
ADVANCED ADAPTIVE SCHOOLS SEMINAR
Developing and Facilitating Collaborative Groups
July 23-26, 2018
8:00 – 4:00, Edgewood College, Madison, WI

- Seminar Leaders:
- Carolyn McKanders, Director Emeritus, Thinking Collaborative

- Jane Ellison, Director Emeritus, Thinking Collaborative

Learn how to build collaborative professional cultures that improve student achievement. This practical leadership institute immerses you in a supportive seminar environment where you will acquire new conceptual maps, increased confidence, and expanded strategies for strengthening adult working groups.

Seminar Outcomes:

- Increase capacity to initiate, develop and sustain high functioning learning communities
- Expand repertoire of practical facilitation tools
- Develop new lenses and tools for working with energy and conflict
- Cultivate strategies for intervening when individuals and groups lose focus
- Apply universal principles across cultural contexts

This learning experience is specially designed for educators who conduct meetings, and for those who serve on work teams and decision-making groups.

Individual $950 ($995 after April 15, 2018)

Teams of 3 or more: $750 ($825 after April 15, 2018)

Registration fees include course materials, light breakfast, and lunch each day

2 College Semester Credits will be available through Edgewood College
