigate human/religious experiences at the core of the Christian tradition and some of the multiple ways these experiences have been expressed and passed down through generations; to explore the way Christians speak and think about these key themes; and to examine the relationship between Christian belief, teachings, and practices.

Prerequisites: Any “I” tag course, any “Y” tag course and ENG 110 or W 175.

RS 327 RELIGIONS AND CONTEMPORARY ISSUES 4 cr An interdisciplinary, multi-cultural and experimental exploration of the role religious perspectives play in shaping the human understanding of and response to issues and events of the day: globalization, poverty, war, environment/sustainability, gender, and other topics may be considered.

Prerequisites: None.

RS 328 2R STRONG RELIGION: FUNDAMENTALISM 4 cr An exploration of social and religious forces behind fundamentalist tendencies in the Abrahamic religions. Examination of their respective histories and value systems, dialogue with representatives of these cultures, consideration of alternative perspectives from within and without each tradition, gender roles, women's perspectives, and response/reporting by the media.

Prerequisites: None.

RS 339 2R THE EVOLUTION OF GLOBAL CHRISTIANITY 4 cr Christianity has a rich and complex story to tell. Beginning with the New Testament era, our study then moves to the interaction between Christianity and Rome, sketching the new sect’s transition from a small and persecuted Jewish group to the sole legal religion of the Empire. Medieval Christianity features the Holy Roman Empire, the schism between Eastern and Western Christianity, and the encounter with Islam, while Renaissance brings new vitality to Christian thought and artistic expression. Early modern Christianity brings us the Reformation and expansion into Eastern Asia, the Indian subsection, and the Americas. Through all of this we trace the intricate interaction between Christians and their larger communities with an eye to the real issue: how does modern Christian participation in the global community and how can it more effectively promote a just and compassionate society?

Prerequisites: ENG 110, PHIL 101.

RS 331 CHRISTIAN WORSHIP 4 cr

RS 356 2GR THE CHALLENGE OF ISLAM 4 cr
The events of 9/11 and other recent radical Muslim terrorist activities worldwide have caused both a growing interest in understanding Islam and an increased animosity toward the faith accompanied by stereotypes and profiling individuals. The presupposition of this course is that the “challenge of Islam” cannot be addressed without understanding Islam’s scriptures, values, history, culture, and attitude toward politics. The challenge can present itself either as one to Muslims or one to non-Muslims. We will combine a spiritual component with members of the Muslim community of Madison through individual conversational partners and through dialogue with guest presenters in class. Cross-listed with ETHS 4802-2GR.

RS 357 CHRISTIAN-MUSLIM DIALOGUE 2 cr
An experiential exploration of interfaith dialogue between Christians and Muslims; this two-semester, COR 2 seminar includes the study of foundational beliefs and practices of each tradition with a special focus on the variety of cultural and intercultural contexts in which adherents practice their faith today. Students study, witness and experience different models of interfaith dialogue as partners consider some of the ethical, theological, economic, political and practical issues dividing and uniting the global Islamic and Muslim communities.

The seminar includes participation in several community-based dialogues, observation of Christian and Muslim celebrations, student presentations and the writing of a Personal Mission Statement.

RS 358 2GR CHRISTIAN-MUSLIM DIALOGUE 4 cr
The second half of an experiential exploration of interfaith dialogue between Christians and Muslims, RS 358 continues the study of foundational beliefs and practices of each tradition with a special focus on the variety of cultural and intercultural contexts in which adherents practice their faith today. Students study, witness and experience different models of interfaith dialogue as partners consider some of the ethical, theological, economic, political and practical issues dividing and uniting the world-wide Muslim and Christian communities.

The seminar includes participation in several community-based dialogues, observation of Christian and Muslim celebrations, student presentations and the writing of a Personal Mission Statement. Note: 2GR fulfilled upon successful completion of RS 358.

We will take a philosophical approach to the issues we encounter and question our own assumptions along with those of the texts we read. Within our texts, we will examine social and cultural constructs in historical context, in contemporary society, and in our own lives. Using both fiction and nonfiction, we will examine this interplay between how we construct the ‘feminine’ and the ‘masculine’ in our psyches and how gender is constructed through the media and collective psyche. Additionally, in this course, students will have the unique opportunity to reflect upon, write about, and explore their own gender identities and its many influences.

WS 440 GQU SEMINAR: WOMEN’S & GENDER STUDIES 4 cr
What issues are important to women in different parts of the world? How do the issues relate to one another? What makes an issue “feminist” or not? How do we conceive of feminisms outside of our own cultural traditions? To what extent does feminism dominate the agenda of feminist political groups? What are the implications for global feminism and for women’s lives and concerns in different cultures, locations, and times? Is it possible to actively support feminist causes across the globe without imposing dangerous sets of limiting assumptions? This course is an exploration of the methods, concepts, and experiences of feminism as it is practiced all over the world in different ways. The historical development and cultural mappings of feminisms since the second wave will be our main concern, but we will maintain specificity by focusing on particular cultures, locations, and on locational concerns. Three large units will make up the course: feminism and race at the end of the second wave into the present; postcolonial critiques of feminism and issues of religion, rights, and class in various locations throughout the world; and transnational approaches to feminism and political possibilities. Throughout our explorations of contemporary feminisms, we will interrogate how our own lives and choices affect the lives of women around the world, in part by investigating the origins of products we... purchase regularly. Feminist theorists from a variety of disciplines including philosophy, literature, political science, history and sociology will provide groundwork for our explorations, which will be filled out through case studies, historical texts and literary narratives. Cross-listed with ENG 480A and ETHS 481
