

FOREIGN LANGUAGE DEPARTMENT

Our Spanish and French programs offer a wide range of classes in language, culture and literature, together with extra- and co-curricular activities to enhance your learning experience in Madison's vibrant community. We also have a state-of-the-art language lab with satellite TV, Internet, and language learning software to develop your communication skills.

Edgewood College also offers classes in Italian and Chinese, and with our collaborative program with the University of Wisconsin-Madison, you'll have the opportunity to study your choice of nearly 60 other languages while still enjoying the benefits of a smaller liberal arts college.

Fine Arts Awards are available for qualified students who plan to major or minor in a foreign language. Admission to the College and an interview are required. Please visit www.edgewood.edu/vip for deadlines and more information.

MAJORS

- French
- French Teaching
- Spanish
- Spanish Teaching
- International Relations

MINORS

- French
- French Teaching
- French for Elementary Education
- Spanish
- Spanish Teaching
- Spanish for Elementary Education

STUDY ABROAD

Edgewood College students are given a wide choice of programs that will enhance their liberal arts education with a global perspective. Edgewood College administers short-term and full-semester study abroad programs in a number of countries. Students may also participate in study-abroad programs through collaborative arrangements with other universities or our prestigious ISEP (International Student Exchange Program) membership.

Edgewood College students have recently studied in: Argentina, Australia, China, Czech Republic, Finland, France, Ireland, Italy, Malta, Mexico, The Netherlands, New Zealand, Spain, Sweden and the United Kingdom.

SAMPLE OF COURSES

SPAN 432 - Latin American Civilization

Historical and cultural insights of Latin America including a study of the patterns in the social, political and economic structures of each Latin American state.

SPAN 433 - Contemporary Culture

Highlights of present-day Hispanic culture, with focus on Spain or Latin America.

SPAN 436 - Film & Society

A study of Hispanic film as a reflection of culture.

FREN 316 - Language & the Francophone World

Practice and development of written and oral communication through cultural readings.

FREN 437 - Literary Movements of Modern France

In-depth study of selected thematic issues and trends in present-day France.

To see a full list of the courses offered in the Foreign Language Department, please visit www.edgewood.edu/catalogue.

FACULTY

Andrea Byrum, Ph.D.

Spanish
byrum@edgewood.edu

Ian Davies, Ph.D.

Spanish
idavies@edgewood.edu

Sayeeda Mamoon, Ph.D.

French
smamoon@edgewood.edu

Danielle Skupas, Ph.D.

Spanish
dskupas@edgewood.edu

"I feel that my foreign language courses at Edgewood have been ones that really push me to do my best and have definitely prepared me for studying abroad. They're rich in fascinating and relevant information and the professors are truly passionate about the material, always willing to answer and discuss any question a student has. I leave class feeling better prepared and more confident."

Ricardo McKenzie '11
Spanish and French Major & Ethnic Studies Minor