Fall 2026

EAGLE FAMILIES

Newsletter

Hello Eagle Families!

The leaves are turning red so that means we are officially in the Fall season. We are looking back at Orientation and moving forward into mid-term exams. To help your students succeed and be in the know, we invite you to review what's coming up at Edgewood University!

Thank you for being an essential part of the Edgewood family!

OSI Thanks YOU

On behalf of the Office of Student Involvement, I would like to thank all of you for your amazing dedication and support for all of our students during Eagle Orientation and Move-in.

Please feel free to look at our OSI Impact Report for Orientation and Welcome Week and see how our students engaged with the events and what was most impactful.

Thanksgiving Break

Thanksgiving Break will happen between November 26th and November 27th. This is a great time to recharge and get ready for final exams!

If students live on campus, the Residence Halls remain open through Thanksgiving Break.

Faculty and staff offices are closed during this break.

Spring Registration is around the Corner!

Priority Registration for the Spring 2027 semester will begin on November 3rd. Students should be meeting with their academic advisors to discuss their credits and classes for their respective major.

Please encourage your students to schedule a meeting with their advisor if they haven't already-it is needed prior to registering!
