WHAT THE RA ROLE ENTAILS

As an RA, you will be expected to:

- Build and maintain relationships with residents
- Host, attend, promote, and engage residents in events across campus designed to create a sense of community on your floor and among the larger campus.
- Respond to residents' needs around safety and well-being.
- Serve on a duty rotation to monitor the safety of residents and respond to after-hours resident concerns.
- Attend and engage in RA-related meetings, such as 1:1's, staff meetings, and Eagle Education committee meetings
- Assist with hall opening and closing

OUR DESIRED VALUES

Students wanting to be an RA must:

- Demonstrate empathy and a desire to help others
- Demonstrate a commitment to equity and antiracism
- Be dedicated to growth and learning
- Demonstrate an ability to think critically and problem-solve
- Demonstrate consistent open and honest communication

WHY BE AN RA

As an RA, you will share your voice, develop a strong sense of belonging, and grow within the Edgewood community as you develop transferable skills, such as:

- Leadership
- Communication
- Teamwork
- Organization
- Relationship building
- Problem solving
- Time Management

Additionally through the RA, you will receive:

- Housing for the academic year
- A 120 or 170 Block meal plan each semester
