

DEGREE PORTABILITY

The coursework for our program was designed to meet MFT licensure requirements for the state of Wisconsin. Read more about the state requirements by clicking this link: DSPS Professions – MFT (dpsps.wi.gov)

Marriage and Family Therapy is a profession that leads to licensure in all 50 states; however, each state has its own law and regulations about what is needed to become licensed as an MFT in that state. If planning to apply for licensure outside of Wisconsin, find State/Provincial information here.

IMPORTANT: Not every state will accept a degree and supervised hours earned in another state. Review license requirements in the state where you intend to practice as soon as possible so that you understand what may and may not be accepted across state lines. Here is the link to each state's licensure resources: MFT State/Provincial Resources (AAMFT.org)

This degree portability information can also be found in our MFT Program Handbook.

The coursework for Edgewood College's Marriage and Family Therapy graduate program was designed to meet MFT licensure requirements in the state of Wisconsin. You may read more about the state requirements for MFT licensure in Wisconsin by clicking this link: DPSPS Professions – MFT (dpsps.wi.gov)

If you have questions about the program's alignment with professional licensure you may contact the Associate Dean and Program Director: Deb Polacek at dpolacek@edgewood.edu.

I acknowledge that I have been informed and am aware that licensing regulations differ across states and provinces. I understand that Edgewood College's MFT program is designed to meet the licensure requirements in the state of Wisconsin, and that an MFT degree from this program may not meet MFT licensing requirement in a different state..
