HOW DOES THE COLLEGE SUPPORT STUDENTS?

2017-18 TUITION

- The College is often able to provide a financial aid package that is competitive with nearly every institution that a student is considering.
- 93% of our full time undergraduate students receive grants, scholarships, and fellowships.

HOW DO NAMED SCHOLARSHIP FUNDS SUPPORT STUDENTS?

- In addition to financial aid, students benefit greatly from the generosity of private benefactors. In 2017-2018, students received financial support from 148 unique annual and endowed scholarship funds.
- 284 students received awards from these funds.
- The average family income of these students is $59,794.
- Most scholarship awards ranged from $500 - $10,000. The average scholarship award was $4,000.
- The College guarantees a consistent level of annual financial support for eligible student recipients who maintain full-time continuous enrollment, through both institutional aid and scholarship support. Consistent scholarship support helps make this possible.
